OWNER/CEO

6TH YEAR WITH THE BILLS

TERRY PEGULA

Terry Pegula is a self-made success story, rising from humble beginnings to become one of the most respected leaders in the energy industry, and one of very few professional sports owners to operate franchises in multiple sports.

Together with his wife Kim, Terry realized a life-long dream on October 8, 2014. The Pegulas received the unanimous approval of NFL owners to succeed Pro Football Hall of Famer Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. and become the second owners in the storied history of the Buffalo Bills.

"Owning any professional team is about winning and the primary goal of our ownership will be to win the Super Bowl and bring the championships to the city of Buffalo, and myself and my family will dedicate ourselves to that," he said at his introductory press conference.

Terry serves as CEO of the Bills and currently sits on the NFL's Health and Safety committee. In 2016, the Pegulas were honored with the Tank Younger Award, which recognizes extraordinary contributions towards diversity in the NFL.

Raised in Carbondale, PA, Terry is a 1969 graduate of Scranton Preparatory School. He entered Penn State University as a math major and was accepted into the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering Program. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973 and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co. as an Area Engineer, a decision that brought him to Olean, NY in 1975.

In 1983, Terry borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to create East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and production company operating in the Appalachian Basin. Over the next 27 years, Terry built East into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc., which continues to be active today. In 2012, Terry formed JKLM Energy. JKLM is staffed with many former East Resources employees and takes pride in contributing to U.S. energy independence by producing Pennsylvania natural gas, elevating the state into one of the top producing regions in the world.

Upon the sale of East Resources assets, Terry focused his attention on his love of sports. In September of 2010, the Pegulas announced a gift of $102 million to construct Pegula Ice Arena, paving the way for Division I hockey at Penn State.

On February 22, 2011, Terry and Kim purchased the NHL's Buffalo Sabres. They followed up their commitment to hockey by purchasing the AHL's Rochester Americans later that year, restoring a longtime affiliation between the Sabres and Amerks. The Pegulas opened Harborcenter in 2014. The $200 million dollar complex, next door to the Sabres' KeyBank Center, includes two hockey rinks, training facilities, four restaurants, a full-service Marriott Hotel and parking. The combination of KeyBank Center and Harborcenter have allowed Buffalo to be a center for hockey, hosting the 2016 NHL Draft, the NHL Combine every year since 2015, the 2018 World Junior Hockey Championships, and the 2019 NCAA Frozen Four.

In addition to helping manage the family's sports operations, Terry runs JKLM Energy in Pittsburgh, and his family's business operations in Boca Raton, Florida. Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew.

OWNER/ PRESIDENT

KIM PEGULA

Kim Pegula is the President and CEO of Pegula Sports and Entertainment, and President of both the Buffalo Bills and Buffalo Sabres.

A native of Fairport, N.Y., she attended nearby Houghton College and graduated in 1991 with a degree in communications. Kim began her professional career with East Resources in 1991 and was involved with the company until its sale in 2010.

On October 8, 2014, Kim, along with her husband Terry, realized a long-time dream as they became only the second owners of the Bills. Kim currently serves on the NFL's Super Bowl and Major Events Advisory Committee, Business Ventures Committee, and NFL Foundation Committee. She also serves on the Board of Directors of the Hockey Hall of Fame and Museum and the Republic Services Group.

Kim got her start in sports in 2011 after she and Terry purchased the Buffalo Sabres. In May 2018, she became the first female to hold the post of President for both an NHL and NFL team. Kim and Terry's sports ownership also extends to the NLL Buffalo Bandits and Rochester Knighthawks and the AHL Rochester Americans.

After owning multiple professional sports teams in the same market, Kim launched Pegula Sports and Entertainment (PSE) in 2014, creating a management company that oversees the business operations across all Pegula-owned entities and sports teams. Since its inception, PSE has expanded its reach to include Harborcenter, a multipurpose facility anchored by two NHL-size ice rinks and a Marriott Hotel franchise; PicSix, a full service creative agency specializing in video, digital and marketing creative services for a variety of companies, a hospitality division that operates multiple restaurants including (716) Food and Sport, a Tim Hortons Café & Bake Shop franchise, The Healthy Scratch cafe, and The Draft Room. In 2017, PSE added ADPRO Sports to their portfolio, providing branded merchandise to teams and companies across the country.

PSE, through its managed entities, has been key to bringing new business opportunities to Buffalo, including multi-year agreements to host the NHL Combine, 2016 NHL Draft, 2018 World Junior Championships, 2019 Frozen Four NCAA Men's Hockey Tournament, as well as a wide variety of stadium and arena concerts and national and international tournament events at all levels.

Kim and the PSE entities have been honored with a number of awards including Business First's Most Influential People, four NYS Emmy Awards for sports content, Buffalo Best Place To Work, the Tank Younger Award for embracing diversity in the NFL, and numerous individual recognitions of her staffs.

Kim and Terry have also given back to encourage the growth of sports and the many intangible benefits they believe sports creates for individuals, fans and their community. In 2010, the Pegulas gave an unprecedented $102 million for the creation of the Pegula Ice Arena at Terry's alma mater Penn State. The facility allowed for Penn State's hockey program to become a NCAA Division I team and was the final piece for the formation of the Big Ten Hockey Conference. Kim also gave back to her alma mater, Houghton College, with a gift of $12 million to build the Kerr-Pegula Athletic Complex allowing Houghton College athletics to become a Division III program.

Terry and Kim have five children: Michael, Laura, Jessica, Kelly and Matthew.

GENERAL MANAGER

22ND YEAR IN THE NFL

BRANDON BEANE

Brandon Beane was named General Manager of the Buffalo Bills on May 9, 2017. He joined the Bills after a 19-year stint with the Carolina Panthers – including two seasons as the team's assistant general manager (2015-16).

Beane, who became the 13th general manager in franchise history, helped the Bills gain their first playoff berth since 1999.

While making the playoffs in his first year in 2017, Beane also engineered several trades that resulted in the Bills selecting 7th (QB Josh Allen) and 16th overall (LB Tremaine Edmunds) in the 2018 draft while maintaining all their 2019 draft capital. Along the way, he stabilized the team's salary cap status.

In the 2019 offseason, the Bills selected DT Ed Oliver with the 9th overall selection and overhauled the offense with numerous free agent additions.

In Carolina, Beane played a vital role in constructing the Panthers draft boards from 2012-17, evaluated professional and collegiate players and worked closely with the football operations staff on the negotiation of player contracts.

Throughout Beane's time in Carolina, the Panthers won five NFC South division titles and two NFC conference championships. In 2012, Beane was named the Panthers interim general manager—holding the role for the final 10 games of the season. Carolina finished out the season with a 6-4 record under Beane's watch.

Beane also worked closely with current Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott in Carolina, where McDermott served as defensive coordinator from 2011-16.

"The most impressive thing I think that we accomplished is him and coach are joined at the hip and at the head," said Bills owner Terry Pegula. "They think alike. They're both very thorough people. They can make instantaneous decisions like a coach has to during the game but they also think stuff out to the point where you say, 'Wow these guys are very thorough.'"

A cum laude graduate in communications studies from UNC-Wilmington in 1998 and a native of Stanly County, North Carolina, Beane (born July 27, 1976) began his career in 1998 with the Panthers communications department.

Beane moved on to fill various football operations/personnel roles with the Panthers organization before being named the team's director of football operations in 2008.

Brandon and his wife, Hayley, have two sons, Tyson and Wes and reside in Orchard Park, NY. The family has two dogs, Bodie and Peanut. He enjoys golf, running (he finished a marathon in Wilmington, NC in 2010), racquetball and basketball.

HEAD COACH

21ST YEAR IN THE NFL

SEAN McDERMOTT

On January 11, 2017, the Buffalo Bills named Sean McDermott the 20th head coach in franchise history. McDermott joined the Bills after spending six seasons as the defensive coordinator of the Carolina Panthers.

In his first year in Buffalo, McDermott led the Bills to their first playoff berth since 1999 with a 9-7 record. He became the third coach in Bills history to earn a playoff berth in his first season at the helm, joining Joe Collier (1966) and Wade Phillips (1998).

The 2018 Bills finished second in the league in total defense, allowing 294.1 yards per game, and first in pass defense (179.2 yards per game).

While in Carolina, McDermott developed a top-10 defense in four of his six seasons in charge. Over his six-year tenure, the Panthers defense ranked second in the NFL in sacks (261), third in turnovers forced (169), sixth in rushing yards allowed per game (103.3), ninth in yards per game (339.1) and 12th in points allowed per game (22.1). In his time in Carolina, McDermott helped the Panthers to three division titles and a trip to Super Bowl 50.

In 2016, McDermott's defense put up impressive numbers in multiple categories. The Panthers finished second in the NFL in sacks (47), second in red zone defense (43.64%) and sixth in run defense (91.6).

BECAME THIRD HEAD COACH IN BILLS HISTORY TO EARN A PLAYOFF BERTH IN FIRST SEASON, JOINING JOE COLLIER AND WADE PHILLIPS

In 2015, McDermott's defense helped lead the way for the Panthers' 15-1 regular season and run to Super Bowl 50. The Panthers ranked second in the NFL in yards allowed per play (4.9), sixth in scoring defense (19.3) and total defense (322.9). The defense led the league in interceptions (24), takeaways (39), points off turnovers (148) and turnover differential (+20) and tied a franchise record with four interception return touchdowns. Four of his defenders – LBs Thomas Davis and Luke Kuechly, CB Josh Norman and DT Kawann Short – were named to the Pro Bowl and earned All-Pro honors.

In 2013, McDermott was named The Sporting News Coordinator of the Year when his unit ranked second in total defense (301.3). The Panthers also led the league in sacks (60) while finishing second in scoring defense (15.1). The defense helped propel Carolina to a 12-4 record, an NFC South title and the team's first playoff appearance since 2008. In allowing the franchise's fewest points since 1996, the defense set a team record with an NFL-low 21 touchdowns allowed.

McDermott came to Carolina following 12 seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles. He spent his last two seasons in Philadelphia as defensive coordinator, helping the Eagles to the playoffs in each of those seasons.

In 2010, McDermott led one of the league's youngest defenses to top 10 rankings in takeaways and sacks. In his first season overseeing the Eagles' defense in 2009, McDermott was named the NFL's top defensive coordinator by Pro Football Weekly after his unit ranked third in the NFL with 38 takeaways and 44 sacks.

McDermott coached the secondary and linebackers before becoming defensive coordinator, learning under the late Jim Johnson, the Eagles' legendary defensive coordinator.

In 2007, McDermott took over the linebackers after serving as the secondary/safeties coach from 2004-06. Pro Football Hall of Famer Brian Dawkins was a Pro Bowler all three seasons, and fellow safety Michael Lewis joined him in 2004.

McDermott worked as the team's assistant defensive backs coach in 2003 and as the defensive assistant/quality control coach from 2001-02, assisting with linebackers. He joined the organization in 1998 as a scouting administrative coordinator before being promoted to assistant to the head coach in 1999.

An All-Atlantic 10 Conference choice at safety for William & Mary as a senior in 1997, McDermott graduated with a degree in finance and began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1998. He and his wife, Jamie, have three children.

FAST FACTS

About Coach McDermott

1 | Sean was an All-League Defensive Back in high school in 1992 and earned a spot as a walk-on on the William and Mary football team under head coach Jimmy Laycock. SHOUTOUTS

- Finished the 2018 season with two interceptions, a career high.
- Recorded his first multi-sack game since 2016 against Tom Brady and the Patriots (10/29/18).
- Finished fourth in the NFL for passes defensed by a linebacker with nine in 2018.
- Has sacks against 22 different NFL teams and 25 different QBs.
- Alexander joins Bruce Smith as the only Bill to log a sack in 7 straight games.
- Logged 69 total tackles, a career high, and 6.5 sacks in 16 games during the 2018 season.
- In his first season with the Bills in 2016, Alexander recorded 12.5 sacks, second all-time for a first-year Bill, with Bryce Paup recording 19 sacks in his first season with the Bills in 1995.
- Is a two-time Pro Bowler (2013, 2017) and was the 2017 Pro Bowl Defensive MVP.
- Named an All-Pro Second-Team Selection following the 2016 season.

FIRST-AND-10

LORENZO ALEXANDER joined the Buffalo Bills in 2016 after spending time with the Washington Redskins, Arizona Cardinals, and Oakland Raiders. Following his collegiate career at the University of California, Alexander entered the league as an undrafted free agent with the Carolina Panthers in 2005.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

EARN YOUR CHANCE

Throughout his NFL career, Lorenzo Alexander has had to adapt. Alexander entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent 300-pound defensive lineman. At one point, he was asked to play offensive line. After stints in Carolina and Baltimore during his first two years, he found a home in Washington in 2006 and made his name as a special teams standout and has worked his way to become a staple on the Bills' defense.

NFL great linebacker London Fletcher (1998-2013) served as Alexander's mentor throughout his career, providing him with guidance along every step of his journey.

"Lorenzo overcame being released multiple times from teams early on to creating a career that has lasted over a decade," Fletcher wrote. "The road that he's traveled is a testament to his mental fortitude and desire to constantly improve as a person and player. Over the years Lorenzo has become one of the most respected leaders in the NFL."

PERSONAL

Lorenzo and his wife, Manjanique, are parents to two daughters, Vanessa and Zoie, and two sons, Mason and Myles. Alexander graduated from the University of California with a degree in legal studies.

COMING UP ACES

Everywhere Lorenzo Alexander plays, he becomes a community standout. Alexander established the ACES Foundation where his mission is to support youth through emphasizing accountability, taking pride in the community, striving for educational excellence while promoting a healthy mind, body and spirit through sports.

During the 2017 and 2018 seasons, Alexander supported his foundation by representing them for the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats initiative.

MORE THAN A FOOTBALL PLAYER

Lorenzo Alexander is a four-time Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee and was the Bills' selection in both 2017 and 2018.

Alexander has set an example to those around him, hosting various events throughout the year. An example of his dedication is his mentorship of the South Park High School football team. He visits the team consistently and takes them to various events so they are able to grow as men.

ACQUIRED 2019

Signed as a free agent with the Bills on March 22, 2019.

SHOUTOUTS

- Played in 9 games with the Seattle in 2018 and tied for the team lead with a career-high 9 special teams tackles.
- Started 14 games at safety for the Los Angeles Rams in 2016, posting a career-high 50 tackles with 2 interceptions and 1 sack.
- Posted a career-high 2 sacks for the St. Louis Rams in 2015 along with 39 tackles in 14 games (5 starts).
- Played in his first career NFL game vs. Den. (11/16/14) and recorded two special teams tackles.
- Earned honorable mention all-Mountain West honors as a senior at Utah State in 2013 with 80 tackles, 3.5 sacks and two forced fumbles.
- Prior to transferring to Utah State, played at Arizona Western College for two seasons and registered 179 tackles, 15 sacks and 4 interceptions.
- Earned all-state honors in football, wrestling and track as a senior at Eureka High School.

FIRST-AND-10

MAURICE ALEXANDER joined the Bills on a one-year contract in 2019 after spending the 2018 season with Seattle. He played his first four NFL seasons with the Rams (2014-17) after originally entering the NFL in 2014 as a fourth round pick.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A DETERMINED VISION

After being dismissed from Utah State's football team in 2012, Alexander returned home to St. Louis and worked as a janitor at the Edward Jones Dome, former home of the Rams. "I gained a lot of respect for people that clean that dome," he told the Los Angeles Times. "I know it's not easy, but there's things you've got to do to survive. They were things I needed to do to survive. Some people believed in me more than I believed in myself. I was just focused on my degree. They were like, 'You could be out there playing.'" Everything came full circle in 2014 when he was drafted by the Rams. "Every time that I went to work, I always stood at the end of that field, and I just looked at it," Alexander told St. Louis Post-Dispatch that year. "I just looked at it like this could be my dream spot. And look where I'm at now."

PERSONAL

Parents are Michael and Lynette. Has two brothers and two sisters. Younger brother, Hassan Haskins, is a running back for Michigan. Graduated from Utah State in 2013 with an interdisciplinary studies degree emphasizing in sociology and physical education. Did not start playing football until high school where he played defensive end and tight end. Posted 134 tackles and 18 sacks as senior. Was also an all-state performer in wrestling and track, finishing third at the state wrestling championships.

17 QB JOSH ALLEN

6-5 | 237 | 2ND YEAR

MAY 21, 1996 (AGE 23)

FIREBAUGH HIGH SCHOOL

WYOMING

ACQUIRED 2018

Drafted by the Bills in the first round (7th overall) of the 2018 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- In 11 starts established franchise records for: most touchdowns produced by a Bills rookie QB (18), most rushing yards by a QB in a game (135 at Mia. (12/2/18)), longest pass by a rookie (75 vs. Jax. (11/25/18)), most rushing TDs by a Bills QB in a season (8) and most rushing yards by a Bills QB in a season (631).
- Led the NFL in 2018 in rushing TDs (8) by a QB.
- Is the only player in NFL history to throw for 200+ yards and run for 100+ yards in consecutive games.
- With 99 rushing yards vs. Jax. (11/25/18), 135 rushing yards at Mia. (12/2/18) & 101 rushing yards vs. NYJ (12/9/18), became the first QB (Super Bowl era) to tally 3 straight games with 95+ rushing yards.
- Earned AFC Offensive Player of the Week vs. Mia. (12/30/18) after becoming the second rookie QB (MIA David Woodley) in NFL history to throw for 3 TDs and run for 2 TDs. His 5 TD day marked the most by a Bill since Jim Kelly threw for 5 in 1991.
- Selected with the 7th pick in 2018, is the highest QB drafted in team history.

FIRST-AND-10

JOSH ALLEN finished his first season in Buffalo after spending three seasons at Wyoming (2015-17) and one year at Reedley College (2014). Allen was the seventh selection of the first round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A NO STAR RECRUIT

Despite racking up 5,269 yards and 59 touchdowns in his final two high school seasons at Firebaugh High School, Allen didn't receive a single offer from a Division I program due to only being 6-2 and 180 pounds at the time. "I didn't have any stars. I was a no star, no offer guy out of high school. I sent emails every day to almost every coach in the nation. 'Please, please just offer me.' All I was asking for was an opportunity," said Allen in a 2017 ESPN College Gameday feature.

Allen eventually opted to attend Reedley College, where he threw for 2,055 yards and 26 touchdowns while simultaneously hitting a growth spurt that boosted his height to 6-5 and weight to 215 pounds. Allen finally got his opportunity after his time in junior college, accepting Wyoming's scholarship offer over an offer from Eastern Michigan.

HR DERBY CHAMPION

Allen, who could topped out at 92-93 MPH pitching in high school, showed he can hit a baseball too. Allen won Micah Hyde's charity softball game HR derby, defeating Jordan Poyer in the final round.

PERSONAL

The son of Joel and LaVonne Allen, Josh is the second of four children (two sisters and one brother). He earned his degree from Wyoming with a major in communications. Allen resides in Orchard Park with his girlfriend, Brittany Williams.

17 QB JOSH ALLEN

SHOUTOUTS

- At Mia. (12/2/18), tallied three rushes of 25+ yards. Joined Michael Vick (2002, 2006) as the only QBs in the NFL to accomplish the feat since 1991.
- Broke Michael Vick's record (294 yards) for rushing yards by a QB over a three-game span, with 335 yards.
- Led the Bills to a 27-6 win at Min. (9/23/18) in his first career road start. In the effort, became just the third rookie in NFL history to throw for a touchdown and run for 2+ scores in a first half.
- In 2016, led Wyoming to a Mountain Division co-championship and the school's first-ever appearance in the Mountain West Championship game. In his two seasons as Wyoming's starting quarterback, Allen accounted for 5,833 yards of total offense and was responsible for 57 touchdowns (passing-44, rushing-12 and receiving-1).

SUPERCADE'S WEEKEND IN BUFFALO

For the Bills-Jets matchup in Week 14 of 2018, Allen flew in a very special guest named Cade Spinello. At the age of five, Cade suffered a massive stroke during surgery for a brain tumor. The stroke left Cade partially paralyzed and blind. Showing an unbelievable ability to persevere through that fight, Cade earned the nickname SuperCade and now teaches others to Never Ever Give Up. Allen met Cade leading up to the 2018 NFL Draft and ever since has worn a wristband reminding himself of his inspirational buddy Cade.

GOING CUSTOM FOR A CAUSE

Allen made a trip to Oishei Children's Hospital in May 2019 to team up with New Era Cap on designing a custom hat that will be sold as a fundraiser for the hospital this fall. Allen's design team included a collection of people from the neonatal intensive care unit, including 11-year-old Beau Barnad (pictured above), who was born at just 5 pounds, 9 ounces and spent four months in the unit. "Knowing some of the things these kids, at such a young age, have to go through, I couldn't have imagined that," Allen told the Buffalo News.

PLAYING FOR THOSE WHO CAN'T

Allen played his high school ball at Firebaugh HS, a place where his family had deep ties. Allen's grandfather, Buzz Allen, donated the land the school was built upon.

Shortly after Buzz's passing during Josh's senior year, Firebaugh HS was set to square off with rival high school Dos Palos. Until that game, Firebaugh had never beaten Dos Palos. Josh led the Eagles to a W on his grandfather's birthday and post-game Josh called it a tribute to his late grandfather.

HUMBLE BEGINNINGS

Allen's journey to Buffalo has been no short trek. Born and raised in Firebaugh, California, Allen grew up in a farming town with a population of around 8,000 people.

Allen understands the impact his career can have on others coming from similar backgrounds. "I hope that they can look at my story and find a source of inspiration and just know that it is possible. And there's nobody in this world that can tell you not to do something if you have the desire to work for it."

5 QB MATT BARKLEY

6-2 | 234 | 7TH YEAR

SEPTEMBER 8, 1990 (AGE 28)

SANTA ANA, CALIFORNIA

MATER DEI HIGH SCHOOL

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

ACQUIRED 2018

Signed by the Bills as a free agent on October 30, 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Has played in 12 career NFL games, with seven starts, while completing 174-of-291 pass attempts for 2,143 yards and 10 passing TDs.
- In his first start for the Bills at NYJ (11/11/18), went 15-25 with two passing touchdowns and a 117.4 passer rating. His rating was the 2nd-highest by a Bills QB in his first start.
- Left USC with career records for passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001), passing TDs (116), 400-yard passing games (four), 300-yard passing games (15). Also left USC as the Pac-12 Conference's all-time leading passer and was the only player to throw more than 100 TDs (116) in a career.
- Awarded the Wuerffel Trophy in 2012, given to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement.
- Earned Second-Team All-Pac-12 honors in 2011 after registering a 39-7 touchdown to interception ratio.

FIRST-AND-10

MATT BARKLEY enters his second season with the Bills after joining the team mid-way through the 2018 season. He signed a two-year extension with the Bills in December of 2018. A four-year starter at USC, Barkley entered the league as a fourth round pick (98th overall) of the Philadelphia Eagles. Barkley spent two seasons in Philadelphia (2013-14) before spending the 2015 season with Arizona, 2016 season with Chicago and then splitting time between San Francisco and Arizona in 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PAY UP

Barkley made an unusual ask to his agent before signing contracts with the 49ers and Bengals, "Can I be payed in Bitcoin?" Bitcoin and cryoptocurrency is a big time hobby for Barkley. For those not familiar, cryptocurrency is a digital asset designed to work as a medium of exchange that uses strong cryptography to secure financial transactions, control the creation of additional units, & verify the transfer of assets. When fans began hearing of Barkley's interest in Bitcoin they began tweeting recommendations at him to not just buy Bitcoin, but to mine it. Barkley quickly replied to let everyone know he already is mining Bitcoin, which involves securing Bitcoin and confirming transactions in exchange for being paid rewards of new Bitcoins.

PERSONAL

Barkley and his wife Brittany have two sons, John and Jackson. Met Brittany in preschool. He attended Mater Dei High School in Santa Ana, CA, where he finished as the all-time passing yardage leader in Orange County, surpassing Todd Marinovich.

A B-24 BOMBER

Barkley made an unexpected connection back during his time at USC, meeting Louis Zamperini during a sports journalism class. His name may sound familiar as the best-selling book "Unbroken" documents his incredible story of surviving a B-24 bomber crash during World War II. Zamperini passed away at the age of 97 in 2014, but Barkley still draws inspiration from the time they spent together. "You think about that perspective whenever you feel sore or tired. How much we've been given and to never take a day for granted," said Barkley.

THE WOLF SPIDER

Barkley's kids made an interesting discovery in the family's basement this past offseason, finding the massive spider pictured above.

Barkley tweeted out a picture of the nearly two inch spider and asked Bills fans to help him identify what kind it was. It was quickly identified as a wolf spider. Since the spider generally is not considered dangerous, the Barkley's opted to keep the spider for the time being as a rather unique pet.

- Amongst all receivers with at least 150 receptions since 2012, Beasley ranks second in the NFL with a catch percentage of 70.9%.
- Had a career-high 112 receiving yards vs. Phi (11/8/15).
- Was responsible for moving the chains for the Cowboys on 39 occasions in 2018.

FIRST-AND-10

COLE BEASLEY joined the Bills in 2019 after spending the first seven seasons of his career with the Dallas Cowboys. He entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Dallas Cowboys in the 2012 NFL Draft.

MUSICAL TALENTS

Outside of football, Beasley takes a large interest in music. He started a record label called 'ColdNation' and released his first single, "80 Stings," in 2017. In May of 2018, Beasley released a full rap album titled "The Autobiography."

Beasley first got into rapping in high school for fun, then purchased an audio program with his first stipend check in college. He later started writing his own music while continuing to pursue a career in football.

"I simply want to make music for the people who are constantly searching for something new to hear," Beasley wrote in a statement after releasing his first single. "My goal is to reach music lovers all over the world. I put my all into it like I do everything else. I hope you enjoy it as much as I enjoyed creating it. There is only one way to live and you only get one chance."

Beasley told TMZ Sports before releasing his album that it was a well thought out project, and he thinks his sound is unique and he tries to stay away from the trends of how everybody else sounds.

PERSONAL

Beasley and his wife Krystin have two boys, Ace and Everett, and a daughter, Jovie. While attending SMU, studied Sociology.

FAMILY MAN

Beasley and his wife Krystin have three children - Ace, Everett and Josie. The family recently built a ranch in Junction, Texas, to enjoy in their free time with extended family, as well.

"That's where all the deer are at," Beasley told the Buffalo News. "That was the dream from the beginning, really. That's what I said I was going to do when I got my first decent contract. It's just a really cool deal for our family. We've enjoyed it so much."

HIS FATHER'S SON

When asked who the biggest influence on his life and career has been, Beasley was quick to answer his father, Mike.

"He's been a mentor for me my whole life," Beasley said. "He was my high school coach, but he's been my teacher throughout my entire life."

Beasley hopes to be the same for his children as Mike is for him, listing his proudest achievement as being a father.

FIRST-AND-10

NATE BECKER enters his first season with the Bills in 2019 after signing with the team as an undrafted rookie out of Miami (Ohio). Becker originally entered the NFL with the Detroit Lions as an undrafted free agent.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE WALK-ON

The biggest obstacle that Becker has had to overcome in his football career so far was having no college offers coming out of high school and being determined to show he belonged at the Division I level.

After deciding to enroll as a walk-on at Miami (OH), Becker set to work in taking advantage of every opportunity he could to prove to his teammates and coaches that he deserved to be there.

After redshirting the entire 2014 season, Becker showed enough during practices to earn a scholarship before the 2015 season and he didn't look back, as he would start 10 games in his first season getting playing time.

Becker used those early experiences as a walk-on later in his college career when he became one of the leaders on the team. Setting the tone by winning the team's Strength Award in back-to-back offseasons, Becker focused on helping all of his teammates be the best they could be.

PERSONAL

The son of Kenneth and Heidi Becker, he has one younger sister and one younger brother. Graduated with a degree in sports management from Miami (OH).

FIRST-AND-10

RUSSELL BODINE (BO-dine) joined the Bills in 2018 after spending the first four seasons of his NFL career with the Cincinnati Bengals (2014-17). Bodine originally entered the NFL in 2014 as a fourth round pick (111th overall) of the Bengals.

ATHLETIC BLOODLINES

Russell Bodine is the first member of his family to make it to the NFL, but he is certainly not the only athlete in his family.

Russell's mother, Gail Bodine, may be one of the best athletes in the family, having been the first All-American field hockey player at Boston's Northeastern University for a team that won the ECACs. Brian Bodine, Russell's father, played tackle and guard at Trenton State.

His sister, Kaitlyn, played softball for Queens University in Charlotte, North Carolina, and was named Freshman of the Year in 2013 while recording a .413 batting average and a 3.06 ERA in 84.2 innings pitched.

Russell's uncle, Dave Zimmerman, was a center at Rutgers in the mid-1960s and his brother, Pete, also played nose tackle for the Scarlett Knights. Another one of Russell's uncles, Hank, played center at William and Mary.

PERSONAL

Russell is married to the former Catherine Wooten. The couple has two dogs named Deke and Quinn. At North Carolina, Bodine majored in communication studies.

FIRST-AND-10

IKE BOETTGER enters his second season in Buffalo in 2019. A 2018 undrafted free agent, Boettger spent time on the Chiefs active roster in 2018 and spent the 2018 training camp with the Bills.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A SECOND CHANCE

Boettger saw a prosperous 2016 season, garnering praise from media and was rewarded with a spot on his team's leadership group, one of only seven juniors to do so. As the 2017 Hawkeyes season started, nothing but optimism was on the horizon.

Boettger started at right tackle in a 44-41 OT win at Iowa State, the second game of the season, as the offense gained 497 yards. However, he was forced to leave in the second half due to injury and missed the remainder of the season with an Achilles tendon tear.

"That was the biggest obstacle I had to overcome. [The rehab] was longer than I expected, but it was ahead of schedule for [an] Achilles injury," Boettger said.

Knowing that the injury would end his career at Iowa, Ike worked hard in order to prove himself to NFL teams. He impressed many at Iowa's pro day, boasting a 3-cone time of 7.45 seconds, which would have tied for fifth among all offensive linemen at the NFL combine.

PERSONAL

The son of Tim and Kris Boettger and brother of Adrienne. Wife, Katie, is a teacher. Graduated from Iowa with a degree in enterprise leadership in the spring of 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

STANDOUT SENIOR YEAR

Bojorquez put together a stellar season in his final year at New Mexico University.

On the way to earning Honorable Mention All-America honors and being named First Team All-Mountain West, Bojorquez set the New Mexico record for single season average with 47.3 yards per punt, which was good for fourth in the nation.

Against Colorado State, Bojorquez set New Mexico single-season records with a 57.7 yards per punt average and a net average of 64.7 yards.

He set a school record with four punts over 70 yards during the season, topped by a career-high with a booming 78-yarder.

He was only the second punter in school history to garner All-America honors, joining Tyler Gaus in 2002. He was New Mexico's first All-America selection overall since Carlos Wiggins in 2013.

Bojorquez also left New Mexico as the Lobos career leader with an average of 45.1 yards per punt.

PERSONAL

Born September 13, 1996, Corey is the son of Ivan and Brandy Bojorquez. He has three siblings: Levi, Moz and Bela. Corey graduated with a degree in liberal arts from New Mexico University.

PATIENT WITH THE PROCESS

Corey didn't have the easiest path to the NFL. Upon graduating high school, he didn't receive any offers to punt. Instead of giving up, he decided to attend Cerritos Junior College in Norwalk, CA. During his freshman year he helped his team win the Golden State Bowl Championship. His sophomore year, he took his game to another level and earned First Team All-America, First Team All-State and First Team All-Conference honors. His performance landed him offers with New Mexico, Indiana State and Concordia College.

COLLECTING CARS

Corey's passion for collecting cars started before he was even born. His father owned a '65 Mustang, however he unfortunately got in a car accident before Corey was born. When Corey turned 17, his father told him he could pick any car that fit within their budget. Instead of going with a car that you typically see on the street, Corey turned back the clock and bought a '66 Mustang from a family friend who gave them a family discount. Corey plans on purchasing a '60 Corvette, '66 Chevelle, '69 Camaro and a '71 Barracuda.

- Appeared in nine games as a rookie in 2017 with the 49ers and totaled 19 kick returns for 396 yards and four punt returns for 23 yards before being placed on IR. He also had one reception for 10 yards.
- Set the Oregon State record with 2,420 career kickoff return yards during his collegiate career.
- Bolden left Oregon State ranking third in the program's history with 5,196 career all-purpose yards. He also finished sixth in school history with 170 career receptions.
- Earned Pac-12 All-Conference Honorable Mention honors in 2015 with 46 receptions for 461 yards and three touchdowns.
- Was one of 12 members of his Oregon State team that participated in a special forces leadership development program at Camp Williams in Utah.

FIRST-AND-10

VICTOR BOLDEN JR. joined the Bills on December 18, 2018 after signing from the 49ers practice squad. He originally entered the NFL with the 49ers as an undrafted free agent in 2017 out of Oregon State. Bolden spent his rookie season on their 53-man roster, seeing time as a returner. The speedy Bolden left Oregon State ranked third in school history with 5,196 all-purpose yards.

FAST FAMILY

Bolden has always been able to look to his family when he needs support or guidance on his career path.

He calls his father, Victor, and mother, Zelda, his biggest influences in life and credits his love for football to his father introducing him to the game at a young age.

His mother is the original athlete in the family as she is still the school record holder in both the 100 and 200-meters at Mt. San Antonio College in Walnut, California.

Victor was a two-time Baseline League 300-meter hurdle champion and CIF Division 1 champion while in high school at Rancho Cucamonga High School.

PERSONAL

Born April 4, 1995, in Fontana, California, Victor is the son of Zelda and Victor Bolden Sr. Victor has one brother, Silas, and one sister, Victoria. Bolden studied public health with a focus in health management and policy and graduated from Oregon State University.

TRACK STARS

Bolden didn't realize it at the time, but his 11-year-old track relay team had an even brighter future than just the medals they'd bring home for winning their event. All four members of the relay team, Bolden, Jamaal Williams, Darren Andrews and Donte Deayon, would go on to make it to the NFL. "I know that's crazy. That's something people would tell you would never happen, but the collection of hard work has gotten us to this point. A lot of people will tell you to surround yourself with like-minded people & it works," Bolden told the Buffalo News.

CIVIL WAR

Bolden chose to play his college ball at Oregon State due to the family atmosphere and fast paced offense the Beaver's play. The experience was a memorable one, especially Bolden's match-ups against rival Oregon, which is dubbed annually as the Civil War. During his senior season in 2016, Bolden helped lead his alma mater to their first win over the Ducks since 2007 with a 34-24 victory in front of a sold out Reser Stadium. Bolden now wears #13 in the NFL, which is a tribute to his college number (6) combined with his high school number (7).

APRIL 3, 1990 (AGE 29)

HOMESTEAD, FLORIDA

HOMESTEAD HIGH SCHOOL

Pitt
PITTSBURG STATE

ACQUIRED 2019

Signed with the Bills on March 14, 2019.

SHOUTOUTS

- Has played in 72 career games, with 42 starts. Has totaled 215 receptions, for 3,230 yards and 22 touchdowns in that span.
- Led the Ravens in receiving yards in 2018 with 715. Also led the team in touchdown receptions with five on 42 receptions.
- In the 2018 season, Brown averaged 17.0 yards-per-catch, which ranked fourth in the NFL.
- Was one of only three receivers in the NFL in 2018 with at least 700 receiving yards, five touchdowns and a 17.0 yards-per-catch average (Mike Evans, Tyreek Hill).
- Had a career-high 1,003 yard season on 65 receptions with the Cardinals in 2015.
- Established an NFL rookie record with four game-winning TD receptions in 2014, surpassing R.C. Owens (3) in 1957.
- Started 34 of 36 games in his three years at Pittsburg State, setting school records with 185 receptions for 3,387 yards and 34 TDs.

FIRST-AND-10

JOHN BROWN entered the NFL in 2014 as a third round pick (91st overall) of the Arizona Cardinals out of Pittsburg State. Brown spent the 2014-17 seasons in Arizona and the 2018 season with the Baltimore Ravens.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A PROMISE KEPT

Brown had one scholarship offer coming out of high school from the Division II Mars Hill University. The receiver, who was nicknamed 'Smokey' by his grandmother's boyfriend, transferred from Mars Hills to Coffeyville Community College before signing with Pittsburg State.

A day after signing with the Gorillas, Brown tragically lost his brother James Walker, nicknamed 'J-Walk,' who had been battling gunshot wound injuries. He wanted to quit, but remembered the promise he made to J-Walk to make it to the NFL and take care of their mother.

In his first game at Pittsburg State, he scored a touchdown on a punt return. Smokey went on to be a third round draft pick in 2014 and has made true on his promise to his late brother.

"As soon as I crossed the goal line, I pointed up to the sky and thanked James for helping me get there -- to the end zone, to Pittsburg State, to the game of football," Brown wrote in a revealing essay for The Players Tribune. "None of it would have been possible without him."

PERSONAL

The son of Cassandra Brown, he majored in General Studies while at Pittsburg State. He has three daughters, Caia, Raya and Ryli.

2 WR JOHN BROWN

GAME WINNING TOUCHDOWN

Brown's welcome to the NFL moment happened in Week 8 of his rookie season vs. the Philadelphia Eagles. With 1:33 left in the 4th quarter and the Cardinals trailing 20-17, Brown caught a 75-yard touchdown, which would end up becoming the game winning touchdown. After making the catch, Brown would then go on to show off his impressive dance moves. Brown claims this is the most memorable game he has ever played in. This 75-yard game-winning touchdown is still Brown's longest career catch.

THINGS DON'T COME OVER NIGHT

Brown's path to the NFL was unusual compared to most. He was forced to transfer after some academic troubles and earned a scholarship at Pittsburg State where he would become the all-time leader in receptions (185), receiving yards (3,380) and receiving touchdowns (34). His 3,380 receiving yards ranks fifth in MIAA history. His hard work paid off as he was drafted in the third round of the 2014 NFL Draft from a Division II school. If Brown could give advice to his younger self, it would be to "continue to work at it because things don't come overnight."

INSPIRING OTHERS

In 2014, Bush founded "Camp Ambushed", a free youth football clinic designed to give participants seven to 16 years of age hands-on training in football fundamentals from Bush and other NFL players in his hometown of Williston, SC.

"Some people call it giving back," Bush said. "I just call it inspiring others. In the town that I'm from, it's very small. I just want to come back and show them that whatever your dream is, it's something that you can achieve if you put your mind to it and show dedication."

LOCAL LEGEND

Bush's proudest accomplishment outside of the birth of his children is the fact that he is the only person in the history of his high school to have his jersey retired. After totaling more than 3,500 rushing yards, he became the first person in school history to make it to the NFL.

PERSONAL

Born May 12, 1987 in Williston, South Carolina, Rafael is the son of Gwendolyn Bush and James Young. Bush studied sports communications and graduated from South Carolina State. He lives with his wife, Tonya, and their daughters, Makayla and Jordyn, and son, Isaiah.

FIRST-AND-10

CORY CARTER enters his third season in Buffalo, after spending 2017 on the practice squad and 2018 on injured reserve. Carter first joined the NFL by signing a reserve/futures contract with the Houston Texans in January 2017, but was released prior to the start of the season.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

UNLIKELY PATH TO NFL

Carter spent the majority of his life playing soccer and never dreamt of becoming an NFL player. He was recruited more heavily to play soccer in college than football.

"During my senior year of high school, my best friend growing up, Alvin Johnson, injured his ankle during the first game of the year as the kicker on the football team. They didn't have anyone else to kick. So he recommended me to the coaches and they pulled me from soccer practice during field goal drills and I kicked for the rest of year."

PLAYING FOR MORE

Carter's pre-game warm-up routine has a deep purpose that he holds close to his heart.

He always prays at the 25-yard line during warm-ups to honor his former Texas Southern teammate, Tray Walker, who tragically passed away in a dirt bike accident in 2016.

PERSONAL

Son of Josephine, a nurse, and Harold, a mailman. Has an older sister, Carmen. Has two dogs, a Chihuaha, Chewy, and a Mini Schnauzer, Cole. Earned degree in accounting.

FEBRUARY 28, 1994 (AGE 25)

NORCROSS, GEORGIA

NORCROSS HIGH SCHOOL

TENNESSEE

ACQUIRED 2017

Signed by the Bills as a rookie free agent in 2017.

SHOUTOUTS

- Posted career highs in catches (4) and yards (55) at NE (12/23/18).
- Recovered a fumble in the end zone for a TD at NYJ (11/11/18).
- Hauled in first career touchdown at Min. (9/23/18) on a 26 yard pass from Josh Allen.
- Grabbed two passes for 18 yards in his NFL debut at Bal. (9/9/18).
- Caught 60 passes for 816 yards and six TDs in 26 games at Tennessee.
- Registered a collegiate career-high 7 receptions as a tight end at Vanderbilt (11/26/16).
- Began his collegiate career as a wide receiver but made the switch to tight end before final season in 2016.
- Posted his first career catch and touchdown at the college level with a 4-yard grab from Justin Worley at Oregon (9/14/13).
- Played on his high school's 2011 state championship basketball squad.

FIRST-AND-10

JASON CROOM was signed by the Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2017 and after spending most of his rookie campaign on the practice squad, caught 22 passes for 259 yards and a TD in 2018. A former wide receiver in college, Croom switched to tight end as a senior.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BLESSING IN DISGUISE

Croom had spent his entire career playing wide receiver until surgery to repair his patellar tendon in 2014 gave him an idea. During his rehabilitation, he started thinking about what it would be like to play tight end. So he approached his position coach and then head coach Butch Jones, who both supported him. He ended up becoming the Volunteers starting tight end in 2016.

MEMORABLE MOMENT

First attended a NFL game with his grandfather on Thanksgiving day in 2005 when Atlanta visited Detroit. "I had just signed up for football that year and going to that game gave me a good picture of what I wanted to strive for in life," recalled Croom.

CARTOON CONNOISSEUR

During his spare time, Croom enjoys bowling, playing Fortnite and watching cartoons. His top three cartoons of all-time (in order): Bob's Burgers, Family Guy and SpongeBob SquarePants.

PERSONAL

The son of Karen Croom-Terry, an accountant, and Terrence Terry, Jr., a mechanic. Has a Basenji dog named Xena. Graduated from Tennessee with a degree in sociology and a minor in African studies.

RAHWAY, NEW JERSEY

RAHWAY HIGH SCHOOL

TEMPLE

ACQUIRED 2017

Drafted by the Bills in the second round (63rd overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- Aat NYJ (11/11/18), recorded his first career reception and touchdown on a seven yard pass from Matt Barkley. Marked the Bills first receiving TD by an OL since Jason Peters in 2005.
- Starting the majority of his rookie season for the Bills at left tackle, helped pave the way for RB LeSean McCoy to finish fourth in the NFL with 1,138 rushing yards. Behind Dawkins, McCoy tallied the sixth 1,000 yard season of his nine-year career.
- Started at left tackle in the Bills first playoff game since 1999.
- As a true freshman at Temple in 2013, Dion became one of just four freshman to start at left tackle for their school. Pittsburgh's Dorian Johnson, Virginia Tech's Jonathan McLaughlin and Ole Miss' Laremy Tunsil were the only other players to accomplish the feat.

FIRST-AND-10

DION DAWKINS finished his second season playing in all 16 games with the Bills in 2018. Dawkins originally was drafted by the team in the second round out of Temple in 2017. While at Temple, Dawkins dressed for 44 career games, starting 41. Dawkins was named a First Team All-AAC selection after his senior year in

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BIG MAN, BIG SWAG

Dawkins has set out to prove during his career that it is not just skill position players who can bring some personality to the game. The self-proclaimed shnow man, Dawkins began frequently using the word shnow in prep school to help display his oversized personality.

"'Shnow' is just like you already know but it's just more swag for big guys because big guys have to do different things to get noticed," said Dawkins.

Dawkins' path to this point has been a unique ride. Coming out of Hargrave Military Academy in 2012/13, Dawkins only had two FBS offers: from Temple and Cincinnati. Despite the lack of interest, Dawkins college career culminated in him being the first Temple offensive lineman drafted since 2003 (G Dave Yovanovits, NYJ--7th round, 237th overall).

PERSONAL

Born April 26, 1994 in Rahway, New Jersey, Dion is the son of Eric and Lisa Dawkins. Dion graduated from Temple with a degree in criminal justice.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE ORIGINAL SHNOWMAN

Dawkins teamed up with a very special designer for My Cause, My Cleats week in 2018. He invited Jack Frost, a friend of the Bills through Oishei Children's Hospital, to decorate his cleats. What Jack didn't know is that Dawkins and Josh Allen had some big surprises planned. After designing Dawkins' cleats, Allen surprised Jack with a chance to play Madden in the Bills team meeting room. In the meantime, Dawkins was waiting with a pair of Super Bowl tickets that Dawkins gave to Frost for edging out the Bills QB in a tightly contested game.

RAHWAY-MADE

Fans see Dawkins take the line of scrimmage every Sunday donning the #73, but not many know the story behind it. Dawkins chose his number because fellow Rahway natives Olsen Pierre wore #71 and then Antonio Garay (pictured above) wore #72. In a tribute to his hometown, Dawkins wanted to keep the lineage going and chose #73. Rahway has always been a driving force for Dawkins and one of his proudest moments came as a senior in high school when the mayor of Rahway recognized his service to the city with a formal letter.

FIRST-AND-10

PATRICK DiMARCO came to the Bills in 2017 after previously playing for the San Diego Chargers, Kansas City Chiefs and the Atlanta Falcons. DiMarco originally entered the NFL out of South Carolina as an undrafted free agent to the San Diego Chargers following the 2011 draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FAMILY FOCUSED

Patrick DiMarco keeps his family close and has an especially strong relationship with his father, Mitchell. Mitchell has been the biggest influences on Patrick's life and career and he credits him for the man he is today.

"He told me when I was in youth sports to be a leader and not a follower," DiMarco said. "That advice has guided my attitude for life. I'm not a very vocal leader - I try and use my actions to set the tone."

Something special that the DiMarco's will share forever is a collection of sports cards started by Mitchell. Eventually, he will pass the collection on to Patrick, who hopes to keep it and one day pass it on to his son, Weston. It will be something that can stay in the family and bring multiple generations together.

When Patrick isn't practicing, he enjoys going to Hamburg park with his family.

PERSONAL

Born April 30, 1989 in Altamonte Springs, Florida, Patrick is the son of Melissa and Mitchell DiMarco. DiMarco studied Business Marketing/Management and graduated from the University of South Carolina. He lives with his wife, Kirstin, and they have a son named Weston and daughter named Sutton.

TYREL DODSON finished his three-year career at Texas A&M with 201 total tackles, 6 sacks, 4 interceptions, 11 passes defensed and 2 fumble recoveries. He was signed by the Bills as undrafted free agent in 2019 following his junior season with the Aggies.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

TYREL'S BEST BUDDY

While participating in the Best Buddies program in high school, Dodson became close with William Gawlas, who is a student with Down Syndrome. Gawlas, who Tyrel considers his best friend, participates in the Williamson County (TN) Special Olympics. Dodson was more than happy to change roles and support William's on-field competition.

"It means so much to me to have William as my best buddy," Dodson told the Williamson Herald. "He's my brother. He's always watching me and cheering for me, so it was special to be here [at the Special Olympics] and see him shine today. He might have different circumstances than me, but he's still in the same life. He's still as happy as me and that's what makes me wake up every morning and be grateful for my life."

Best Buddies' mission is to establish a volunteer movement that creates opportunities for one-to-one friendships, integrated employment, and leadership development, with intellectual and developmental disabilities.

ACQUIRED 2017

Signed as a free agent by the Bills on March 9, 2017.

SHOUTOUTS

- Started career-high 12 games at right guard for the 2017 Bills, who finished 6th in the NFL in rushing (126.1 yards per game).
- Started 11 games at right guard for Chicago in 2015.
- Made his first NFL start as an offensive lineman vs. TB (9/8/13) at left guard.
- Made his first NFL start vs. KC (12/11/11) as an extra tight end.
- Played in his first NFL game at Buf. (10/3/10) as a member of the Jets.
- Selected 61st overall in 2010, becoming the first UMass player drafted since LB Khari Samuel (Chicago) in 1999 and their highest selection since 1968, when QB Greg Landry was taken 11th overall by Detroit.
- Named UMass Senior Athlete of the Year and earned FCS first-team All-American honors following his final season as a left tackle in 2009.
- Garnered CAA All-Conference honors in 2008 as a left tackle.

FIRST-AND-10

VLADIMIR DUCASSE is in his third year in Buffalo after signing a three-year deal in 2017. A second round draft pick of the New York Jets in 2010 (61st overall), Ducasse spent his first four NFL seasons in New York (2010-13) before playing in Minnesota (2014), Chicago (2015), and Baltimore (2016).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

CULTURE SHOCK

When it comes to football, Ducasse had a late start. Born in Haiti, he spent the first 14 years of his life in his home country. Then, his father, Delinois, sent him and his brother, MacArthur, to Stamford, CT, in order to pursue better educational opportunities and live with his aunt and uncle, Virginia and Lezanoro Ducasse. Ducasse began his football career at Stamford High School when other students encouraged him to try the sport due to his size. "Once I got the helmet and pads on and started hitting people, I started to like it a lot," said Ducasse, who played on both the offensive and defensive lines and earned a scholarship to Massachusetts. "My grandmother always told me, 'You have to go through the storm to get to your destination.'"

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Tatiana, have a son, Falsher, and a daughter, Angeh. He is the son of Delinois, a retired accountant who still lives in Haiti, and the late Bernadette Ducasse. Majored in African-American studies. Competed in football, basketball and track and field (discus and shot put) in high school.

KADEN'S KONNECTION

Kaden Kelso was going through a cancer scare at the University of Iowa's Children's Hospital and wanted nothing more than to meet Easley, who had just scored his first TD in his first game at Iowa vs. Wyoming. Kaden, 11 at the time, even baked him an apple pie prior to his visit. "It just kind of makes you realize — when you're down on yourself, when you think, 'Oh, this sucks, this is hard' — how special your opportunities really are," Easley told the Des Moines Register. The two, who share the hometown of Newton, still connect via text messaging.

LONG ROAD TO BUF

Easley chose to play junior college football at Iowa Western after receiving one offer from a Division II school, Missouri Western, as a punter. After setting receiving records for Newton HS, his first year in Council Bluffs left him questioning himself. "I thought maybe I don't want to do this anymore but I didn't want to quit on myself. I love to play football so I worked harder," Easley said.

PERSONAL

Son of Alison Lemke and John Easley. His brother, Matt, was a kicker at Northern Iowa. Earned degree in sport and recreation management. Began playing football in the third grade for the Newton Cardinals. Was a wide receiver, defensive back, kicker, punter and returner in high school. Also played basketball and soccer.

Drafted in the 1st round (16th overall) by the Bills in 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Finished his rookie sesaon in 2018 as the only NFL player with 120+ tackles, 12+ passes defensed, 2+ sacks, 2+ INTs and 2+ forced fumbles.
- Earned NFL Defensive Rookie of the Month honors for December, 2018 (43 tackles, 2 INTs, 1 sack and 4 passes defensed).
- In season finale vs. Mia (12/30/18), posted a career-high 12 tackles along with a sack and INT of Ryan Tannehill.
- Became the youngest player (20 years, 7 months, 7 days) to intercept a pass in NFL history vs. NYJ (12/9/18).
- Forced a fumble vs. Ten. (10/7/18) that was recovered by Matt Milano and led to a TD.
- With a sack in NFL debut at Bal. (9/9/18), became first Bills rookie to do so on opening day since Grant Irons (2002).
- At 20, became the youngest NFL LB to start on opening day in Super Bowl era.
- Became first teenager drafted in the NFL since Amobi Okoye by Houston in 2007.
- Earned Third Team All-America honors in 2017 and was a finalist for the Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker). Posted 109 tackles, 5.5 sacks, 14 tackles for a loss and three forced fumbles.

FIRST-AND-10

TREMAINE EDMUNDS was the Bills second of two first round draft picks in 2018. Buffalo traded up six spots in the first round to select Edmunds, who joined his brother, Terrell (27th pick by Pittsburgh), in becoming the first brothers in NFL history to be selected in the first round of the same draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Edmunds is no stranger to what it takes to play in the NFL. His father, Ferrell Edmunds, was a two-time Pro Bowl tight end with Miami and Seattle. His oldest brother, Trey, is a RB for Pittsburgh and middle brother, Terrell, was drafted by Pittsburgh in 2018. The three brothers were teammates at Virginia Tech in 2016.

Despite being the youngest of the family, Tremaine has worked his way out of the shadows of his older brothers and father, becoming a leader on the Bills' defense.

The brothers are all set to face off in week 15 of the 2019 season as the Bills travel to the Steelers.

"We've been talking about [the game]," Edmunds said. "My parents, they're happy. Everybody's happy. It's going to be a good game and it's going to be a good season. We're going to take it one step at a time. When that time comes, it comes, but I'm excited though."

PERSONAL

The son of Felicia and Ferrell Edmunds. Studied communications at Virginia Tech. Growing up in a household with several foster children, he would one day like to support charitable causes in that realm.

49 LB TREMAINE EDMUNDS

LEADING THE MEETING ROOM

Midway through the 2018 season, veteran DT Kyle Williams decided to hand the reigns of his players-only defensive meetings to Edmunds, as the future leader of the defense. In the meetings, Edmunds breaks down plays and communicates where the group can improve.

"The guy that's in that position, in a perfect world, is kind of your bell cow," Williams said of Edmunds. "He's communicating the ins and outs of the defense to everybody around. He's the quarterback of the defense."

MY BROTHER'S KEEPER

The Edmunds family is very passionate about giving back to their hometown of Dan River, Virginia. Tremaine and his brothers started their own foundation, My Brother's Keeper, with the purpose of helping those in need in their community. Their first free football camp was help on June 14, 2019.

"My parents have been giving back to the town for a while," Edmunds said. "Once my brothers and I got more established, we decided we wanted to do something on our own too."

A LASTING MEMORY

Feliciano has a daughter named Shawn Cole. The origin of that name is his late friend Sean Cole.

Cole and Feliciano met as kids. Cole nicknamed Feliciano "Mongo," short for "humongous," due to him being so big for his age. Feliciano even spent nights in the Cole household during times when his family was having financial difficulties. The bond they formed was absolutely unique.

"They were brothers," Feliciano's wife, Shannon told ESPN. "I had to get Sean's approval to date Jon."

Everything took a tragic turn though in 2016 when Cole crashed his vehicle into a canal in Davie, FL. Underwater for more than 15 minutes, Cole never regained consciousness. In December 2016, Cole, only 22, died after being taken off life support.

Now Feliciano remembers his best friend via a tattoo, a t-shirt he wears every game and through his daughter, Shawn Cole Feliciano.

PERSONAL

Married to Shannon and the couple has a daughter, Shawn Cole. Son of Alicia and Rafael. Has two brothers. Last name is pronounced fuh-LEE-see-ah-no.

STARTING FROM NOTHING

Feliciano has endured a long journey to Buffalo, starting from growing up in a condemned mobile home that at times did not have heat, running water, or even electricity. Feliciano didn't even begin playing football until the 9th grade, but recognized with his natural size and abilities, the sport could be a path to a better life. "When I (first started playing football), they gave me a helmet and pads," Feliciano told ESPN. "I didn't know how to put on the pads." The choice to play soon paid off in a scholarship offer from the Miami Hurricanes.

A DRIVING INSPIRATION

Feliciano's younger brother, Chris, was born deaf. Jon carries that weight with him and lets it drive him. "I always feel like he's here with me," Jon told the Miami Herald in 2011. "I just try and do my best because I know he wishes he could be out here. He's my inspiration." Jon's mother, Alicia, recognizes how special their bond is. "Chris is so into the games he won't event leave to go to the bathroom during a break," Alicia said. "He just looks up to Jon. He wants to do what Jon does. That's why Jon does what he does, to try and make him feel a part of that."

POSITION SWITCH

Foggle was recruited as a WR to UNCC, but after much considertion with family and friends, decided to join the defense.

UNCC Assistant Coach Ulrick Edmonds told An Inside Look: Juwan Foggie on Charlotte's YouTube Channel, "I kind of recruited him a little bit. Everyday I went inside the wide receiver room and said, 'hey man there is a spot for you over here. We like guys that can run fast and are athletic and have the physical makeup that you have.'"

Foggle then told The Gridiron Crew, "I used to play Wide Receiver, so I have good ball skills compared to the average linebacker and can move as well for a linebacker (flexible and speed). All downs player and can also line up at several other positions on the field. Ability to make plays in space and also in coverage (man to man or zone).

Foggie's hardwork and ability to adapt are two of the main reasons his position switch worked out.

FEAR THE BEARD

As just a sophomore in high school, Ford realized he had the ability to grow a full, thick beard. One would think it would have been the Louisiana heat that would have deterred him, but instead it was school rules.

"I was never allowed to have a beard. I was always getting in trouble for facial hair," Ford told the Norman Transcript. "I was like, 'Once I get outta here, I'm just gonna grow it."

Instead of the beard, Ford resorted to a outgrown mohawk with a blonde dye to be able to show off his personality in high school. He has since ditched that look.

However with Ford stepping in to replace NFL Draft pick Orlando Brown last season, he did note that he wanted to add some more swag to the Sooners offensive line. "[Brown] wasn't really the swaggiest, but we ain't gonna say nothing," Ford joked, noting he's not so much into clothes, but when it comes to hair, "I get some cuts and it's. … it's fresh."

Eric Wood who would become a Pro Bowler in 2015 also wore 70. After the Bills drafted Cody, Wood tweeted "This photo isn't easy to see but #70 wasn't getting retired in Buffalo so I'm glad the dude getting my number is going to maul people on the field this year!"

LIKE GRANDFATHER LIKE SON

Cody's biggest obstacle he had to overcome was the passing of his grandfather in 2015. His grandfather instilled his dominance into Cody which made him the man he is today. "He is the reason why I started playing football. He is my biggest role model." His grandfather had the eye for talent as he was an former offensive lineman himself. "After he passed, my game definitely went up a level."
Ford continues to remember his grandfather on by using a #RIPPAPA on most of his posts.

16 WR ROBERT FOSTER

6-2 | 196 | 2ND YEAR

MONACA, PENNSYLVANIA

CENTRAL VALLEY HIGH SCHOOL

ALABAMA

ACQUIRED 2018

Signed by the Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Had three games with 100+ receiving yards in 2018, making him the first Bills WR to reach that feat since Sammy Watkins in 2015. He was also the first undrafted rookie to do so in the common draft era (since 1967).
- Finished the 2018 season with 27 catches for 541 yards and 3 touchdowns, ranking second on the team in yards.
- Had a career-high 108 receiving yards vs. Det. (12/16/18), including a 42-yard touchdown grab.
- Logged 104 receiving yards on a career-high 7 receptions at NYJ (11/11/18).
- Had a catch of at least 25 yards in six consecutive games in 2018, which was the longest streak by a Bill since WR Jerry Butler in 1985-86.
- Caught a 75-yard TD reception vs. Jax. (11/25/18), which was the longest TD reception for the Bills since 2016.
- From weeks 10-17 in 2018, Foster had nine catches of 25+ yards or more, which ranked 4th in the league.

FIRST-AND-10

ROBERT FOSTER is in his second season with the Bills after signing with the team as an undrafted free agent in 2018. He joined Buffalo after a five-year collegiate career at Alabama (2013-17).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

HUMBLE AND MOTIVATED

Foster's rookie season was a bit of a roller coaster ride for the undrafted wide receiver from Alabama.

After overcoming the odds and making the initial 53-man roster, Foster only totaled two receptions for 30 yards before being released on 10/18/18 and placed on the practice squad.

"I needed it. I needed to be cut because at the end of the day, it helped me," Foster said to the Associated Press in November of 2018. "It made me work on things that I needed to work on. It made me do a lot more things that I could do to benefit the team."

After being brought back up to the active roster, Foster totaled 25 catches for 511 yards and three touchdowns in the last seven games of the 2018 season.

Foster credits teammates RB LeSean McCoy, FB Pat DiMarco and T Dion Dawkins for helping him see the big picture. They helped him understand the role that he can fill on the team and the amount of work he needed to put in to begin fulfilling his potential.

PERSONAL

Robert is the son of Robert Foster II and Sherrice Clements. He has four older brothers. He studied health communications and graduated from the University of Alabama.

16 WR ROBERT FOSTER

THE COLLECTOR

A recent passion that Foster has gotten in to has been collecting sneakers. With a collection of over 100 pairs, it's a new endeavor for Foster, but one that is growing quickly. Currently, his favorite pair that he has are the Air Max 97 Silver Bullets.

Another off-the-field hobby that Foster has recently become involved with is remote control cars as he has been driving them around with teammates when not at the facility. While it's just starting out, he plans to have a collection of those as well.

CENTRAL VALLEY PRIDE

Not only has Robert been a frequent attendee of community events here in Buffalo, this offseason he began to focus on his community back home in Monaca, Pennsylvania as well.

Along with his high school teammate, Jordan Whitehead, of the Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Robert hosted the Next Level Football Camp at his alma mater, Central Valley High School.

The free camp gave Robert the opportunity to pass on lessons from football and life to 250 attendees.

INDEPENDENCE, MISSOURI

FORT OSAGE HIGH SCHOOL

MISSOURI

ACQUIRED 2019

Signed by the Bills as a free agent on March 25, 2019.

SHOUTOUTS

- Has played in 43 games with 38 starts. Totaled 197 tackles, 4 tackles for loss, 4 interceptions, 33 passes defensed, 4 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries in his career.
- Best game of the 2018 season was at Oak. (9/30/18) where he recorded 5 tackles, one interception and one pass defensed.
- Gaines posted 7 tackles, a career-high 3 passes defensed, and his first interception as a Bill (QB Trevor Siemian) in a 26-16 win vs. Den. (9/24/18).
- In 2017, Gaines led the Bills with 3 forced fumbles and the Bills had an 8-3 record in the games he played.
- Led the Rams in passes defensed in 2014, posting 14 for the season.
- Finished his four year career at Missouri appearing in 50 games. He totaled 244 tackles, 14 tackles for loss, 8 interceptions, 20 passes defensed, one fumble recovery and one forced fumble.
- Named to the 2014 PFWA All-Rookie Team.

FIRST-AND-10

E.J. GAINES rejoins the Bills in 2019 after playing for the team in 2017. Gaines spent the 2018 season with the Cleveland Browns. The Missouri product originally entered the NFL in 2014 as a sixth round pick (188th overall) of the Rams, spending the first three seasons of his career with the Rams.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

ALWAYS AN UNDERDOG

A sixth round pick out of Missouri despite first-team All-SEC honors as a senior, Gaines has used the 187 picks that went before him as a constant fuel for his NFL career.

"I think I've been an underdog since I went into the league, late-round draft pick after making plenty of plays in college and everything," Gaines told the Buffalo News in June 2018. "Just kind of getting the short end of the stick most of the time. But as far as I'm concerned, that chip is always on my shoulder and I don't think that'll ever change as far as I play in this league and if it does, I probably won't be here any longer."

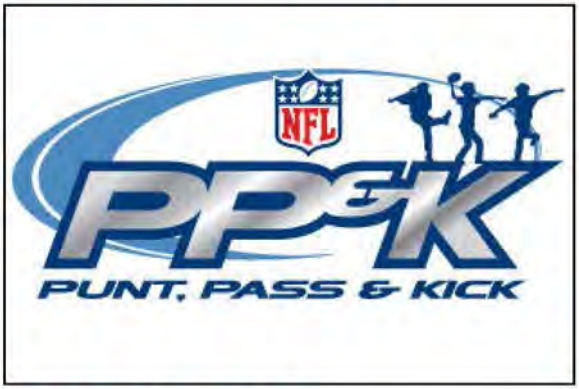

Gaines used his underdog mentality to excel in his first stint with the Bills during the 2017 season, leading the Bills with 3 forced fumbles. The Bills had an 8-3 record in the games he played after acquiring him via trade during training camp.

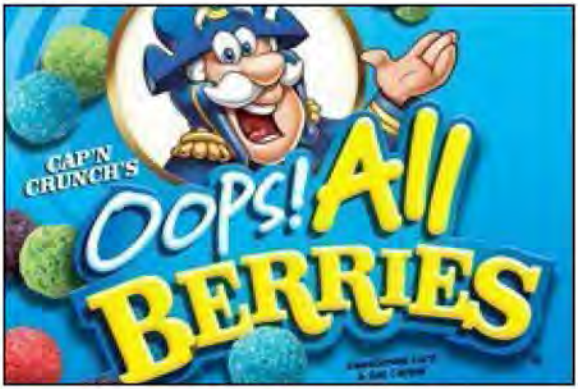

PERSONAL

The son of Alta Bailey and Edwin Gaines, E.J. has three sisters and graduated with a degree in Communications from the University of Missouri in three and a half years. E.J. has a son, Tre, and a daughter, Juliana.

26 CB E.J. GAINES

PUNT, PASS AND KICK

Most people have a a sports memory that they will never forget as a fan. Gaines showed signs of potential at a young age when he participated in the Punt, Pass and Kick competition in Kansas City. Winners would be able to meet Hall of Famers Terrell Davis and Shannon Sharpe in addition to being flown to Minnesota for a Vikings game. Gaines managed to make it all the way to the championship before getting eliminated. He admits although he didn't win, he enjoyed the experience.

CRUNCHATIZE ME CAPTAIN

Growing up, Gaines favorite cereal as a kid was Captain Crunch. However contrary to popular belief, Gaines is not a fan of the original Captain Crunch cereal. He only enjoys eating the Oops All Berries flavor. What most people don't realize is his love for Oops All Berries derived from football. His youth team rewarded the hardest hit of the game with a box of Oops All Berries cereal. Gaines has enjoyed eating cereal so much it has become his favorite late night snack food.

- Is the only player to record over 1,200 yards from scrimmage in 12 consecutive seasons (2006-17).
- Holds the NFL record with 14 straight seasons of 600+ rushing yards. Also holds league record with 14 straight seasons with 125+ rushing attempts.
- Joins Walter Payton as the only two players in NFL history with over 14,000 rushing yards and 3,500 receiving yards.
- Scored at least five touchdowns in 11 consecutive seasons (2006-16), which is tied for the most consecutive seasons in NFL history.
- Averaged at least 60 yards rushing per game in 12 of his 14 seasons, the second most in NFL history.

FIRST-AND-10

One of the most accomplished running backs in NFL history, FRANK GORE signed a one-year contract with the Bills in 2019. Gore, who ranks 4th all-time in rushing yards in league history, entered the NFL as a third round (65th overall) draft pick by the 49ers in 2005. He played his first 10 seasons with San Francisco (2005-14), before spending three years in Indianapolis (2015-17) and one campaign with Miami (2018). He is a 5-time Pro Bowl selection and a 9-time 1,000-yard rusher. Received a key to the City of Miami and was inducted into the University of Miami Sports Hall of Fame in 2018. Recipient of the 2016 Art Rooney Award.

HERE'S JOHNNY

Gore's love of football can be traced back to the streets. Not the fields, but the streets of his neighborhood in Coconut Grove, FL. "We had teams on each of our streets and we had to play street football against the other streets in the area," said Gore. "My guy Johnny Ford was a little older than me and I remember him always taking care of me and making sure I was right. He was my mentor growing up. He raised me. He challenged me to make sure I knew I could play with the older kids." Ford and Gore remain close today and Ford's son, Johnny, is currently a running back at South Florida.

GORE'S SECRET SAUCE

Gore cherishes his time working with Pete Bommarito, who owns and operates Bommarito Performance Systems in Miami. "I have worked with him ever since I joined the NFL," said Gore. "He's my guy. His stuff is more specific for me and my position. He works with a lot of NFL players and it's proven. You've got to understand what helps you be successful during the season." That training has been the key to Gore's amazing longevity. "I just always think about how many kids want to go where you want to go, but they don't put in the work. There were definitely better players in my neighborhood growing up."

- Racked up a career-high 3 sacks vs. Virginia Tech (11/30/13), the most by a Cavalier in a game since 2008.

FIRST-AND-10

ELI HAROLD signed a one-year deal with the Bills in 2019 after spending the first three seasons of his career (2015-17) with San Francisco and the 2018 season with the Detroit Lions. He was acquired by the Lions in a trade with the 49ers on August 23, 2018. Harold entered the NFL as a third round (79th overall) pick of San Francisco in 2015.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

MARVEL COLLECTION

Harold has an impressive collection of Marvel comics action figures at his home in Florida. "I'm just a nerd," said Harold. "I love collecting Marvel Pop! action figures by Funko. I always collected action figures growing up. It's just something I did. I have them displayed in my spare bedroom. I'm a big Marvel comics fan. I started collecting these Pop figures about 3 years ago."

ZO ON THE WALL

Growing up a fan of the Washington Redskins and their former safety Sean Taylor, Harold had shrines of those two in his room. "Photos, newspaper clippings, magazine covers, you name it," recalled Harold. "In fact, I had a few pictures of Lorenzo Alexander on my wall. He doesn't believe me, man, but he was well represented."

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Kelsey, have a daughter named Zuri. Has two American Bulldogs named Toby and Supreme. Majored in African American studies. Played football, basketball and track (long and triple jump) in high school. Began playing football at 7 years old for the Cook Rams.

"DON'T TAKE ANYTHING FOR GRANTED"

Harold overcame the loss of his nephew, Forrest, from an enlarged heart, and then his mother, Sheila, from pancreatic cancer less than two months apart when he was 16. "I was so young when she passed," said Harold. "We didn't get to have life conversations that help most kids. I feel like her death inspired me to do something greater. It molded me. I feel like helping others who have gone through it is my purpose in life. I tell the guys all the time don't take your anything for granted. Don't take Mother's Day or birthdays for granted. Make sure to send her a text or call her just to tell her you love her."

GREAT SCOTT

Without a father in his life growing up and after losing his mother to cancer when he was 15, Harold turned to his high school head football coach, Chris Scott, for a lot of guidance and support at such an important age. Scott could relate as his mother died of a heart attack at the age of 42

"If I could vote or handpick someone to be my father, he would be it," said Harold. "He always taught me to not let your circumstances and what you have been through to define you in life. He is an amazing guy."

JUNE 29, 1985 (AGE 33)

NEEDHAM, MASSACHUSETTS

NEEDHAM HIGH SCHOOL

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

ACQUIRED 2017

Joined the Bills via free agency on March 9, 2017.

SHOUTOUTS

- Converted on his 17th consecutive field goal vs. NYJ (12/9/18), which marked the longest streak by a Bills K since Rian Lindell's 18 in 2007.
- Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week by the NFL following week 10 of the 2018 season.
- On a 47-yard attempt vs. NE (10/29/18), Hauschka became the 10th active player to accumulate 1,000 points.
- Finished the 2018 season at 46th all-time in the NFL for FGs made with 242.
- With three seconds left in the fourth quarter, Hauschka made a 46-yard FG in order to lead the Bills to a 13-12 comeback victory vs. Ten. (10/7/18).
- Recorded a 56-yard FG at KC (11/26/17), his longest since he made a 58-yard FG with Seattle in 2014.
- Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week following both weeks 3 and 4 in the 2017 season.
- Was the first kicker in NFL history with consecutive games with multiple 53-plus yard field goals (vs. Den., 9/24/17, at ATL, 10/1/17).

FIRST-AND-10

STEPHEN HAUSCHKA joined the Buffalo Bills after spending time with six NFL teams, most recently with the Seattle Seahawks. Hauschka entered the league when he signed as an undrafted free agent with the Minnesota Vikings in 2008. Before joining the NFL, Hauschka played his collegiate career at Middlebury College and North Carolina State University.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

LATE TO THE GAME

Stephen Hauschka was 19-years old before he took his first snap on the football field. Hauschka joined the football team at Middlebury College his sophomore year after playing soccer and lacrosse earlier in his career. He set school records for field goals made in a season and a career.

He then transferred to North Carolina State for his final year of eligibility, where he led the ACC with an 88.9 field goal percentage. In 2008, he signed with the Minnesota Vikings as an undrafted free agent. He became the first NFL player produced by Middlebury since 1926. Since then, Hauschka has played for six different NFL teams, acquiring a Super Bowl win with the Seattle Seahawks during that time.

PERSONAL

Stephen Hauschka is married to his wife Lindsey, and the two of them are parents to son Jones. They have two dogs: a pug chihuahua and an Australian Shepard poodle mix. Hauschka graduated with a degree in neuroscience from Middlebury College, where he also played soccer and lacrosse.

A DIFFERENT CAREER

Stephen Hauschka's football career almost never materialized. After college, he had a choice to make: attend dental school or continue to pursue a career in football. Going into dentistry would have made sense, as his mother Barbara is a dentist. Though accepted into dental school, he chose the latter.

"I applied to dental school and I had to decide whether to try to keep playing football or go to dental school. I obviously chose football."

AMBITION IN THE FAMILY

Hauschka and his wife, Lindsey, met while they were both attending Middlebury College. While Hauschka excelled on the field, he was accomplished off the field as well, completing a degree in Neuroscience. Lindsey would complete her degree at the same time, before heading off to law school at Boston College. The two know the importance of staying in school and have found great success in their pursuits. "He did a program through the NFL at Harvard Business School and he really enjoyed it."

SUGAR LAND, TEXAS

TCU

ACQUIRED 2013

Traded from Indianapolis on April 29, 2013 for LB Kelvin Sheppard.

SHOUTOUTS

- Enters 2019 season with a streak of 115 consecutive games played, the second-longest among active NFL defensive ends (Cameron Jordan has 128).
- Ranks 7th all-time in Bills history with 42 sacks (Mario Williams is ranked 6th with 43).
- Led the Bills with 7 sacks and 18 QB pressures in 2018. Also tied a career high with 3 forced fumbles.
- With back-to-back double-digit sack seasons in 2013 and 2014, became the 4th player in franchise history to do so joining Bruce Smith (1986-1990, 1992-98), Aaron Schobel (2005-06) and Mario Williams (2012-14).
- Posted 8 games of 2+ sacks in his career, the last at Car. (9/17/17).
- Forced and recovered a fumble by RB Terrance West and returned it 18 yards for his first career TD vs. Cle. (11/30/14).
- Led the nation with 15 sacks at TCU in 2008 and finished his career ranked 2nd in school history with 28.5 sacks behind Aaron Schobel's 31.

FIRST-AND-10

JERRY HUGHES is in his seventh season in Buffalo after being acquired in a trade with Indianapolis in 2013. He entered the NFL as a first round pick (31st overall) of the Colts in 2010. A dynamic pass rusher, Hughes has registered a team-high 42 sacks and 12 forced fumbles since 2013. He signed a two-year contract extension on May 21, 2019 that will keep him in Buffalo until 2021.

NEW SIDE OF BALL

After rushing for 1,412 yards and 19 touchdowns as a senior in high school, Hughes was recruited as a running back. He instead chose to attend TCU to join Gary Patterson's squad as an "athlete." Not knowing what that completely meant, Hughes showed up to his locker one day to find a jersey with the number 98 on it. "I thought it meant I was redshirted or something," recalled Hughes. "I had no idea I was going to play defensive end. Heck, I never played defense before in my life. Ever. What coach told me was that I have a better shot at playing 10 years in the NFL as a defensive end than maybe like three years as a running back. So I had to put some weight on my 210-pound body and the rest is history."

Hughes went on to finish his career at TCU ranked 2nd in school history with 28.5 sacks.

PERSONAL

He and his wife, Meghan, have a son, J.R., and a daughter, Hayden. Parents are Jerry and Pam Hughes. Has a German Shepherd named CeCe. Earned a degree in communications.

TEXAS TEA TIME FOR HUGHES

Hughes is proud of his investment and promotions in Texas Tea, a Texas-based beverage product that has other big-named investors like Robert Griffin III, Brian Orakpo and Demi Lovato. Hughes and Griffin were even featured on a limited-edition bottle prior to a TCU-Baylor rivalry game in 2013.

"I love that it has all natural flavors and that all the ingredients are home grown in the state of Texas," said Hughes. "It's an organic and less sugary tea that's really good. I'm proud that it's a Texas-based product and an American based company."

SNOW DOGS

"In my first year in Buffalo, we lived downtown and not used to the amount of snow we were getting," said Hughes. "We let our dogs outside, but the snow was so high, the dogs were able to jump over the fence. They were gone. We were so upset. I honestly felt like we wouldn't see them again. A day later, CeCe, our German Shepherd, was picked up by a snow plower and he called us. Our husky, Mia, was gone for over two days but somehow she found her way back on her own. She smelled very sweet. I think she found her way over to the General Mills factory!" Mia, unfortunately, passed away from cancer in June.

- Tied with Desmond Howard and Will Blackmon for first in Packers history with three career punt returns for a touchdown.
- Became the first defensive back in Packers since 1982 to register a sack in each of his first three seasons.

FIRST-AND-10

MICAH HYDE signed a five-year contract with the Bills in 2017 as an unrestricted free agent after spending his first four NFL seasons in Green Bay. Hyde made the most of his first season in Buffalo in 2017, earning his first career Pro Bowl berth and 2nd-team All-Pro honors. Hyde was a 5th round pick of the Packers in 2013.

COUNTED OUT

"I have always been overlooked." And it's something Hyde takes a lot of pride in and it fuels his desire to be the best. Recruited only by Iowa and MAC schools, he committed to Iowa on the last day of the signing period.

"When I was a free agent, Buffalo was the only team that was interested. It all keeps me working. I'm never the one to look for pats on the back."

IMAGINE FOR YOUTH FOUNDATION

Took an idea that began as part of a class project in college and started the IMagINe for Youth Foundation, an organization that collected sporting goods and donated them to local charities in Iowa. The foundation has continued on with its work in other states. "I believe sports are a gateway to learning how to be sucessful in life," said Hyde. [imagineforyouth.org]

BENEFITING BUFFALO

Hyde hosted a charity softball game in June 2019 to support his IMagINe for Youth Foundation, while also helping him and his teammates grow closer together. The game generated more than $40,000 which will be given back to the Buffalo community. The two teams pitted the offense against the defense, with the defense emerging victorious 8-7.

HYDE'S GREEN THUMB

Growing up in a single family home, Hyde was mentored by a family friend, Ken Watson (pictured with Hyde above), who operated a farm in Tiffin, Ohio. Micah worked for Watson at that farm. "He taught me the value of the dollar and what hard work can do for you. I'd wake up early in the morning and do all sorts of jobs like bailing straw, moving boulders, and cutting down trees."

It would not be a stretch to drive by Hyde's house now and see him outside gardening, mulching, or planting. "I'm really meticulous about how everything looks outside. I take a great deal of pride in that. Honestly, being so detail-oriented correlates with how I try to live my life as a whole. I learned those skills and other life lessons from working on that farm."

TYREE JACKSON joined the Buffalo Bills in 2019 after a three-year career at University of Buffalo. A Michigan native, Jackson entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent to the Bills.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

MOVING ON UP

Throughout his entire life and career, Jackson has dealt with being overlooked. With a 6-foot-7 frame and strong arm, very few players have had the physical build or capabilities of Jackson throughout his career, yet he has consistently been overlooked.

Outside of injuries, he lists being overlooked as the biggest obstacle he's had to overcome. Only having one offer out of high school, Jackson has made the most of it and is now pursuing his dream of being an NFL quarterback, despite the draft not going how he intended.

Instead of worrying about being overlooked again, Jackson has chose to stay positive and use it as motivation.

"My reaction is always going to be focus on getting better each day, listening to the coaches and improving each day," Jackson said. "That's my goal since I arrived here and that's the goal that the coaches have for me is just to go out and improve each day and work hard."

PERSONAL

The son of Susan and Fluarry Jackson, Tyree has an older brother and an older sister. He has a black lab named Stella. Jackson graduated from Buffalo with a degree in Social Sciences in 2019. In his free time, he enjoys hanging out with his family and friends and being on the water.

Drafted in the 7th round by the Bills in 2019.

SHOUTOUTS

- Became the third player from North Carolina A&T player to be drafted in the last three years (RB Tarik Cohen by Chicago in 2017 and OL Brandon Parker by Oakland in 2018).
- Was one of four finalists for the 2018 Black College Player of the Year Award.
- Named the 2018 MEAC Defensive Player of the Year, the first such honor for his school since 1997 (Chris McNeil).
- Led the MEAC with 10.5 sacks in 2018 to go along with 50 tackles, 19 tackles for a loss, seven QB hits, three pass breakups, and one forced fumble.
- Posted a career-high two sacks vs. Gardner-Webb (9/8/18).
- Earned All-America honors by the AFCA in 2017 with 40 tackles, 6.5 sacks, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries.

FIRST-AND-10

DARRYL JOHNSON is in his first season in Buffalo after being drafted in the seventh round in 2019. The MEAC defensive player of the year in 2018, he was the first player to be drafted by the Bills from North Carolina A&T since 1966.

BAM'S BLUEPRINT

Johnson is hoping to follow in the footsteps of two recent MEAC defensive players of the year who both earned starting jobs as rookies.

DT Javon Hargrave was picked by the Steelers in the 3rd round from South Carolina State in 2016, and LB Darius Leonard was a 2nd round pick of the Colts from South Carolina State in 2018. Johnson also looks to his fomer Aggie teammate and Bears RB Tarik Cohen, who was also not highly recruited.

"Tarik had that ambition," Johnson told MEACsports.com. "He wanted to prove to everybody that turned him down or never looked at him. That's what made him work more. I'm trying to be like that."

PERSONAL

Nicknamed Bam. Son of Marsha, a former physician's assistant, and Darryl Johnson, Sr., a crane operator for the Georgia Port Authority. Has a younger brother, Darvaughn, and four older sisters, Keisha, Ebony, Natazza, and Diana. Has a Rottweiler named Zeus, and his family takes care of his late grandmother's dog Alpha. Earned a degree in sports science. Played football and basketball in high school.

HIGH SCHOOL MUSICAL CHAIRS

In order to try to get playing time, Johnson attended three different high schools growing up: Savannah Christian Preparatory School, Jenkins HS in Savannah, and Camden County HS in Kingsland, GA, where he lived with an aunt. "My high school story is just crazy," he recalled. With minimum film to send to college programs, Johnson needed Camden's coach Welton Coffey (pictured above) to help convince North Carolina A&T to give him a scholarship. "It was my only option out there and I planned to make the most of the opportunity," Johnson said. "I was so grateful and I took full advantage."

"CRAZY" HARD WORK

Every day at 4:30 a.m., Darryl Johnson Sr., would routinely wake up his two sons, Darryl, Jr. (12 years old at the time) and Darvaughn (who was 9), to get a morning workout. It involved running with and without parachutes attached to their backs as well as cone and ladder drills.

"I was always a guy that believed in work," Darryl Sr. told the Buffalo News. "So that's what I was teaching them at a young age." Recalled Darryl, Jr., "We talk about it now. I'm like, 'Dad, you were crazy, that was crazy.' But it got me here."

IMPORTANCE OF A MENTOR

Johnson learned the importance of having a good mentor throughout his time at Miami, where he became close with the Pro Football Hall of Fame nominee, Ed Reed.

A fellow Hurricane alum, Reed would often visit practice and Johnson knew he wanted to pick Reed's brain.

"When I saw him for the first time, I was nervous, nervous to say anything to him. I'd seen him one time at our pro day my freshman year and I didn't say anything. I was like, 'I missed my opportunity,'" Johnson told the Sun Sentinel. "But I was able to get another opportunity when he came to our Paradise Camp. I said, 'Hey, Ed, what's up?' [Safeties coach Ephraim Banda] was really the reason I decided to go over there and talk to him. If it wasn't for that, I probably would have still been quiet."

Reed and Johnson became close, with Reed teaching Johnson to be himself, always participate and take good notes.

- Named second team All-ACC honors for his play as a senior in 2014 and participated in the Senior Bowl.
- Earned honorable mention All-ACC honors in 2013 after leading Wake Forest with 15 pass breakups and three interceptions.

FIRST-AND-10

KEVIN JOHNSON joins the Bills in 2019 after spending the first four seasons of his career with the Houston Texans. He entered the NFL as a first round (16th overall) draft pick by the Texans in the 2015 NFL Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

LATE BLOOMER

Johnson didn't show up to his high school in Clarksville, Maryland looking like someone destined to end up in the NFL. Standing only five feet tall and weighing just 96 pounds as a freshman, not much was expected of him.

Growth spurts before his junior and senior years eventually allowed him to reach a height of 6 foot, but he was still just 155 pounds.

"Kevin was really small and short at first, but he always had quickness and agility and hit that late growth spurt as a senior," River Hill coach Brian Van Deusen said to the Baltimore Sun. "He did it all. He was our main big-play threat."

While at River Hill, Johnson would battle against his childhood best friend, Michael Campanaro, as they would help each other first receive scholarships to Wake Forest and then after battling in college, they would both eventually make it to the NFL.

PERSONAL

The son of Kevin and Judy Johnson, Kevin majored in communications at Wake Forest. He has a sister, Hillary. Kevin also played basketball in high school and compares his game to Allen Iverson.

JULY 27, 1996 (AGE 22)

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA

SHELDON HIGH SCHOOL

WEBER STATE

ACQUIRED 2018

Drafted by the Bills in the fourth round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- Per NFL Next Gen Stats, Johnson finished the 2018 season eighth among all NFL defenders in opposing passer rating by holding quarterbacks to a 64.0 rating when targeted (min. 35 targets).
- Recorded his first career NFL interception vs. Ten. (10/7/2018) by picking off quarterback Marcus Mariota in the second quarter.
- Totaled a career-high 7 tackles and a tackle for a loss at Ind. (10/21/2018).
- Recorded his first forced fumble at GB (9/30/2018) when he sacked Packers QB Aaron Rodgers.
- Earned unanimous FCS first team All-American honors for Weber State in 2017 after recording 49 tackles, 3 tackles for a loss, 12 passes defensed and three interceptions.
- Was the fourth player in Weber State history to be named the Big Sky Defensive MVP.
- Set a Weber State school record with 42 passes defensed during his collegiate career.

FIRST-AND-10

TARON JOHNSON arrived at the Bills in 2018 after spending time as a four-year starter at Weber State. Johnson was the 121st overall selection in the fourth round by the Bills and he became the first Weber State player to be selected in the NFL Draft since 2010.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FAMILY MOTIVATION

Taron Johnson has never needed to look very far to find the motivation he needed to push himself harder in his athletic pursuits. Johnson's older sister, Treana, earned All-American honors at BYU in track and field and since she was three years older, Taron was always chasing after her accomplishments.

His family motivation goes deeper than just the athletic accomplishments of his sister.

Taron uses the loss of his mother at the age of 9 as his main desire to make his family proud. Trina Johnson passed away from breast cancer in 2005.

"It was definitely a shock. It didn't seem real at the time...It was just very weird. It seemed like a dream. She's inspirational for sure. She introduced me to the game, and I'm thankful for it," Johnson said to WKBW in 2018. "I feel like I play for her."

Trina pushed Taron to try football at the age of 6 and is his driving force still today.

PERSONAL

Taron (TARE-un) is the son of Baron Johnson, who served in the Air Force. His mother, Trina, passed away from breast cancer in 2005. Taron has a daughter named Jayla. He studied criminal justice while at Weber State.

24 CB TARON JOHNSON

A CLOSE BOND

Due to the unfortunate passing of his mother, Trina, when Taron was 9, Taron and his father, Baron, formed a very close relationship that has helped make Taron the man he is today. Taron credits his father for showing him the meaning of hard work and that anything could be accomplished if he worked hard enough.

"If there is something he instilled in me at a very young age, it was my work ethic and learning from my mistakes. That's how I got here," Johnson told BuffaloBills.com.

HONOR FLIGHT

This past offseason, Taron and fellow Bills CB Levi Wallace participated in the Buffalo Niagara Honor Flight. The two served along with other volunteers as escorts to 53 veterans who were transported to Washington D.C. to visit the memorials which honor their service and sacrifice. The costs for the veterans was covered by the Buffalo Bills and M&T Bank.

Honoring the military has special meaning to Taron, as his father, Baron, served as a medic in the Army reserves and then the Air Force.

11 WR ZAY JONES

6-2 | 200 | 3RD YEAR

MARCH 30, 1995 (AGE 24)

AUSTIN, TEXAS

EAST CAROLINA

ACQUIRED 2017

Drafted by the Bills in the second round of the 2017 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- Finished his second season in 2018 with a team-high 56 receptions for 652 yards and seven touchdowns.
- His seven touchdowns were tied for the second-most by a second year receiver in 2018.
- Scored two touchdowns at Mia. (12/2/18), which was the first multi-TD game by a Bills WR since 2015. Jones followed up that performance with another two touchdowns vs. Mia. (12/30/18).
- Recorded a career-high eight receptions for 93 yards and a touchdown at NYJ (11/11/18).
- His five touchdowns over the last five weeks of the 2018 regular season were tied for the most in the NFL with Falcons WR Julio Jones.
- Was named first team All-American in 2016 for his standout play at East Carolina after he led all NCAA FBS receivers with 158 receptions and 1,746 yards.

FIRST-AND-10

ZAY JONES is in his third season as a Bill after being drafted in the second round in 2017 following a standout career at East Carolina. A Texas native, Jones set a NCAA FBS record with 399 receptions during his collegiate career.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE FAMILY BUSINESS

Jones isn't the first member of his family to make it to the National Football League. His father, Robert, played linebacker from 1992 to 2001 and won three Super Bowls with the Dallas Cowboys. His uncle, Jeff Blake, played quarterback in the NFL from 1992 to 2005 and made the Pro Bowl with the Bengals.

Zay's brother, Cayleb, was a wide receiver at the University of Arizona before spending time with the Philadelphia Eagles and Minnesota Vikings and his younger brother, Levi, plays linebacker at North Carolina State. His cousin, Emory Blake, also played in the NFL for the Rams after a productive career at Auburn as a wide receiver.

In addition to his two brothers, Zay has three sisters, Leah, Priscilla and Ana. Ana is adopted and came to the Jones family from China. Her uplifting presence in Zay's life has led him to be an advocate for adoption and awareness of what it entails.

PERSONAL

Born March 30, 1995 in Dallas, Texas, Zay is the son of Robert and Maneesha Jones. Zay has three sisters, Leah, Priscilla and Ana, in addition to two brothers, Cayleb and Levi. Jones studied Communications and graduated from East Carolina University.

11 WR ZAY JONES

LEVITATE, LEVITATE, LEVITATE

After appearing to levitate off of the ground against the Kansas City Chiefs in 2017, Zay found a new level of notoriety across the internet as people tried to replicate his athletic feat that drew comparisons to Michael Jackson.

"I did it in high school, I did in college," he said to ESPN in 2017 while claiming that the move was easy to do. "I usually do it in pregame warmups for us. It just unfolded the way it did. It was pretty crazy. I had no idea it was on social media like that."

ACES FOR AUTISM

This past offseason, Zay returned to the Greenville, N.C. area where he attended college at ECU and hosted a charity event in conjunction with Aces for Autism.

Aces for Autism is a non-profit treatment and education center that helps provide doctors with resources to help individuals with autism spectrum disorders and their families. Jones has been involved with the foundation since college when a mentor introduced him to the cause and his eyes were opened to the lack of resources those in the Autism community have to deal with.

FIRST-AND-10

VOSEAN JOSEPH (pronounced VOH-shawn) enters his first season with the Bills in 2019 after being drafted in the fifth round (147th overall) out of Florida. Joseph played in 37 career games, while starting in 22 for the Gators.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PLAYING FOR MORE

Vosean Joseph experienced heartbreak in 2017 when he found out that one of his friends since elementary school had been killed. Sadly, that was the fourth friend he had lost since going to college. He chose to attend Florida to put himself in a better situation to succeed and get away from the dangers of his hometown. He uses the loss of his friends as motivation to stay on a straight path and put his all into football and achieve his goal of making it to the NFL. "In the beginning, it hurt me bad," Joseph told the Miami Herald. "But at the end of the day, I know they're watching over me and I've just gotta move on from that. Because at the end of the day, it happens so much down there to the point that you just get numb to it. Like you can't cry no more."

A MISSED HURRICANE

Growing up, Joseph was an avid fan of the Miami Hurricanes and Ed Reed/Ray Lewis. However, Miami did not offer Joseph until late in the recruiting period when he had already opted to become a Florida Gator.

PERSONAL

The son of Wesley Joseph and Nattalene Vanreil-McDonald, Joseph has one sister. Chose to major in African American Studies while at Florida. Outside of football, Joseph enjoys making music.

BRENTWOOD, TENNESSEE

BRENTWOOD ACADEMY

MISSISSIPPI

ACQUIRED 2019

Drafted by the Bills in the third round (96th overall) in 2019.

SHOUTOUTS

- Totaled 39 receptions for 605 yards during his time as a Rebel. Also was a key contributor on special teams during his redshirt freshman year.
- Played in 12 games in 2018 with 11 starts. Knox totaled 15 receptions for 284 yards.
- Had a career-high 79 yards on two catches in Ole Miss' 38-17 win over Kent State (9/22/18).
- Recorded a career-high 24 catches for 321 yards in the 2017 season as a Rebel. His 321 yards ranked second in the SEC amongst all tight ends.
- Featured mostly on special teams in 2016 after he redshirted his freshman season in 2015 after walking on to the team.
- In addition to football, Knox was a three-year letterman in track & field in high school and also won his high school's dunk contest.
- Mentored a youth group at Pinelake Church in Oxford, Mississippi while at Ole Miss.

FIRST-AND-10

DAWSON KNOX enters his first season with the Bills in 2019 after being drafted by the team in the third round (96th overall) out of Ole Miss. He played in 28 games during his time at Ole Miss.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FROM QB TO TE

Going from being a walk-on to being a top NFL Draft prospect isn't an easy thing to do. To make matters even harder, Knox did it by switching from quarterback to tight end along the way during his redshirt season as a freshman.

According to the Clarion Ledger, Knox barely factored into the Rebels' plan his redshirt freshman year — he played in six games, all on special teams, but by the next season, Knox was the favorite to start at tight end.

"It really made me work even harder I feel like," Knox told the Ledger, "just going to work and practice every day with the mentality that I've got to earn my stripes and prove that I'm supposed to be here. So I think it really has given me an edge that I wouldn't have had if I had a scholarship right off the bat."

At the end of Knox's junior year of high school, he was only 5' 10", 160 pounds, and he shot up during his senior year, making the switch at Ole Miss more ideal.

PERSONAL

The son of David, a financial planner, and Rachel Knox, Dawson has three brothers and one sister. He majored in Managerial Finance while at Ole Miss. His mom ran track, specializing in sprints, at Tennessee in college and his dad played basketball at Belmont.

88 TE DAWSON KNOX

FAMILY MAN

Knox has a very close relationship with his family. The oldest of 5 kids, his brother Luke and sister Lucy are biological siblings, while his younger brothers Nate and Isaiah are adopted. The family originally started fostering Nate and Isaiah, then made the decision to adopt and haven't looked back.

Along with being close to his siblings, Knox lists his father as his role model because he always gives great advice and knows exactly what to say.

ISAIAH 40:31

A devout Christian, Knox has a small tattoo on the inside of his right forearm that is the Hebrew symbol for wait. It was inspired by the bible verse, Isaiah 40:31.

"But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint."

To Knox, the tattoo reminds him to wait with hope for what's to come.

ACQUIRED 2019

Signed with the Bills on March 14, 2019.

SHOUTOUTS

- Has appeared in 51 career games with 35 starts and has totaled 67 catches for 661 yards and eight touchdowns.
- Recorded career-highs with 42 catches for 404 yards and seven touchdowns during the 2017 season when he started all 16 games. His seven touchdowns were the sixth most by a tight end that season.
- Had a career-high six catches for 53 yards and two touchdowns in the Bengals 31-27 win at Bal. (12/31/2017) that helped send the Bills to the playoffs.
- Gained a career-high 79 yards receiving at Jax. (11/5/2017) on just two catches as he took one for 59 yards.
- Has totaled 18 career tackles on special teams.
- Played in 37 games with 24 starts over his three seasons at Rutgers. Earned First Team All-AAC honors in 2013. Finished his collegiate career with 901 yards and five touchdowns on 70 receptions.

FIRST-AND-10

TYLER KROFT joins the Bills in 2019 after spending the first four seasons of his career with the Cincinnati Bengals. He entered the NFL as a third round (85th overall) draft pick by the Cincinnati Bengals in the 2015 NFL Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PASSION FOR THE POSITION

A majority of players that make it to the NFL go through a couple position changes somewhere along the way from high school to college to the NFL. For Kroft, the tight end position has been where his heart resided, even despite being forced to wide receiver as a high school senior.

Growing up playing against his older brother, Ryan, and the other kids in the neighborhood, Kroft developed a mean streak and combined with a growth spurt before his freshman year of high school, he knew that tight end was going to be his future.

"I was always the youngest kid in the neighborhood but I didn't want to be left behind and I tried to hold my own," Kroft told the Daily Local. "It brought a level of toughness, and my brother and his friends always try to take credit for it."

"I grew four or five inches in the summer between eighth and ninth grade," he said. "That's when I knew I was going to play tight end."

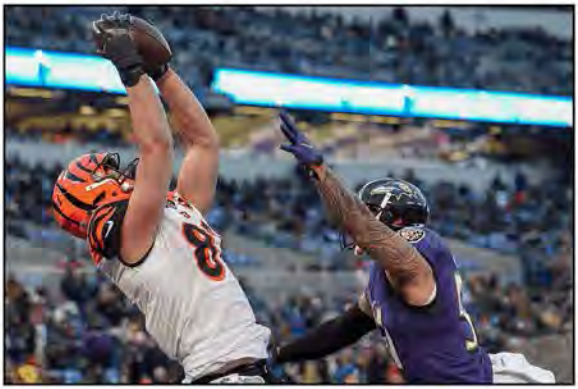

PERSONAL

The son of Erik and Charlotte Kroft, Kroft lives his wife, Lexi, and their dog, Jax. He has a brother named Ryan and his hobbies include playing video games and hanging out with his family. Kroft majored in communications while at Rutgers.

81 TE TYLER KROFT

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PHILLY PHANATIC

Outside of just playing sports, Tyler is a die-hard sports fan, in particular for his hometown teams, the Philadelphia 76ers and Philadelphia Phillies.

Tyler and his brother, Ryan, attended a Sixers playoff game this past season and he makes sure to tune in to as many games as possible. He lists his dream sporting event to attend as an NBA Finals game at the Wells Fargo Center and stated that if he could be a pro in any other sport, it would be playing baseball for the Phillies.

BREAKER OF DROUGHTS

Kroft had one of the best games of his career in a big moment for Bills fans everywhere in 2017. He posted a career-high six catches for 53 yards and two touchdowns in the Bengals week 17 31-27 win over Baltimore that helped the Bills make the playoffs and end their playoff drought.

After the game, Kroft saw the videos of Bills players reacting to the result and was blown away. "You [could] just see and feel the passion, and that's something that I love to see. You can just see how much it means to the guys," Kroft said.

FIRST-AND-10

DEON LACEY was signed by the Buffalo Bills in 2017 after spending training camp with the Miami Dolphins. Lacey spent the previous three years in the Canadian Football League for the Edmonton Eskimos and played four seasons for West Alabama prior to joining the CFL.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

SWEET HOME ALABAMA

Lacey only lettered for two seasons at Hueytown High School in Alabama, but he left his mark in those two seasons. In his senior season, he was named All-State, Super All-Metro, Old Spice Player of the Year and Defensive Player of the Year while playing for the Golden Gophers. The team did well on the offensive side of the ball as well, with current Tampa Bay Buccaneers QB Jameis Winston under center. Lacey also ran track and set the school record in the 400-meter dash with a time of 52.57. Lacey credits his Great Auntie Willie May for keeping him motivated at his lowest points for his successes.

CFL CHAMPION

Though he didn't join the NFL immediately after college, Lacey suited up for the Edmonton Eskimos of the CFL for three seasons. He helped lead the team to a 14-4 record and the 2015 Grey Cup Championship in his second CFL season.

PERSONAL

Born on July 18, 1990 in Indianapolis, IN, Deon is the son of Tonya Lacey and David Fuller. Deon has three brothers and majored in Physical Education while at West Alabama.

- Lawson was ranked as the No. 1 prep school prospect in the nation by 247Sports.com after he spent a year at Hargrave Military Academy.

FIRST-AND-10

SHAQ LAWSON was drafted by the Bills in the first round of the 2016 Draft after three seasons at Clemson. Lawson helped lead the Tigers to the National Championship game with a Consensus All-American performance in 2015 before joining the Bills.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PICK AND ROLL

Lawson contemplated leaving football behind as a freshman in high school to focus on basketball, but joined the varsity team at the last minute. As a sophomore, Lawson was the starting center for the Daniel Lions and he teamed up with Houston Texans WR DeAndre Hopkins to lead the school to their first ever Class AAA state basketball championship. Lawson led the way in the title game with a game-high 25 points.

CLEMSON BOY

Shaq's first job was working in the concessions stands at Clemson games from the ages of 11 to 14 selling popcorn. During that time, Lawson saw how much the Tigers meant to his local community and he eventually would end up playing in the same place his idols did. As a Tiger, Lawson would go on to be a unanimous All-American and would total 167 tackles, 46.5 tackles for a loss and 20 sacks during his career with the Tigers.

PERSONAL

Born June 17, 1994 in Central, South Carolina, Shaq is the son of Rolitha Oglesby and the late Lawrence Lawson. Lawson studied Parks and Recreation at Clemson University. He has a French Bulldog named Nudy.

90 DE SHAQ LAWSON

GIVING BACK TO CENTRAL

Lawson credits the majority of his success in football to the formative years he spent in the Central Tigers youth football program. The Tigers are a town recreation program for 6-12-year-olds to play football and Shaq recently left his mark on the team. Citing an extremely rundown old scoreboard, Lawson donated a brand new one in memory of his late father, Lawrence Lawson, who was very involved in the program. The scoreboard was unveiled during the 2018 season.

FAMILY MAN

The man that Shaq Lawson is today was shaped by a tragedy that happened when he was 15 years old. The car his parents were driving was hit by a drunk driver and his father passed away at the scene. Shaq knew he had to step up and help raise his younger siblings even though he just lost the most influential person in his life. Lawson still makes it a point to visit his father's grave as often as possible and every game, Lawson takes the field with his father's memory in mind, always looking to make him proud and to accomplish all the goals they set together.

FIRST-AND-10

CAMERON (CAM) LEWIS joined the Buffalo Bills in 2019 after a four-year career at University of Buffalo. A Michigan native, Lewis entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent to the Bills.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BASEBALL PAST

Lewis spent most of his life as a baseball standout, rather than a football star. Up until his junior year of high school, he was splitting time between baseball and football with his focus being more on baseball.

He participated in both club and school baseball, and his club team was so successful that they made it to the RBI National Championship.

"The most memorable game of my career was the RBI regional championship trying to make nationals," Lewis said. "The team was down 5 in the last inning and we rallied to win. It was played on the Cleveland Indians field."

It wasn't until his junior year of high school that his football coach, John Pittman, asked him to really give football a shot. Lewis listened and Pittman became a mentor for the high school running back turned college defensive back. He became the first player from his high school to play at a Division I school.

PERSONAL

The son of Ernest and Yvonne Lewis, Cameron has two older brothers, Ernest Jr. and Brandon. He majored in African American Studies while at Buffalo. He hopes to one day work with adoption agencies and foster homes because he believes every child should have a home.

What advice would you give to your younger self?
Don't fall in with the crowd. Be yourself.

Do you have a nickname?
Two. "Seattle" because he was the only person on college team from Seattle and "Ry Lew" came from Bills and Pitt teammate Lafayette Pitts

FIRST-AND-10

RYAN LEWIS was claimed off waivers from the Patriots on September 2, 2018 after spending most of the 2017 season on New England's practice squad. He originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Cardinals in 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BIG-GAME HUNTER

Lewis knew how big of a rivalry Pittsburgh and Penn State was as he went into the game during his senior year. His uncle, Tim, who played cornerback for Pitt from 1979-1982, called Lewis before the 2016 matchup to remind him how important the opportunity was. With only a minute left in the game and Penn State driving to take the lead, Lewis intercepted QB Trace McSorley in the end zone to seal the 42-39 win.

FAMILY MATTERS

His father, Will, played cornerback with the Seahawks, the USFL's Houston Gamblers and in the CFL. He also worked as an NFL assistant coach with the Falcons (1995-96) and spent time in the front offices of the Packers (1997-98), Seahawks (1999-2013) and Chiefs (2013-17). His uncle, Tim Lewis, spent four seasons playing in the NFL before working as an NFL assistant coach for more than 20 years. His cousin, Louis Riddick, played six seasons in the NFL, served as Washington and Philadelphia's Director of Pro Personnel and is now an ESPN analyst.

PERSONAL

The son of Will and Kimmberly Lewis, he has two brothers and one sister. He set a school record time of 10.7 seconds in the state championships in the 100-yard dash in high school.

- In 2018, started all 13 games he played in with the Jets. Against the Broncos (10/7), helped the Jets rush for 300+ yards for the fifth time in franchise history.
- Played in a career-high 15 games in 2016, starting 12 of the games he played in. Was a part of a Redskins offensive line that allowed the fourth fewest sacks in the NFL (23).
- Against the Green Bay Packers in the 2015 postseason, started in his first career playoff game.
- In the 2015 regular season, started 13 games at left guard for the Redskins while helping block for an offense that finished 10th in the league in points per game (24.3).
- Made his NFL debut in 2014 on special teams vs. the Philadelphia Eagles (9/21).

FIRST-AND-10

SPENCER LONG began his NFL career in 2014 with the Washington Redskins after being drafted by the team with a third round (78th overall) pick. In 2018, he signed with the New York Jets.

A DEMANDING MAJOR

The perception that football players take lax majors certainly was not the case with Long. He graduated from the University of Nebraska with a 3.79 grade-point average and a degree in biological sciences.

Long credits the staff at Nebraska for helping him, "Our staff at Nebraska was pretty good at making sure academics came first," said Long to Richmond.com. "You had to have them in line in order to get on field to play. Physics was the hardest subject for me. Organic chemistry was something I could do a little better. It wasn't that easy. I'm not saying that. But it wasn't something I particularly struggled with." Long added that it does take a different kind of smarts on the football field, "Football is different than school. It's X's and O's. It's like chess. It took me a long time to become football smart, and that just came with study and experience."

PERSONAL

Is the son of Doug and Ann Long. Has two older sisters and a twin brother, Jake, who also played at Nebraska. Earned a biological sciences degree at Nebraska.

STEPPING UP

This past summer when flooding hit Long's home state of Nebraska, Long and teammate Jeremiah Sirles committed to try and provide relief for everyone that was impacted. "Really what started it, aside from seeing all that, was watching my community come together and put their neighbors in front of themselves," Long told the Buffalo News. "It was really empowering and gave me more of a sense of pride to be where I'm from. This is my community. This is where I grew up. This is my home. People that I know were directly affected."

JUST A COUPLE WALK-ONS

Spencer and his twin brother Jake left Elkhorn High School without a single Division I scholarship offer. The brothers opted to stick together and walked on at Nebraska, where their dad played a year of college ball. By their senior year, the duo went from walk-ons to centerpieces for Nebraska, as Spencer was a team captain and starter at guard and Jake was the team's starting tight end. The motivation derived from having to earn his spot still sticks with Spencer today, as he still wears #61--the number he was given when first walking on at Nebraska.

A NEAR MISS

A first round draft pick in 2013 and one of the top acquisitions of the 2018 free agent class, it seems hard to believe that Lotulelei nearly never even played football past the high school level.

After graduating from Bingham High School, Lotulelei actually gave up football and took a job working from 9-to-5 at a furniture delivery company. Lotulelei quickly realized that lifestyle was one he wouldn't be satisfied with and enrolled at Snow Junior College.

While he was back on the gridiron, things did not really click for Lotulelei until he met his soon-to-be wife, Fuiva, and the couple had their first daughter, Arilani. Lotulelei credits becoming a father to Arilani with helping him recognize what was important and committing to football.

PERSONAL

Lotulelei (lo-too-leh-lay) is the son of Star and Pesatina Lotulelei and is the oldest of ten children. His brother, Lowell, also played football for Utah. Star and his wife Fuiva have four children. While at Utah, Lotulelei majored in Sociology. He met his wife while at Snow, where she was a volleyball player.

MOMMA'S BOY

Love makes it clearly known that his mother is the biggest influence on him and his career to this point. Raising four boys by herself while working as an insurance claims agent, Love noticed and appreciated all that Shalonda Love did for her children.

"She is a wonderful woman," Love said. "She is always on me about my manners. Always made sure I said yes sir, no sir. She also helps me find positives in every negative situation. She has been through a lot and I will do everything I can for her."

While keeping a close relationship with his mother, Love finally met his father in 2015. He did not know who he was growing up, until the two found each other when Mike was in college.

Love says that not knowing his father was one of the biggest obstacles he had to overcome in his life, but the two are now close and Love hopes that his father will make it to a game in Buffalo this season.

PERSONAL

The son of Shalonda Love, an insurance claims agent. He has three brothers, Leon, Ton Ton and Roddrick. Leon and Ton Ton are currently serving in the US Army. Lettered in football and basketball in high school. Earned his master's degree in entrepreneurship in 2018.

ACQUIRED 2017

Signed by the Bills on December 2, 2017.

SHOUTOUTS

- Played in two games for the Bills in 2018, logging four tackles, one pass defensed and one special teams tackle.
- Was a member of the Carolina Panthers squad that won the NFC Championship and made it to Super Bowl 50.
- At James Madison, was a four-time All-CAA selection, including First Team honors in 2012 and 2014.
- Named a Preseason All-American prior to the 2014 season.
- With JMU, he started 48 of a possible 49 career games played and finished his career with 326 career tackles, 12 interceptions, along with 13.5 tackles for loss and 30 passes defended.
- One of three freshmen to earn All-CAA laurels in 2011, as he was named to the Third Team.
- In 2014, led his team to a 9-4 record and JMU's first playoff berth since 2011 as a team captain.
- As a senior in high school, was New York Post and New York Daily News Queens Player of the Year.

FIRST-AND-10

DEAN MARLOWE enters his second full season with the Bills after being signed to the team's practice squad prior to Week 14 of the 2017 season. Prior to arriving in Buffalo, Marlowe spent the 2015 and 2016 seasons with the Carolina Panthers before being a training camp cut in 2017. Marlowe originally entered the NFL as a UDFA out of James Madison with Carolina.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A KEY RECRUITER

Coming out of James Madison, Marlowe went undrafted but drew plenty of interest from NFL teams. Marlowe estimates about 15 NFL teams tried to sign him. One of the deciding factors in him signing with Carolina? A call from then Panthers defensive coordinator Sean McDermott during the seventh round of the 2015 NFL Draft.

"My agent told me it'd be a great opportunity to learn from a great coordinator (Sean McDermott), great head coach (Ron Rivera) and great defensive backs coach in Coach (Steve) Wilks," Marlowe said at the time. "I saw that they had veterans like Roman Harper that I could learn from and pick up the speed of the game. I'm a smart guy. I know the game and I know it well. I can develop a lot from these guys."

Marlowe warranted the interest from NFL teams after finishing his career at James Madison as a First-Team All-CAA selection.

PERSONAL

The son of Lisa and Mike Neil. He has two sisters. He graduated with a degree in Sports and Recreation Management from James Madison University.

OVERCOMING OBSTACLES

Everyone has to overcome some sort of adversity in life. One of Dean's biggest obstacles was transitioning from college to the NFL. Dean finished his collegiate career as a four-time All-CAA selection including multiple First Team honors. Although he still ended up in the NFL, it wasn't the smoothest transition. The biggest difference he noticed is how differently people treat you both positively and negatively. "If you surround yourself with the right people at this level, you can learn how to appreciate what they bring to the table in a positive way."

DOUBLE OT THRILLER

Everyone who has played football has one game they'll never forget. Dean's most memorable game was a regular season game against one of the best teams in New York, Iona Prep. He vividly remembers the night, "It was great weather and the stands were packed. Iona always had a great crowd." Holy Cross was down 35-10 in the 4th quarter and everyone assumed the game was over. Then without a halftime speech, they miraculously came back to send it to double overtime where they would go on to win 42-41.

CLEMSON

ACQUIRED 2018

Drafted by the Bills in the sixth round of the 2018 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- Finished his rookie season with five receptions for 36 yards, one kick return for 18 yards and four punt returns for 20 yards.
- Earned an NFL career best one reception for 16 receiving yards vs. NE (10/29/18).
- Made his NFL debut at Min. (9/23/18), where he started and recorded one reception for six yards.
- Finished his career at Clemson with 127 receptions for 1,226 yards and four touchdowns in 1,396 snaps over 40 games (20 starts).
- Totaled 50 punt returns for 485 yards and a touchdown at Clemson.
- Was named a Second-Team All-American punt returner by Pro Football Focus after his 2017 season.
- Started in 14 games in the Tigers' 2017 season that resulted in a College Football Playoff berth. He finished the season with 49 receptions for 503 yards and a touchdown.
- Was named Clemson's 2016 Co-Special Teams Player of the Year.

RAY-RAY McCLOUD III arrived in Buffalo after spending three seasons at Clemson (2015-17). A Second-Team All-American punt returner in 2017 (Pro Football Focus), McCloud was the 187th selection in the sixth round by the Bills in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FAMILY FIRST

Ray-Ray McCloud III lists his parents, Raymond McCloud Jr. and Lisa McCloud, as his biggest inspirations in his life.

McCloud told the Clemson Athletics website, "my parents are my biggest inspirations. My dad played football at Arkansas, and he has always pushed me in sports and in life. My mom is my best friend. She's my ace, and I can talk to her about anything."

"I put him in flag football leagues with kids who were a year or two years older than him, and he was just doing things that make you say, 'wow,' and making it look easy, and then it became like a habit," Raymond Jr. told the Bleacher Report.

McCloud's determination to make it to the NFL was partly because he wanted to reach the level that his dad didn't. "I want to follow through on what my dad built," he told Clemson.

PERSONAL

The son of Raymond Jr. and Lisa McCloud. Ray-Ray is the oldest of five siblings, two brothers and two sisters. Majored in Sociology at Clemson. His first name is Raymond, but goes by Ray-Ray.

14 WR RAY-RAY MCCLOUD III

A SECOND LOVE

After producing on the football field, Ray-Ray wants to be able to do the same behind the big screen. "One day, when I'm done with football, I want to be a director and producer in movies," McCloud told WGR during training camp. "I'm going to learn how to write scripts word-for-word, but right now I just write how I want my movie to be, planned out and set." Though he has thought about pursuing the idea during his football career, McCloud knows he needs to stay focused on his first priority. "Movies are my second love. Football is my first."

NUMBER 34

Although Ray-Ray is a wide receiver, his jersey number of choice is 34. He followed his father's footsteps whose favorite player growing up was Walter Payton. From that moment on, his father wore 34 for the rest of his football career. Ray-Ray's brother and cousin carried on the tradition and also wore 34 during their respective football careers. After being drafted by the Bills, he was given the number 14. He said "I don't think I'll be able to wear 34 in the NFL, but as long as it has a 4 digit in it, I am cool with it."

LeRon was a 7th round draft pick of Arizona in 2005 as a wide receiver. Has a pit bull named Chubb and a rottweiler named Momma. Aspires to become a football analyst on television once his playing days are complete.

FIRST-AND-10

Now in his fifth season in Buffalo, LESEAN MCCOY is cementing his position as one of the game's best running backs of all time. Acquired by the Bills in a trade from the Eagles in 2015, McCoy leads the NFL in rushing yards since entering the league as a second round draft choice of Philadelphia in 2009 (53rd overall). A six-time Pro Bowl selection and a two-time, first-team All-Pro honoree, McCoy is the only player in NFL history with 10,000+ rushing yards, 400+ receptions, 4.5+ yards per carry, and 80+ total touchdowns.

SHOUTOUTS

- Since 2010, McCoy leads the NFL with 38 games of 100+ rushing yards. His teams' record in such games? 32-6.
- McCoy has scored the most touchdowns this decade (2010-18) with 80 (tied with Rob Gronkowski)
- McCoy leads the NFL in most yards from scrimmage in NFL since 2009 (14,222).
- Tied with Le'Veon Bell for the most games with 150+ yards from scrimmage since 2012 (17).
- Since joining the Bills in 2015, ranks 3rd in the NFL in rushing yards with 3,814. (Behind Todd Gurley's 4,547 and Ezekiel Elliott's 4,048).
- In a heavy snowstorm, rushed for a season-high 156 yards (6th most in career), including a game-winning 21-yard touchdown run in overtime vs. Indianapolis (12/10/17).
- Still holds the Eagles franchise records for most rushing yards in a career (6,792), in a season (1,607 in 2013), and in a game (217 vs. Detroit on 12/8/13).

2010'S - A DECADE OF DOMINANCE FOR MCCOY

McCoy became a full-time starter in the NFL in 2010, his second season in the league. Since then, he leads the NFL in several categories in the decade (2010-18), including:

9,969 RUSHING YARDS

13,277 TOTAL YARDS FROM SCRIMMAGE

6 1,000-YARD RUSHING SEASONS

SNOW MAN

Playing in heavy snow brings out the best in McCoy, who logged two of his top six rushing games of his career while playing in several inches of snow.

In 2013, McCoy broke the Eagles single-game rushing record with 217 yards in a comeback win vs. Detroit. Four years later, McCoy capped off a 156-yard rushing performance with a game-winning, 21-yard touchdown in overtime vs. Indianapolis.

SHADES OF GREATNESS

After McCoy's grandmother, Maryann Branch, lost her battle with ALS, the disease became a driving force behind the creation of his foundation – Shades of Greatness.

This foundation is dedicated to helping the fight against Lou Gehrig's Disease (ALS) and provides direct support to individuals battling ALS to ensure a comfortable quality of life while supporting their family and caregivers in providing quality of life care.

Each year in Buffalo and Harrisburg, his foundation conducts an annual backpack giveaway in September, an annual Thanksgiving turkey giveaway as well as other events in the Buffalo area around Christmas.

PERSEVERANCE AT A YOUNG AGE

On pace to shatter the state's rushing record during his senior season at Bishop McDevitt HS, McCoy suffered a compound ankle fracture during the fourth game and missed the rest of the season.

"I felt like I was on top of the world," recalled McCoy. "Then at the very next moment I lost it all." After one year of prep school at Milford Academy in New York, McCoy was given a chance to play Division I football by Pittsburgh coach Dave Wannstedt. In 2012, he (#20) joined Ricky Watters as the only two players to have their jersey numbers retired by Bishop McDevitt. McCoy began playing football as a running back for the East Shore Royals in Harrisburg.

FIRST-AND-10

CONOR MCDERMOTT was claimed off waivers by the Bills in 2017 after being drafted in the sixth round (211th overall) by the New England Patriots in 2017. McDermott earned second-team All-Pac 12 honors in back-to-back seasons with the Bruins (2015-16).

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BASKETBALL LOVE

Growing up, McDermott was much more focused on making it to the NBA in comparison to the NFL. He didn't even send out highlight tapes of himself playing football in high school until after his senior season. As a senior in high school, McDermott was named Mr. Basketball for Division II-AA in the state of Tennessee and was able to lead his school to a state championship in not only basketball, but football as well. It wasn't until the UCLA coaches came calling that he made the full-time switch to football and started putting on the weight to get him to where he is today.

#68

Rather than choosing his number, McDermott's number chose him. When he arrived at UCLA he was poised to play tight end, however when he got to his locker he saw the #68 jersey and realized the coaches envisioned him playing tackle. He embraced the role and became a mainstay at LT for the Bruins.

PERSONAL

Born October 19, 1992 in Nashville, Tennessee, Conor is the son of Kevin and Deborah McDermott. McDermott studied political science and graduated from UCLA.

FIRST-AND-10

GARRETT McGHIN enters his first season with the Bills in 2019 after signing with the team as a UDFA out of East Carolina. McGhin played in 48 games over five years with the Pirates.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE SLUGGER

If McGhin had the choice, the sport he would love to be a pro in would be baseball. His first love, McGhin at one point was hoping to find a place to play both football and baseball in college and was close to trying to do it at East Carolina.

A die-hard baseball fan as a kid, McGhin grew up idolizing Chipper Jones and David Ortiz. He now is a big fan of Atlanta Braves first baseman Freddie Freeman and would pattern his game after him if he was still playing the sport.

McGhin also used his passion for baseball to make a difference in the community in both high school and college as he decided to get involved with The Miracle League.

The Miracle League looks to provide opportunities for children with disabilities to play Miracle League baseball, regardless of their abilities. They also look to promote the construction of special facilities that meet the unique needs of Miracle League players and their families.

PERSONAL

The son of Kathy and Patrick McGhin, Garrett has a younger brother named James. He graduated with a degree in business communications from East Carolina.

ACQUIRED 2018

Claimed off of waivers on November 5, 2018 (from Denver).

SHOUTOUTS

- Against the Lions (12/16/18), tallied career highs in both catches (6) and receiving yards (53).
- In Week 14 at NYJ (12/9/18), scored his second rushing touchdown of the season on a 15 yard rush. Became the first Bills WR since Elbert 'Golden Wheels' Dubenion in 1961 to run for two touchdowns in a single season.
- Scored his first NFL touchdown on a six yard carry vs. Jax. (11/25/18).
- Logged a career-high 101 kickoff return yards at NYJ (12/9/18).
- In 2017 while with the Broncos, tallied a career-long punt return of 44 yards in a game at Phi. (11/5/17).
- Set the Georgia school record for career punt return touchdowns (5) and overall return touchdowns (6).
- During his final collegiate season at Georgia, finished as UGA's leading receiver with 44 receptions for 663 yards (14.4 average) with seven touchdowns. As a freshman at Georgia, matched the school record for punt return touchdowns (2) and total return touchdowns (3) in a single season as a true freshman.

FIRST-AND-10

ISAIAH McKENZIE joined the Bills in 2018 after being claimed off of waivers via the Denver Broncos. McKenzie originally entered the league in 2017 as a fifth round pick (172nd overall) of the Broncos out of Georgia. McKenzie spent the entire 2017 season on the Broncos' 53-man roster before rotating between Denver's 53 and practice squad in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A KEY INFLUENCE

When the Broncos called McKenzie's phone during the 2017 NFL Draft it brought overwhelming emotions to not only Isaiah, but his grandmother as well. He credits her with keeping him and his siblings on the right path and out of trouble growing up.

"My grandma kept us on the right path," McKenzie said of himself and his siblings. "She did everything she had to do to be a great parent. I wouldn't say I followed every rule in the book, but whatever she told me I knew it was important. I took heed to when she told me something."

McKenzie's grandmother even went so far as to find a new job at American Heritage HS and take an hour long bus ride daily at 5:30 AM with Isaiah to give him the best opportunity to take advantage of his unique talents on the football field. Everything eventually paid off as McKenzie received multiple D-I offers.

PERSONAL

Born on April 9, 1995 in Miami, Florida and attended American Heritage HS. McKenzie has six brothers and one sister.

CHASE McLAUGHLIN enters his first season with the Bills in 2019 after signing with the team as a UDFA out of Illinois. McLaughlin played in 35 games over three years with the Illini.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE MUSIC MAN

With the given pressure of the kicker position, most kickers have certain quirks that help them stay focused. For McLaughlin, it's classical music. Before every game he focuses in by relaxing and zoning out to one of his favorite classical tunes.

"I was actually in orchestra for about seven years in middle school and high school," McLaughlin told the News-Gazette. "I played cello. When I got to freshman year of college, I thought: "Hey, I can read sheet music." So, I taught myself to play piano. And I taught myself to play guitar. My most recent endeavor is banjo. I can play a few tunes."

ULTIMATE MENTOR

Chase credits the majority of his success in life to the influence of his grandfather, Joe, who unfortunately passed away shortly before Chase became the kicker at Illinois.

Crediting Joe with always showing him the right way and how to be a man, Chase decided to wear #43 while in college in tribute to his grandfather who was born in 1943.

PERSONAL

The son of Dan and Tammy McLaughlin, he has a younger brother named Pierce. Chase is engaged to Jessica Ramos.

- Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week after his performance against the Vikings (9/23/18).
- Had a season-high 10 tackles vs. Ten. (10/7/18).
- Had interceptions in consecutive games (at NYJ (11/11/18), vs. Jax. (11/25/18)), making him the first Bills LB with a INT streak since 2015 (AJ Tarpley).
- Finished third on the team in tackles with 78 in 2018, despite missing three games due to injury.
- Key part of a Bills' linebacker unit that ranked third in the NFL in takeaways in 2018 with 17.
- Returned a fumble for a TD vs. Oak. (10/29/17), making him the first Bills LB to do so since London Fletcher 2006.

FIRST-AND-10

MATT MILANO enters his third season with the Bills after being drafted by the team in the fifth round (163rd overall) out of Boston College in 2017. He had 78 tackles, 3 interceptions and 3 fumble recoveries in 2018 before being placed on IR for the final 3 games of the season.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

OVERCOMING THE ODDS

Milano grew up in a football hotbed in Florida and was a three-star recruit when he began to look at college. During his senior year, he was named Orlando Sentinel's Defensive Player of the Year and opted to take his talents to Boston College. The transition was not seamless however, and he only logged five tackles during his freshman season. Milano says that the transition from different levels of football is the biggest obstacle he has had to overcome.

The jump from college to NFL was also a tough challenge for the linebacker, but Milano made the most of it, earning a starting role by the end of the 2017 season.

Milano's performance took off during the 2018 season, putting together a Pro Bowl-caliber year before being placed on IR.

PERSONAL

Born July 28, 1994 in Orlando, Florida, Matt is the son of Mike, a pharmaceutical sales manager, and Janet Milano. Matt graduated with degrees in Psychology and Communications from Boston College. He has a brother, Michael, and sister, Gina.

WORLD TRAVELER

In his free time, Milano enjoys traveling, not only throughout the country, but all over the world. He has been to Costa Rica (pictured above) and hopes to one day travel the globe.

"It's important getting out from the bubble you live in at the time and experiencing something new," Milano told the Buffalo News, "seeing somebody else's culture, what they kind of do during the day, who's around there, and just meeting new people."

FACETIMING WITH FAMILY

Milano was a consistent impact player on the Bills' defense throughout the 2018 season, but unfortunately suffered a season-ending injury against the Jets with three games remaining in the season.

The following week, the Bills beat the Lions 14-13 and Milano was unable to attend due to the injury. After the game, the team facetimed with Milano and he broke down the team following Coach McDermott's post-game speech.

FIRST-AND-10

MITCH MORSE entered the NFL in 2015 as a second round pick (49th overall) of the Kansas City Chiefs out of Missouri. Morse spent the first four seasons of his career in Kansas City.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A HARSH REALITY

A four-year-old Morse was forced into a harsh reality breaking him from what he called "a life of rainbows and pizza." On April 1, 1996, Morse's brother, Robbie, suffered a debilitating brain injury after being violently shaken by a babysitter. "There's no words to describe all the symptoms," Morse told the Kansas City Star.

Despite the life-altering tragedy, Morse feels that he wouldn't be the same person today without having gone through the experience. "I have soft spots. I don't think I would be quite the person I am today … without that tragedy happening to my brother. People say it's a cross to bear, but he hasn't been a burden at all. He's been a blessing," Morse said.

Morse's father, Kevin, summed up the circumstances nearly perfectly when reflecting on how Mitch went from always being there for his brother to playing offensive line. "Isn't that the aesthetic of an offensive lineman? Isn't that the ethos of kind of what you look for when you want to have somebody doing the thankless job?" said Kevin Morse. "He's been doing the thankless jobs in this family for 21 years."

THE SPURS WAY

Growing up in Texas, Mitch was a huge San Antonio Spurs fan and took lessons from those teams that he has tried to apply to the way he goes about his business now.

"I was a huge Tim Duncan fan," Morse said. "[Manu] Ginobili, all of those guys. I just liked the way they played basketball. I just liked the way Duncan played. I liked the way he carried himself as a professional, and it's something that I like to try to carry with myself, as well. Just kind of a silent professional, do you work and help the team win."

PREP WORK

The center position is often viewed as the leader of the offensive line and Mitch tries to fill that role. He learned from Mitchell Schwartz in Kansas City about how important the little things are and he has tried to pass that along to his new teammates.

"I just like to do my job, man," Morse said in his introductory press conference. "I like to help the quarterback as much as I can, help get the offense going the right way and not be a detriment to the team. That's just playing hard. It starts with your preparation, and I pride myself every week on my preparation."

- Recovered a fumble on a Jets KO return that led to a FG vs. NYJ (12/9/18).
- Logged career highs in carries (14) and yards (69) at NYJ (11/11/18).
- Recorded a career-high 5 receptions and a career-long 30-yard run at Ind. (10/21/18).
- Had a career-long, 49-yard KO return at Bal. (9/9/18) as well as a career-high in all-purpose yardage (205).
- As a rookie with the Saints, returned a punt 74 yards for a touchdown at Car. (9/27/15).
- In 2014, earned first team All-SEC honors after leading the conference with 1,714 all-purpose yards.
- As a senior in college, became the first player in Missouri history with a TD via rushing, kickoff return (96 yards), and punt return (82 yards) in the same game (10/18/14 at Florida).
- Captured the state title in both the 4x100m and 4x200m track events as a senior in high school.

FIRST-AND-10

MARCUS MURPHY signed with Buffalo's practice squad late in the 2017 season and was promoted to the active roster prior to the season finale. Originally a 7th round draft choice of the New Orleans Saints in 2015, the Missouri product spent his first two NFL seasons with the Saints before being released in July, 2017. He was on both the Jets and Colts practice squads in 2017 before joining the Bills.

EARLY LIFE LESSON

Always heeds the advice given from his parents at an early age to never give up.

Murphy recalled of his time at DeSoto High School, "I didn't make the freshman 'A team' during my first year of high school. I thought a lot about quitting, but didn't. I eventually did move up to the A team. And later that year, I ended up playing on the varsity team."

REMEMBERING CHUCK

Fondly remembers one of his mentors growing up, Lonnie Jackson, his mother's stepfather. "We called him 'Chuck.' We were so close. He was everything to me. He died when I was 11 from lung cancer. He taught me how to be a man. I spent a lot of time with him growing up."

PERSONAL

The son of William, a truck driver, and Tonnette, a Walmart supervisor. Has a son, Marcus, Jr. His older brother, William, serves in the US Air Force. Has a pitbull named Layla. Earned a degree in sports management. Grew up a fan of the Dallas Cowboys, especially Emmitt Smith and Troy Aikman.

RE-UNITED

As Bills fans were getting themselves acquainted with new Bills C Mitch Morse (#65 above), Murphy (#6 above) was just saying hi to an old friend. Morse paved the way for Murphy in college when the duo played at Missouri. Murphy enjoyed quite a bit of success running behind Morse, earning 2014 first team All-SEC honors after leading the conference with 1,714 all-purpose yards and being named a finalist for the Paul Hornung Award, which honors the nation's most versatile player.

COUNTED OUT

A seventh round draft pick in 2015, Murphy has let all of the teams that have passed on him drive him in his career. "I do carry a chip on my shoulder," Murphy WIVB in 2018. "I've been doubted my whole career. I'm a smaller guy and kind of overlooked but I just want to prove to everyone when I do get a chance that I can make plans." Bills HC Sean McDermott appreciates Murphy's attitude. "(Marcus) embraces his role whatever that role is special teams or offense. I've been extremely proud of the way he's handled that," said McDermott.

- Finished collegiate career ranked third in Stanford history with 32.5 sacks.
- Was a consensus All-America selection as a senior in 2013 with 15 sacks.

FIRST-AND-10

TRENT MURPHY is in his second season in Buffalo after signing a three-year contract with the Bills in 2018. A second round draft pick (47th overall) of the Redskins in 2014, Murphy spent his first four seasons with Washington (2014-17).

GREAT OUTDOORS

In 2019, Murphy attended the Sheep Show, a mountain hunting expo in Reno, NV, in order to gain a greater understanding and make connections with hunters who spend time in extreme conditions. "I'm all about learning the strategies, technique, and equipment it takes to thrive in rough conditions. Some of these hunters get dropped off in a helicopter and are not picked up again for a week to 10 days. I remember spending Thanksgiving outdoors in freezing weather last year and thought how I never had a bad day outside."

UNIQUE TALENT

Team roping is a rodeo event in which you team up with another person to rope up a steer while on horseback. The key is to do it in as little time as possible. "I did it from the age of 8 to 13 years old. There is the header, the one who ropes the horns of the steer and the healer, who ropes the feet. I was the healer. All of that happens faster than a play in football and involves a crazy amount of hand/eye coordination and focus. You look at that steer like it's your opponent and you have to get after them."

PERSONAL

The son of Jerry and Laurie Murphy, has five sisters and one brother, Connor, who plays at USC. Graduated with a degree in science, technology and society with a minor in political science. Has a dog named Shadow.

TOUGH LOVE

Learned valuable, but tough lessons from his father, Jerry, growing up in Mesa, Arizona. Jerry, who stands 6-7, is a plumbing contractor, bodybuilder and lung cancer survivor. Recalled Murphy, "I love to tell the story about how I spent nearly two hours cleaning up our yard one day of sticks, grass clipping, leaves, dog poop and rotten oranges, you name it. I was 13 years old and he came outside and dumped all the garbage cans back on the yard and said, 'do it right the first time or don't do it at all.' It taught me to never cut corners in life. He was always teaching me the right way to do things."

DISCUS DREAMS

As a junior in high school, Murphy became a fan of Wolfgang Schmidt, an East German discus thrower who captured an Olympic silver medal in 1976 and was once the world record holder. "His story is amazing. He was basically locked up for two years trying to escape East Germany and was then banned by his country to compete. He survived it all. I remember trying to replicate his throwing style as we had similar body types. If I'm healthy enough after football, I'd love to try to compete for the Olympic team." Murphy threw for Stanford's team in 2011 and was the state champion in high school in 2009.

FIRST-AND-10

SIRAN NEAL arrived in Buffalo after spending four seasons at Jacksonville State (2013-17). A back-to-back First-Team All-Ohio Valley selection in 2016-17, Neal was the 154th selection of the fifth round by the Bills in 2018.

CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

Back during his high school playing days with the Eufaula High Yellow Jackets, Neal was an All-State wide receiver in both 2012 and 2011, when he totaled 76 receptions and 21 touchdowns.

Upon arriving at Jacksonville State, the Gamecock coaches switched Neal over to the defensive side of the ball and put him at linebacker. The switch paid off when in 2016 he made 80 tackles, 11.5 for loss, an interception and four pass break-ups to become an All-Conference selection.

Despite how well he performed at the linebacker position, Gamecock coaches again asked him to switch positions in 2017 and moved him back to the safety position.

Adept at finding ways to help the team win, Neal embraced the change telling the Gadsden Times, "I love it. It's something different for me, but I'll get the job done. They put me out there so I have to perform my task."

PERSONAL

The son of Glenn Neal and Rhonda Walker, Siran has six brothers and one sister. He also has twin daughters, Londyn and Lauryn Neal. He earned his degree in criminal justice and he is currently halfway towards earning his Masters.

- Is the owner and operator of three clubs in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

FIRST-AND-10

TY NSEKHE (pronounced: en-SECK-he) began his professional playing career in the Arena Football League, playing for the Corpus Christi Sharks (2009), Dallas Vigilantes (2010), Philadelphia Soul (2011) and then with the San Antonio Talons (2012). He broke into the NFL in 2012 with the Indianapolis Colts and the St. Louis Rams. In addition, he spent the 2014 season with the Saints and has been with the Redskins since 2015. Nsekhe also had stints with the Montreal Alouettes in 2014 and LA Kiss in 2015.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A LONG ROAD

If there was a contest for who took the most round-a-bout path to making the NFL, Nsekhe would have a strong case to win. From Texas State to Tarleton State to the Arena Football League's developmental program, Nsekhe journey to the NFL has not been easy.

"I always knew in the back of my mind I was destined to be here, so something just stayed with me," Nsekhe told the Daily Herald. "I can't really tell you what it was, but I just knew I was going to be here. I'm here."

"All I really wanted was to have the opportunity to become an NFL player," he added. "I just wanted somebody to believe in me and give me a chance, and I appreciate that."

Nsekhe finally got that chance when he arrived in Washington where he cemented a role beginning in 2015.

PERSONAL

The son of Diane Nsekhe, Ty has one son named Tylin.

TY NSEKHE FOUNDATION

Nsekhe knows how lucky he is to have made it so far in his career and he makes sure to pay it forward through the work of his foundation.

The Ty Nsekhe Foundation is focused on inspiring youth development by turning dreams into goals and goals into reality and preparing youth from any spectrum of life in the communities. The foundation has worked with local police departments, hosted football camps, backpack giveaways and an annual golf tournament back home in Arlington, Texas.

THE MARATHON CONTINUES

During Nsekhe's long journey to the NFL, he would lean on music to keep him positive and focused. The artist that spoke to him the most was the late Nipsey Hussle.

"He was going through the same type of trials and tribulations that I felt I could relate to," Nsekhe said on Good Morning Football. "I was dealing with struggles, trying to find my way in football and everything off of the field...When he released Victory Lap last year, it felt like my victory lap...His legacy is going to live on for awhile."

- Led the nation in 2017 with an average of 1.56 tackles for loss per game.

FIRST-AND-10

ED OLIVER enters his first season with the Bills in 2019 after being drafted by the team in the first round (9th overall) out of Houston. A three-time All-America selection, Oliver played in 33 games during his three-year tenure with the Cougars.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD' HORSES IN THE BACK

Growing up, Oliver's passions extended beyond the football field. In fact, one of his hobbies is horseback riding.

"No kidding," his brother Marcus told the Washington Post, "Ed used to get a lot of praise about riding his horse. You'd just see Ed fly by, and people would say, 'Wow, that kid can really ride a horse.' Ed's not just good at football. He's also good at horses."

Oliver has been around horses most of his life and says that being around them helped him immensely in learning to conquer his fears. He listed one of his horses, Oreo, as being the most impactful on him overcoming those fears.

"I can tell you, I got over a lot of fear with horses, too," he said. "A couple times I thought I was going to die, and I realized: 'Hey, you've just got to go through it. You'll be all right.' Real life, I thought sometimes, 'Man, this horse could kill me.' I'm overcoming fear just getting back up on the horse and riding it."

BROTHERLY LOVE

Most recruiting experts were surprised when Ed decided to stay close to home and play his college ball at Houston. One of the main reasons for going to Houston was so Ed could play with his brother, Marcus, who played on the offensive line for the Cougars and has served as a mentor and best friend for Ed.

"He's the reason I love football the way I do now," Ed said to the Athletic. "Without him, I don't know what I'd be doing. Every time I kind of veered off, he was always right there with me, going, 'Nah, this way.' I'd veer off again, 'Nah, this way.' "

HARD WORK

A well publicized story about the hard work that Ed put in as a kid is when he and his brother were forced by their father to build a barn, which helped to instill strength and work ethic. Looking back now, Ed can tell that his dad had a plan and the hard work would find a way to pay dividends.

"I didn't even know I was working hard," Ed said to the Athletic. "My daddy used to ask me to do crazy stuff, and you had to do it because he asked you to do it. I didn't even think about it like that. It was hard, but eventually, we would get it done."

KYLE PEKO joined the Bills after two seasons with the Denver Broncos. Peko originally joined the league as an undrafted rookie free agent following the 2016 Draft. He began his collegiate career at Cerritos Community College before transferring to Oregon State.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

NFL IN THE FAMILY

For Kyle Peko, making it to the NFL was an amazing feat. After attending Cerritos Community College and only being able to play one season at Oregon State, Peko was picked up as an undrafted rookie free agent by the Broncos. In his second year with the Broncos, Peko was joined on the team by his cousin and NFL veteran, defensive lineman Domata Peko.

Domata joined the team in 2017 after spending 11 seasons with the Bengals. When news spread to Kyle about the family reunion, he said that he was, "Blessed to have the opportunity to work together."

It's pretty remarkable to have two members of the same family play in the NFL, but it doesn't stop there. Domata's brother and Kyle's cousin, Tupe Peko, played for the Atlanta Falcons and Indianapolis Colts.

PERSONAL

Peko is the son of Puna and Michelle Peko, and has one sister named Kayla and an adopted sister named Aurille. Married his wife Giuliana in December of 2014 and they are parents to a son named Kai and a daughter named Evangeline. While at Oregon State, Peko majored in human development and family sciences.

FIRST-AND-10

SENORISE PERRY entered the NFL in 2014 as an undrafted free agent to the Bears out of Louisville. He spent the 2014 and 2015 seasons with the Bears before splitting the 2016 season between the Bears and the Dolphins. He played for the Dolphins in 2017 and 2018.

COACH PERRY

Dowell Loggains spent time with Perry in both Chicago and Miami and gave him the nickname 'Coach Perry.' "David Fales was with us in Chicago and when [Perry] was a young player, he made a lot more mistakes than he makes now," Loggains told the Lexington Herald. "Now, he has an understanding. He's over there telling, grabbing people. When he was in Chicago, David Fales would take him one-on-one during walk-throughs and be like, 'Ah, what do you got here on this play?' Now all of a sudden 'Coach Perry' is correcting people. Just to see him grow as a player and an individual has been pretty cool."

#32

This spring, Perry became the first Bill to wear the number 32 since OJ Simpson. He talked with The Athletic about what the number means to him: "I know the situation. I know that greatness comes with that number, playing in Buffalo. But I'm willing to take anything that comes my way...With that number on my back, I know I'm doing well for my family."

PERSONAL

Name is pronounced suh-nah-riss. The son of Angel London and Senorise Sr. Has a son and a daughter. Graduated with a degree in Communications at Louisville.

FIRST-AND-10

CAM PHILLIPS signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent following the 2018 NFL Draft. After spending some time on the practice squad, Phillips played in two games during his rookie season.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FASHION FORWARD

Phillips describes himself as someone who is pretty quiet, but as a result likes to let his fashion do the talking for him.

Phillips' fashion made headlines in 2017 when he attended the Atlantic Coast Conference preseason media day. Phillips sported a bronze double-breasted velvet jacket and round flip up sunglasses.

"I just like to have fun with stuff like this," Phillips said. "I think it's a way to show my personality, show fans and other players I'm a laidback and cool, fun guy. I'm having a great time at this event."

Phillips also noted that his shades had some additional meaning as they were an ode to Kadeem Hardison's character on the TV show "A Different World" from the late 1980s and early 1990s.

In addition to fashion, Phillips enjoys displaying his personality via cooking.

PERSONAL

Cam is the son of Raymond Phillips and Toeleesar Nicholson. He has two older sisters, a younger sister, and an older brother. He graduated with a degree in Consumer Economics. His father played football at both NC State and the NFL. His brother played football at Livingstone College.

87 WR CAM PHILLIPS

BASEBALL WAS HIS TRUE LOVE

When asked if he could go pro in another sport, without hesitation Phillips stated baseball. What most people don't know about him is if his family didn't move to Maryland when he was 12, he'd most likely still be playing baseball today. Although he grew up playing football and track, he really excelled in baseball. He claims he was naturally gifted in baseball and started playing on a travel baseball team in North Carolina. However because baseball isn't as popular up north, Phillips decided to let baseball go and focus his talents on football.

DEMATHA PRODUCES ATHLETES

Although Cam finished his high school career earning Maryland's State Offensive Player of the Year, his high school is used to producing talent. In 2005 and 2007, DeMatha was recognized as the #2 high school athletic program in the US by Sports Illustrated. Cam was also high school teammates with division rival Patriots LB Ja'Whaun Bentley, and the two are still close to this day. Some notable alumni from DeMatha are: former 2x Pro Bowler Brian Westbrook, 6x NBA All Star Adrian Dantley and 2x NBA All Star Victor Oladipo.

ACQUIRED 2018

Drafted by the Bills in the third round (96th overall) in 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Finished his rookie season in 2018 with 35 tackles, four for a loss, and a fumble recovery.
- Posted a career-high six tackles at NE (12/23/18).
- Registered a fumble recovery at Hou. (10/14/18).
- Recorded four tackles, including two for a loss, in his NFL debut at Bal. (9/9/18).
- Was named to the FWAA All-America second team and the AP All-America third team in 2017.
- Earned first-team All-Pac-12 honors in 2017 after recording 103 tackles, 17.0 tackles for a loss and 7.5 sacks. He was the only defensive lineman in the FBS with over 100 tackles.
- Secured All-Pac-12 honorable mention after his junior season during which he compiled 46 tackles, 9.5 tackles for a loss and 6.5 sacks.
- Had a career high 13 tackles in the 2017 Pac-12 Championship game against USC.
- Was named the 2013 Gatorade Nebraska Football Player of the Year during his senior year of high school.

Buffalo's third round pick in 2018, HARRISON PHILLIPS is an important member of the defensive tackle rotation. Phillips posted 35 tackles as a rookie in 2018, while playing in 38.5% of the team's defensive snaps.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

WRESTLING CHAMPION

A three-time state champion as a wrestler in high school, Phillips worked his way up from wrestling at 189 pounds as a freshman to winning the Class A 285-pound state title as a senior. His experience as a wrestler has helped him in football as well.

"Physically, it helps with my hips, hands, flexibility and violence," Phillips said. "Mentally, it helps with my competitive edge. In football, there are any many players responsible on every play. In wrestling, you can't blame anyone but yourself. I take that same mentality in the weight room, the meeting room and on the field one-on-one."

Last January, Phillips practiced with his high school's wrestling squad in Omaha. "I worked with the heavyweights and it served two purposes. First, I was able to get some good cardio in. But more importantly, I was able to give them pointers on moves that were successful for me."

PERSONAL

Son of Paul and Tammie Phillips. His sister, Delanie, played soccer at Nebraska-Kearney. Earned his degree from Stanford with a double major in sociology and science, technology and society and a minor in education. Besides football and wrestling, also competed in track and finished second in the state in the discus.

PLAYMAKER - ON AND OFF THE FIELD

In college, Phillips spent a considerable amount of time in the community and was one of 11 FBS players named to the 2017 Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. He is a board member of The Playmakers Organization, which is committed to mentoring at-risk minority youth. Phillips has continued his great work in Buffalo. His motivation is simple. "Growing up playing sports, I became close with a lot of inner city kids. Those kids had the same shoes on with holes in them all the time. It wasn't fair. We were not rich by any means, lower middle class, but I was always able to have good equipment."

WHEN HARRY MET PANCHO

Phillips held a special bond with late Bills super fan Ezra Castro, better known as Pancho Billa. Castro, who passed away from cancer on May 14, 2019, was called on stage at the 2018 NFL Draft in Dallas by former Bills Andre Reed and Fred Jackson to announce the selection of the 96th pick, which turned out to be Phillips. The two remained in touch as often as they could during Castro's bout with cancer. "It's just really, really impressive what Ezra's power was in this city and to this organization," reflected Phillips. "I will never forget the spirit and the fight he brought every single day."

OKLAHOMA

ACQUIRED 2018

Claimed off waivers from Miami on October 3, 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Played in the final 12 games of the 2018 season for Buffalo and posted 19 tackles, two for a loss, one fumble recovery and three passes defensed.
- Recovered a fumble vs. Mia. (12/30/18) after a strip sack by Shaq Lawson of Ryan Tannehill.
- Sacked Sam Darnold in win at NYJ (9/16/18) as a member of the Dolphins.
- In his 48 games played in Miami, totaled 63 tackles, 5.5 sacks, 11 passes defensed and one interception.
- Notched his first NFL interception off Ryan Fitzpatrick vs. NYJ (11/7/16) and returned it 17 yards to set up a FG.
- Was All-Big 12 Second Team following his final season ot Oklahoma in 2014.
- In high school, was an All-American in football playing multiple positions, including kicker, and an all-state performer in basketball and baseball as a pitcher. Threw a no-hitter as a freshman in a varsity game.

FIRST-AND-10

Now in his second season in Buffalo, JORDAN PHILLIPS entered the NFL as a 2015 second round draft pick of the Dolphins. He spent his first three-plus seasons in Miami, before being claimed off waivers by the Bills on October 3, 2018. Phillips, a product of Oklahoma, signed a one-year extension with the Bills on March 5, 2019.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

PRO BOWLING

Although he aspires to become a good golfer in the near future, Phillips has already mastered another individual sport - bowling. "I started bowling last season in Wichita, KS, which is the bowling capital of America," recalled Phillips. "I hired a coach and met with him twice per week and got really good. In fact, I once bowled a 299. Once you figure out where to place your feet, the oil patterns and the type of ball you need, it became very easy to me."

SUPERHERO INK

In 2018, Phillips began a collection of tattoos on his left leg that depict many Marvel comic heroes. "I have tattoos of Black Panther, Thor, Captain America's shield, Iron Man, Baby Groot, the Avengers symbol, Hulk and Wolverine." When asked what he most likes to collect, Phillips said, "Marvel comic books, of course."

PERSONAL

Has a son, Malik. Began playing football in the 4th grade for the Wichita Golden Bulldogs, who compiled a 55-2 record during his time with them. Majored in criminology.

PHILLIPS' PHOTO BOMBS

One of Jordan's passions off the field is photography, a hobby he picked up after the birth of his son, Malik. He purchased a Sony a7R III camera with different lenses to capture his son's first months. He has since branched out to shooting many different portraits whenever he is inspired and aspires to shoot a Sabres or a Bandits game one day in Buffalo. "I love showing people I'm serious about it," said Phillips. "I always had a hard time expressing myself in life. This is now a great way for me to do that. Like they say, a picture is worth a 1,000 words." His Instagram account for photos is @betternotblink.

JORDAN'S IMPROBABLE JOURNEY

Phillips' mother, Sherry, passed away in a car accident when he was 2 years old. Growing up in a single-parent home because his father, George, was in prison, Jordan went to live with his grandparents, Willie and Irene. Tragedy struck again when Irene had a stroke and Willie, who was well into his 70s at the time, was unable to care well enough for Jordan. Willie had him move in with Kody and Sheller Kinder at the age of 12. Other families pitched in to help, including Shane and Cindy Waggoner, who ended up legally adopting Jordan at the age of 25 because Jordan wanted his son to have grandparents.

FIRST-AND-10

LAFAYETTE PITTS joined the Bills in 2017 after playing six games with the Jacksonville Jaguars in the same season. Pitts entered the NFL in 2016 as an undrafted free agent with Miami. He spent time on the Dolphins practice squad and active roster before joining the Jaguars on September 3rd, 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

BIG SIS

Similar to plenty of NFL players, Pitts route to playing football began early in his life at the age of four. His first coach though was someone that most wouldn't expect: his older sister. "She didn't give me a choice," said Pitts. "I didn't know if I wanted to play or not and she made me. I'm glad she did."

A PROUD GRAD

When Pitts crossed the stage at the University of Pittsburgh to accept his degree in administration of justice, it was a proud moment for the Pennsylvania graduate. Coming from a huge family of six sisters and five brothers, Pitts was the first one to receive his degree.

GIVING BACK

Pitts traveled with Dolphins teammates Matt Darr and MarQueis Groy to Amalfi, Italy in 2017 with Armed Forces Entertainment. The trio met with troops as a morale booster for those fighting for our country.

PERSONAL

Pitts graduated from the University of Pittsburgh with a degree in administration of justice. He is the son of Marsha Pitts and Cliffton Carley.

Joined the Bills via free agency on March 9, 2017.

SHOUTOUTS

- Finished the 2018 season as the only player in the NFL with at least 95 tackles, one forced fumble, two sacks and four interceptions.
- Poyer is the only player in the NFL with over 190 tackles and at least nine picks since the beginning of the 2017 season.
- Poyer was the only player in the NFL in 2017 with over 95 tackles, two sacks and five interceptions.
- In his first season as a full-time starter, Poyer set a career-high with 95 tackles, 5 interceptions and 13 passes defensed in 2017.
- Poyer was named the 2017 Ed Block Courage Award winner for the Bills after returning from a lacerated kidney and brusied liver he suffered while playing for the Cleveland Browns in 2016..
- Was the first consensus All-America selection at Oregon State since John Didion in 1967.

FIRST-AND-10

JORDAN POYER came to the Bills through free agency in 2017 after previously playing for the Cleveland Browns and the Philadelphia Eagles. The Oregon native originally entered the league when he was drafted in the seventh round of the 2013 NFL Draft by the Eagles.

21 S JORDAN POYER

TAKE ME OUT TO THE BALL GAME

If it wasn't for his love of football, Poyer believes he could be playing baseball in the MLB today. Drafted in the 42nd round of the 2009 MLB Draft by the Marlins following a stellar high school career, Poyer instead chose to play football and pursue baseball at Oregon State. Poyer chose to quit baseball to focus on football while with the Beavers, but the passion never went away. Poyer took part in batting practice with the Buffalo Bisons and threw out the first pitch on May 7, 2018 before their game against the Rochester Red Wings.

SCHOLASTIC SUPERSTAR

Poyer remains a high school legend in his hometown of Astoria, Oregon. He led his school to state titles in both football and baseball on the 4A level. On the gridiron, he was named the 4A Offensive and Defensive Player of the Year as a senior, starring as a quarterback and a safety. On the basketball court, he was named the 2009 Cowapa League Player of the Year and he pitched the baseball team to a state title. In all, Poyer earned 11 varsity letters, which puts him as one of the most decorated athletes in Oregon high school history.

FIRST-AND-10

DENZEL RICE joined the Bills as a member of the team's practice squad in 2018. He originally entered the league as an undrafted free agent with Philadelphia in 2015. He spent the 2016 season with the Houston Texans, before signing to the Colts practice squad in 2017. He was a member of the Cleveland Browns active roster for the first eight games in 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

GIVING BACK TO YOUTH

Denzel Rice has placed an emphasis on giving back to youth in his hometown and hosted his first football camp during the 2018 offseason.

The camp featured Rice working with the kids on fundamental skills, hosting lectures and playing in scrimmages. He was joined by Josh Hawkins, former Green Bay Packer, and several other assistant coaches that Rice looks up to and has worked with throughout his career.

Rice hosted the camp at his former high school. He emphasized to the kids that no matter what you decide to try in life, you should do it to the best of your ability.

Rice has also given back to the community by working with children at the YMCA in Winston-Salem during various offseasons, helping with Hurricane Harvey relief efforts while with the Texans and is a frequent participant in community events in Buffalo.

PERSONAL

Son of Russell Rice and Evette Davenport. Has two younger brothers and two younger sisters. Majored in communications while at Coastal Carolina. Has a daughter named Khloe and a French Bulldog named Nala.

- Named to the 2018 Pro Bowl in addition to being named to the 2018 First-Team All Pro team as a returner after leading the league in kick return yards.
- A valuable special teams returner throughout his career returning 138 punts for 1,254 yards and three touchdowns with 164 kick returns for 4,081 yards and two touchdowns.
- Played in all 16 games in 2018, returning 23 punts for 324 yards and notching career highs with 40 kick returns for 1,174 yards. Added two catches for 79 yards and one touchdown.
- Has recorded two 99-yard touchdown kickoff returns during his career, vs. GB (12/23/18) at Car. (11/22/15).

FIRST-AND-10

ANDRE ROBERTS joins the Bills in 2019 after spending the previous season with the New York Jets. Prior to the Jets, Roberts played for the Atlanta Falcons in 2017, the Detroit Lions in 2016, spent 2014-15 as a member of the Washington Redskins and spent 2010-14 as a member of the Arizona Cardinals. Roberts originally entered the NFL as a third round draft selection (88th overall) by the Arizona Cardinals in the 2010 NFL Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

MILITARY BRAT

Roberts didn't grow up in a standard household. Since his parents were both in the Army, he and his brother were forced to move around frequently. His father was a Command Sergeant major and his mother was a First Sergeant. Roberts was born in Alaska before moving to Texas for four years, and spent a year in the Virgin Islands before landing in South Carolina. He chose to play football at The Citadel, one of six senior military colleges in the U.S., despite being recruited by a number of FCS and smaller FBS schools.

"People who serve in the military sacrifice everything," Roberts said to Atlantafalcons.com. "What most people don't realize is that their families are definitely in the military, too. It's not just that one guy (who's serving). It's their wives, their children back home who make that sacrifice, too."Roberts earned a Salute to Service Award in 2017 for his work with the military.

PERSONAL

The son of Stephen and Dorothy Roberts. Has an older brother. Graduated with a degree in Accounting at The Citadel. Also was an All-State track runner in high school. Andre is married and has one son.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP MENTALITY

Andre's first job was bagging groceries at Kroger, however he was never satisfied and wanted to make more money. He then decided to start selling lemonade and eventually took it the next level. He started buying candy at the grocery story and selling it to classmates, specifically Starburst and Snickers. He claims, "it was hard selling regular M&M's."

Roberts still carries his entrepreneurship today. He currently is a franchise owner of Zaxby's in northern Virginia.

LARRY LEGEND

When asked what player he's learned the most from in the NFL, without hesitation Roberts stated Larry Fitzgerald. Andre and Larry played 4 seasons together (2010-2013) with the Arizona Cardinals. "Larry's my mentor, and my best friend on the team," Roberts said to The Post and Courier. "He's taught me a lot of things about the NFL. On and off the field, he's taught me the way to be a professional, and that's the biggest thing. In the NFL, everybody has skill. But everybody doesn't know how to act off the field and he's helped me out with that a lot."

FIRST-AND-10

DA'MARI SCOTT joined the Bills after a brief stint with the Cleveland Browns. He originally joined the league as an undrafted free agent with Cleveland in May 2018, joining the practice squad before being promoted to the active roster.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

DEAR MAMA

Every football player has a motivation for playing football. If you ask Da'Mari Scott why he plays the game, he'll be quick to say one person, his mother Donna.

Though he grew up in Muskegon, Michigan, he moved to California with his sister so that he could attend a school that excelled in academics and football. Scott stated if it wasn't for his mother, he never would have received the opportunity to get noticed.

After a hot start at Fresno State, Scott's career started to fluctuate. After the 2014 season, he decided to transfer to be closer to his mother, who was back home in Michigan. Days after leaving the program, his mother unexpectedly passed away. After time to grieve, he decided to rejoin the program. Fresno saw a new Scott in the years to come; one who earned an academic award, became an offensive force on the team and embraced a leadership role. After going undrafted, he's looking to prove himself again. "I don't want to ever get complacent or settle," said Scott. "I never want to tell myself 'I made it.'"

PERSONAL

Da'Mari is the son of the late Donna Covington and Darreco Scott. He has three siblings - Dakiya, Dominique and Darreco. While at Fresno State, Scott was an American studies major.

WEST VIRGINIA

ACQUIRED 2019

Signed with the Bills as an UDFA on May 9, 2019.

SHOUTOUTS

- Played the 2015, 2017 and 2018 seasons with West Virginia. He totaled 132 receptions for 2,097 yards and 35 touchdowns during that time period.
- Spent the 2016 season at El Camino College as a quarterback. He completed 127 of 237 passes for 1,636 yards and 15 touchdowns.
- Finalist for the Biletnikoff Award in 2017 and a semifinalist in 2018.
- Was a two-time All-Big 12 First-Team Selection (2017, 2018).
- During the 2018 season, Sills ranked second in the country with 15 touchdowns and totaled 986 yards on 65 receptions. That production was good enough to earn third-team All-American honors from the Associated Press.
- In 2017, Sills recorded 60 receptions for 980 yards and 18 touchdowns. His 18 touchdowns were tied for the most in the country and good enough for second-team Associated Press All-American honors.

FIRST-AND-10

DAVID SILLS enters his first season with the Bills in 2019 after signing with the team as a UDFA out of West Virginia. Sills played in 28 games over three years with the Mountaineers.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A WINDING JOURNEY

Sills was offered a scholarship to USC when he was 13 - but it wasn't for receiver. He grew up playing quarterback and even signed with West Virgnia as a quarterback. After having a tough freshman year, he transferred to El Camino Community College to give the position one last shot.

When his chance never came, West Virginia head coach Dana Holgorsen called and asked Sills if he would play wide receiver. Having taken some snaps at receiver during his freshman year, Holgorsen knew Sills had something special at the position. In the next two years, Sills went on to be one of the most prolific receivers in West Virginia history and keep his NFL dream, just at a new position.

"My story, if you want to say, is nothing I would've pictured," Sills told ESPN. "But I'm having so much fun now. The most fun I've ever had playing football. And I'm not playing quarterback."

PERSONAL

The son of David IV and Denise Sills, Sills has two sisters. He graduated with a degree in Finance from West Virginia. Outside of football, he enjoys golfing. After his playing career concludes, Sills hopes to pursue coaching.

1 WR DAVID SILLS

MULTI-SPORT ATHLETE

Sills did not just excel on the football field growing up, he also had an affinity for wrestling and skim boarding. His skim boarding career showed promise, highlighted by finishing fourth in a competition against a few skim boarders who would eventually turn pro. His wrestling background also has resonated with Coach McDermott. "I think I have a pretty good feel for most of the guys that wrestled even if they just bought wrestling shoes through the years. So I have a pretty good feel for who has and hasn't through the years," said McDermott.

FROM THE 213 TO THE 716

After signing with the Bills following the draft, a picture of Sills and his new teammate QB Matt Barkley began circulating. However Buffalo wouldn't be the first place the tandem had met. After Sills committed to USC, the duo crossed paths during Barkley's time with the Trojans (pictured above).

"I look like skin and bones in that picture," Sills told The Buffalo News. "That was a long time ago. It's kind of ironic we ended up on the same team and he could be throwing balls to me."

- He became the first player in Florida Atlantic history to earn AP All-American honors after he was named to the second team. He led the nation in both rushing touchdowns and points scored.
- Earned Freshman All-American honors from Athlon Sports.

FIRST-AND-10

DEVIN SINGLETARY enters his first season with the Bills in 2019 after being drafted by the team in the third round (74th overall) out of Florida Atlantic.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

LONG LIVE GB

When Singletary first joined the American Heritage high school football team, he was behind Greg Bryant at running back. Bryant was a star, but still took the time to mentor Singletary before Bryant went to Notre Dame to play football.

Sadly, Bryant was shot while driving while home in South Florida and passed away in 2016, a death that turned Singletary's life upside down.

"It was very difficult honestly, because that was my big brother," Singletary said to BuffaloBills.com. "It brought me to tears, but some things are out of our control. He's in a better place now, but it was definitely very difficult."

Singletary puts in extra work knowing that his motivation is not only to prove to himself he can play in the NFL, but to make Bryant proud as well. He prays to Bryant before every game.

"I'll say, 'Alright big bro, play through me today. Be here with me. Just play through me today,' he said. "I know if he was still here, he'd definitely still be balling so I ask him to play through me. That's my prayer."

PERSONAL

The son of Devonn and Sabrina Singletary. He has one brother and one sister. Devin was a Public Safety and Administration major at Florida Atlantic. He plans on owning his own business when he is finished playing football. He loves to fish in his spare time.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

EARN THE NAME

Singletary was known at Florida Atlantic as simply "Motor." He got the nickname from his father, Devonn, who was called it during his playing days at Norfolk State where he also played running back.

"I was 'Little Motor' at first, but as I started playing football I just kind of carried it," Singletary said to the South Florida Sun Sentinel. Florida Atlantic used the nickname in their Heisman campaign for Singletary as they shipped mini race cars with Singletary's #5 on the side to national writers.

RECORD BREAKER

Singletary's time at Florida Atlantic was unlike anything the school had ever seen when it came to production on the football field.

Singletary is the career rushing yards leader for the school with 4,289 yards and he also has the single season record with 1,920 yards. He also holds the school record with 66 career rushing touchdowns, which is good for sixth place on the FBS all-time list.

ACQUIRED 2018

Signed by the Bills on September 25, 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Has appeared in 42 career games in the NFL, while starting in 20 of those appearances.
- Started 5-of-12 games played for the Bills during the 2018 season.
- Started in a career-high 10 games for the Vikings in 2016.
- Worked his way into a starting role from undrafted free agent during his rookie year with the Chargers.
- While at Nebraska, started in 41 games at tackle, while playing in 53.
- Earned 2nd-Team All-Big Ten honors in 2012 by coaches and media.
- Was named to the Outland Trophy Watch List in 2013, annually awarded to the best interior lineman in college football.
- Won Nebraska's Guy Chamberlin Award in 2013, which is voted on by the media and honors a senior player who has the qualities and dedication of the Cornhusker tradition.
- Earned Nebraska's Tom Osborne Citizenship Team award in 2014.

FIRST-AND-10

JEREMIAH SIRLES originally joined the Bills as a free agent in September 2018. Sirles entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Chargers in 2014, before being traded to the Vikings in 2015. He spent the 2015-17 seasons with the Vikings and was signed as a free agent by the Panthers in March of 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

TEAM JACK

Sirles has been actively involved with the organization, Team Jack, throughout his career. Team Jack's mission is to raise money to fund impactful pediatric brain cancer research. Sirles first got involved during his time as a Cornhusker and in 2012, was asked to show Tyson Zimmer and his family around Nebraska's stadium and it was a day that has stuck with him since. Tyson was diagnosed with pediatric brain cancer and was battling for his life.

"My most vivid memory from this afternoon is before we set out for the infamous Tunnel Walk," Sirles said. "I hoisted Tyson up from his wheelchair and helped him touch the Horseshoe. As we stepped onto the field, it took him no time to start playing catch with Taylor Martinez and take handoffs from Rex Burkhead. That afternoon I saw a little boy who was battling a horrible disease acting like any boy his age should."

PERSONAL

The son of Phil and Nora Sirles. Earned his degree in management from Nebraska in 2012. Married his wife, Emma, in 2016.

Sirles routinely streams his Fortnite sessions on Twitch and has even invited teammates such as Josh Allen and Jordan Poyer to play along with him during the streams.

FOR LOVE OF THE GAME

Electing to utilize his offseason in a unique manor, Sirles joined his wife Emma and six other football players & traveled to Italy to help teach football. "It was a missions trip," explained Sirles. "We were going to use football to go out there and share the good news and it was really, really fun and uplifting. Because a lot of these guys just play football for the sheer fact of they want to play. They're not getting paid. There are three Americans on each team – the rest of them are just guys that want to play football and they just love it. They're passionate about it."

- Started his first career NFL game at NYJ (11/27/11) at tight end for the Bills.
- Was a team captain during his final two seasons at Marshall and earned All-Conference USA honors as a senior.

FIRST-AND-10

LEE SMITH joins the Bills in 2019 after spending the previous four seasons with the Oakland Raiders. Prior to the Raiders, Smith spent 2011-14 as a member of the Bills. Smith originally entered the NFL as a fifth round draft selection (159th overall) by the New England Patriots in the 2011 NFL Draft.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Smith has been around the NFL since he was born as the son of the late Daryle Smith who played on the offensive line at the University of Tennessee before spending six years playing the NFL from 1987 to 1992 and then four years in the CFL.

"I've been around football my whole life. I was born in my dad's rookie season and obviously now I have kiddos living this dream," Smith told Raiders.com. "So football has been a big part of my family forever. That's for sure."

Smith is passing on the lessons he learned from knowing his father playing football to his four children that have been able to watch him live out his dream playing in the NFL. "My dad taught me what to expect growing up. He made things so tough on my that everything else seems to come easily."

PERSONAL

Smith and his wife, Alisha, have four children. Earned degrees in psychology and criminal justice while at Marshall. He excelled at both football and basketball during his time at Powell High School.

FROM BUFFALO TO OAKLAND

Smith has been away from Buffalo for four seasons, but has carried one thing with him during that time--the impact of the P.U.N.T. Foundation. Started by former Bills punter Brian Moorman, the foundation offers support for children battling cancer. Smith played a large role in providing that support during his first stint in Buffalo and continued that in Oakland, representing the foundation annually for My Cause, My Cleats and by hosting pediatric cancer patients (shown above with Brylee Cadamy) at the Raiders practice facility.

EMBRACING BEING A MENTOR

Entering his ninth NFL season, Smith has embraced the role of a mentor and passing down everything he has learned. "I've had a lot of great mentors when I was a young player that I kind of tried to stick to," said Smith to Raiders.com in 2017. "I try not to beat them up too bad, or get on them, it's stressful being a young player, but until you get ingrained and kind of find your niche, or your role, and you make the team, and you play a significant amount of time, this time of year is stressful. It's hard on you mentally, and I just try to be there for those guys."

Signed as a free agent by the Bills on April 4, 2019.

SHOUTOUTS

- Started 48 games at guard for the Titans from 2015-18. Started 15 games in 2018.
- Helped pave the way for RB Derrick Henry's franchise record, 238-yard, 4 TD rushing performance vs. Jax. (12/6/18) on Thursday Night Football.
- Started 14 regular season games and two playoff contests in 2017.
- Made his NFL debut vs. Buf. (10/11/15) and his first NFL start vs. Oak. (11/29/15).
- Was one of two rookie free agents to earn a roster spot with Titans in 2015.
- As a senior in 2014, named All-Big 12 first team by ESPN.com.
- In 2013, named honorable mention All-Big 12 Conference.
- Visited Nicaragua with Food for Hungry in the 2018 offseason to raise awareness for the impoverished conditions in that country.
- On July 1, 2017, Petersburg, VA, mayor Sam Parham declared it Quinton Spain Day.

FIRST-AND-10

QUINTON SPAIN signed a one-year deal with the Bills in 2019 after spending the first four seasons of his NFL career (2015-18) with the Titans. He entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent out of West Virginia.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

GIVING BACK

Spain annually returns home to his native Petersburg to host a one-day camp at Petersburg High School. Spain's camp has steadily grown each year, now hosting about 325 kids per camp. "When I was growing up, people didn't come back to help out," Spain said. "I always thought that if I make it, I'm going to come home and give back to my area."

BIG BACK

Began playing football at the age of six for Westview in his hometown of Petersburg, VA. "Believe it or not, I was a running back," said Spain. "I played because I wanted to be like my brother, Calvin Spain, who was a year older than me. I just wanted to be out there with him."

In high school, Spain played left tackle, defensive end and even fullback. "I scored six touchdowns as a senior in high school," said Spain."

PERSONAL

Married to Alexandra. Has a son named Kingston. Son of Tracey Spain and the late Wendell Wilkins. Has two brothers and two sisters. Earned a degree in multidisciplinary studies. Competed in football and basketball in high school.

MR. UNDRAFTED

Highly motivated that he was not selected with one of the 256 picks in the 2015 draft, Spain uses the name Mr. Undrafted as his Twitter handle and @mr.undrafted as his handle on Instagram.

"That's going to motivate me until I'm the last lineman from that draft class still in the league," he told the Buffalo News after signing with the Bills. "When I went to Tennessee, it was a competition every year, coming in undrafted. I've just got to come in here and compete for a starting spot."

YO, ADRIAN

When Spain was 13 years old his father, Wendell Wilkins, passed away. Like any child that loses a parent, Spain struggled to adjust at first. In came Adrian Dance (pictured above on the right), who helped Quinton stay on the right path in school, on the field and in life, in general.

"He was my mentor growing up after my father passed away," said Spain. "He took me under his wing and taught me how to be a man. He tells me what's right and what's wrong and doesn't sugar coat it. It's real talk."

SHOUTOUTS

- Has played in 72 games with 11 starts during his NFL career. Totaled 64 tackles, 4 tackles for loss, one pass defensed, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one sack.
- As an important contributor on special teams, he has accumulated 31 tackles and one fumble recovery in his career.
- Started at MLB vs. Chicago (11/4/18) in place of Tremaine Edmunds (injury), and tallied his first career strip sack. Also recorded a career-high eight tackles.
- Played in all 16 games during both the 2012 and 2017 seasons.
- In 2012 with Jacksonville, became just the second player from Wagner to appear in an NFL game (Rich Kotite 1967-1972).
- Named First-Team All-Northeast Conference as a senior at Wagner.
- After converting from defensive line to linebacker, finished his collegiate career totaling 184 tackles, 16 sacks, 35.5 TFL, 13 passes defensed, two FF, one FR, three interceptions, two which were returned for touchdowns.

FIRST-AND-10

JULIAN STANFORD joined the Bills after playing for the Jaguars (2012), Lions (2013-14) and Jets (2015-17). The Wagner product also spent two weeks on the Buccaneers practice squad in 2015. He originally entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent with the Jaguars.

Stanford still keeps his hometown of Bloomfield, Connecticut on his mind often. During the Bills bye week in 2018, he decided that it was time to give back to the small town. Stanford and his wife Tiffany partnered with Foodshare to provided turkey dinners for 150 families in the community for the second consecutive year.

"It's always a great honor and privilege to have the opportunity to give back to my community. With our donation of 150 turkey's, FoodShare along with the Bloomfield High School Football Team afforded my wife and I a chance to bring a little happiness to some of the senior's and their families for the upcoming holiday. We consider it a Blessing to be able to make even a small difference for families in our community," said Stanford on his Instagram page.

CONTROL WHAT YOU CAN CONTROL

Coming from an FCS school, Standford always knew that his work would be cut out for him to make it to the NFL. Before him, only Rich Kotite made it to the NFL from Wagner. Stanford eventually developed a motto of "believe in yourself regardless of your current situation." It wasn't until his senior year at Wagner where making it to the NFL seemed realistic. Stanford was cut his second year in the league and that's where he felt his mentality really changed. "It made me grind harder. I became complacent and getting cut humbled me."

EYE OF A TIGER

While on vacation in Thailand, he had an opportunity to visit a Tiger exhibit. At this exhibit, the biggest Tiger only comes out once a month to eat. "Leading up to it I was all for it, but when the Tiger came out I started to get nervous. It's just you and five other men in the cage with the Tiger. Although they are professionally trained, you never know what can happen." His experience with the Tiger inspired him to interact with more animals in the future. In fact, he plans on taking a trip to Africa to see animals in their natural habitat.

FIRST-AND-10

TOMMY SWEENEY enters his first season with the Bills in 2019 after being drafted by the team in the seventh round (228th overall) out of Boston College. Sweeney played in 50 games during his four seasons at Boston College.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

EARNING HIS WAY

It was a slow build for Sweeney to make himself in to a legitimate NFL prospect during his time at Boston College.

Sweeney, who was only offered by Boston College coming out of high school, still uses the lack of scholarship offers during his high school days to fuel his competitive fire as he built himself from a non-contributor in his early days at Boston College to making first team All-ACC during his redshirt senior year.

A DRIVE DOWN THE 90

When the 716 area code came up on Sweeney's phone on draft day, it meant having a chance to play close to his family and friends who reside two hours east of Buffalo in Auburn, NY--some of which were already Bills fans.

Sweeney has spent plenty of summers with his Auburn family at Lake Owasco, a place which he calls his favorite vacation spot.

PERSONAL

The son of Annette and Bob Sweeney, his full name is Thomas R. Sweeney. Has one sister, Moriah. Earned a degree in marketing from the Carroll School of Management in May of 2018. Spent time in graduate school with an emphasis on sports administration.

ACQUIRED 2018

Drafted by the Bills in the fifth round in 2018.

SHOUTOUTS

- Earned a starting role at left guard for the final seven games of his rookie season in 2018.
- Started his first career NFL game at NYJ (11/11/18), a 41-10 victory over the Jets.
- Named first-team all-conference by the ACC coaches in 2017 as he allowed only five QB pressures from the left guard position.
- Garnered honorable mention All-ACC honors in 2016.
- Earned the Excalibur award in 2015, which is given to the Virginia Tech player who demonstrates great leadership, effort and attitude in offseason workouts.
- Recruited by Virginia Tech as a defensive end but moved to offensive tackle in the 2014 preseason.
- Named the state's defensive player of the year for the Group AA level as a senior in high school with 120 tackles and 11 sacks.

FIRST-AND-10

Buffalo's fifth round draft pick in 2018, WYATT TELLER earned a starting role at left guard for the final seven games of his rookie season with the Bills. Teller finished his collegiate career at Virginia Tech with 43 starts from 2014-17 and earned All-ACC honors in 2017.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

THE BATTLE WITHIN

Despite being one of the most highly recruited football players coming out of high school and having the full support of his parents and four older siblings, Teller had to overcome ADHD to succeed at Virginia Tech as an all-conference player and graduate to the NFL ranks. His college position coach, Stacey Searles, was one of his best mentors for Teller along that path.

"He was my biggest fan and my biggest critic at the same time," Teller recalled. "He taught me I can't feel sorry for myself and I can't use it as a crutch. It's all about being accountable and learning to deal with it. And I learned it the hard way from Coach Searles and I'm grateful for it."

PERSONAL

Is the son of Richard (a military veteran) and Cheryl (a retired school teacher) and has an older brother, Rhett, and three older sisters, Hope, Faith and Grace. Earned a degree in property management. Full name is William Wyatt Teller. Grew up a fan of the Washington Redskins, Nationals, and Capitals and Virginia Tech football.

SWIM MOVE

Growing up with his mother as his swimming coach, Teller excelled in that sport growing up. He won numerous swim meets and competed on his high school squad. "My best stroke was the back stroke, but I was also good at the butterfly," Teller said.

Teller also used his swimming experience help him in football as well. "You learn to not fight the environment around you and go with the water. It's all about body control, which is important in any sport, especially football. Two four-inch steps are better than one eight-inch step."

TRUTH TELLER

Teller began playing tackle football at the young age of four for the Hornets in Fauquier County, VA. "In my very first practice, I broke a kid's collarbone," recalled Teller. "I was playing linebacker and in my first tackling drill, I speared him with my helmet. I had a lot of energy but not the best technique."

The best advice Teller received growing up was from a youth coach Tommy Buzzo at a football camp at Central Connecticut State. After trying out as a quarterback, Buzzo told him to "go play offensive line."

FIRST-AND-10

ROBERT THOMAS enters his third season and second with the Bills in 2019. After joining the NFL in 2014 as an undrafted free agent with the Washington Redskins, Thomas spent time on the practice squad and active roster of the Redskins. He then spent time on the practice squads of the Seattle Seahawks and New England Patriots before being signed by the Miami Dolphins in 2015. After appearing in one game with the Dolphins, spent time with the Carolina Panthers before signing on with the New York Giants in 2016.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

NUMBER 98

In 2013 during his senior season at Arkansas, Thomas was coming into his own. Heading into a mid-season match-up versus South Carolina, Thomas ranked third on the team with six tackles for loss, 3.5 of which were sacks.

A team captain, Thomas donned the number 98 while with the Razorbacks. However in a brutal blow, he suffered a broken bone in his leg against the Gamecocks.

Recognizing how much Thomas meant to his squad, former Arkansas head coach Brett Bielema decided to find a silver lining to the injury and allow a different player each week to honor Thomas by wearing his #98.

"That was a blessing," Thomas said at the time. "I never thought anything like that would ever happen to me around here."

PERSONAL

The son of Roslynn Thomas, Robert majored in sociology at Arkansas. He is married and has a son.

- Saw time at both linebacker and safety at LSU.
- Posted a career-high 8 total tackles for LSU against Alabama in 2013.

FIRST-AND-10

COREY THOMPSON signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent out of LSU following the 2018 NFL Draft. The linebacker played for the Tigers from 2012-17. He was promoted to the 53-man roster on November 19, 2018.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

POISED TO SUCCEED

Thompson's path to the NFL is a bit of a unique one, as he had to overcome numerous injuries during his time at LSU. As a result, he spent six years on campus with the Tigers.

Thompson used the time wisely, graduating with a degree in sports administration and then pursuing a masters degree in liberal arts.

Thompson not only spent his time achieving a lot in the classroom, but has developed a solid plan for his life after football. His career goal? To be a real estate developer.

In hopes of improving housing in poverty stricken areas, he is passionate about taking buildings that are already standing and refurbishing them, rather than building something new.

PERSONAL

The son of Shante and Tony Thompson and Dyan Webber. Corey's dad, Tony, played wide receiver at Texas A&M from 1985-87 and spent time with the Green Bay Packers. His mom, Dyan Webber, was a standout on the track at both the collegiate and international levels. Graduated from LSU with bachelor's degree in sports administration.

52 LB COREY THOMPSON

ATHLETIC FAMILY

Thompson is not the only member of his family with athletic success. Both of his parents were great athletes in their respective sports. His dad, Tony, was a wide receiver for Texas A&M and the Packers. His mom, Dylan Webber, ran track at Texas Southern and was an All American in 1989. She also represented the U.S. at the World Indoor Championships in 1993.

Thompson's sister, Ariele, runs track for Houston.

HELPFUL MENTORS

Corey Thompson values the importance of mentors - he looks up to his parents, Bills' LB Julian Stanford and lifelong mentor Aaron Glenn. Glenn was a cornerback for the Saints for 15 seasons and is now a defensive backs coach for the team.

Glenn was Thompson's AAU coach growing up and has taken an active role in Thompson's life. He helped Thompson with his training leading up to the NFL draft in 2018 and Thompson has remained close with both Glenn and his son.

- Registered his first collegiate touchdown - a 12-yard grab from Kyle Bolin - vs. Syracuse (11/7/15) along with 3 catches and 53 yards.
- Helped lead Toledo Central Catholic to a 16-12 victory over Trotwood-Madison in 2012 OHSAA DII State Championship game with five tackles and a sack and one catch for 10 yards.

FIRST-AND-10

KEITH TOWBRIDGE is back in Buffalo after being claimed off waivers from Tennessee on June 14, 2019. He signed with the Titans after a stint with the AAF's Atlanta Legends in 2019. A product of Louisville, Towbridge originally signed with the Bills as an undrafted free agent in 2017 and spent his rookie season on injured reserve and the 2018 campaign on the Bills practice squad.

FAMILY FIRST

In December 2016, Towbridge received his degree in communications from the University of Louisville and officially became the first person in his family to graduate from college. His number one source of motivation is his mother, Felesha, who is a nurse working with mentally disabled patients. "My mom gets up everyday the same time I do and does her job from 6-3:30 and then again from 6-11 pm," said Towbridge. His father, Brian, is a counselor for drug addicts at the Zepf Center in Toledo. "My parents have really good hearts."

Today, Towbridge spends some of his free time walking in his parent's footsteps as he enjoys working in the community with those suffering from disabilities.

PERSONAL

Parents are Felesha and Brian Towbridge. Has a brother, Brian, and sister, Kennesha. Has two pit bulls, Tyson and Harley. Earned his degree in communications. Competed in football and basketball in high school. Played both tight end and defensive end in football and earned honorable mention all-state honors in basketball. Began playing football at the age of seven for the Pop Warner Steelers in Toledo.

A CARDINAL SIGN

Coming out of Toledo Central Catholic, Towbridge made his first recruiting visit to Louisville and then-head coach Charlie Strong. The coach left a strong impression on him and his mother. "He really emphasized how he wanted me to grow as a player and as a man. It was impressive," remembered Towbridge. With other visits still lined up, Towbridge made the decision to attend Louisville after a cardinal happened to land on his front porch while he and his mother were discussing that subject. "We laughed about it at the time and we both slept on it. Then I committed to Louisville the next day."

HUMBLING EXPERIENCE

In 2019, Towbridge signed with the Atlanta Legends of the Alliance of American Football. He gained a greater perspective during his time in that league. "It sure was a humbling experience to be out of the NFL. It put things in perspective. I just wanted to take advantage of any rep I could get at that point. But it was tough. We had four offensive coordinators in three months. Our training room was in a hotel room. The hotel WAS our facility. We practiced at a local high school. There were no practice rules with length and pads and all that. It made me appreciate everything the NFL has to offer to players."

- Started 38 consecutive games to finish his collegiate career as a Red Raider.
- Returned to Texas Tech during the 2015 offseason to finish his degree in university studies.

FIRST-AND-10

LaADRIAN WADDLE entered the NFL as an undrafted free agent in 2013 with the Detroit Lions. He spent 2013-15 with Detroit before joining New England in 2015.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

A PLAYER COACH

A 6-6, 315-pound senior, Waddle literally towered over his peers in high school. His physical stature wasn't all that impressed though, he was so well-versed in the game of football his high school coach, Brent Mascheck, decided to send play calls directly into Waddle.

"Well, I looked at him and said, 'why don't you start taking care of the huddle a little bit?' Everybody respected him," Mascheck told Telegram.com. "He did. He took control of the huddle. We'd be signaling the formation, he would call the formation for the quarterback so the quarterback would not get overwhelmed."

Mascheck even dubbed Waddle his co-offensive coordinator for the season as Waddle's leadership spread to the entire offense, with him know what every position was responsible for on each play.

PERSONAL

Son of Christopher Waddle and Christine Coleman. Majored in university studies at Texas Tech. Married to Shelby Waddle. In high school, Waddle also participated in basketball and track and field. He lists his mother as his biggest influence towards his life and his career due to her hard work ethic.

SHOUTOUTS

- Finished his rugby career with the Wasps ranking third in the Premiership's all-time try scorers list having scored 82 tries in 130 matches.
- Represented England at the U16, U18 and U20 levels in rugby.
- Represented the England senior rugby team in 2013 and went on to join the British & Irish Lions tour of Australia.
- After the 2012-13 season, Wade was named both the Players' Player of the Year and the Young Player of the Year after tying for the league lead with 13 tries.
- One of four players to join the NFL through the International Player Pathway program in 2018. The others are Australian FB Valentine Holmes with the New York Jets, Brazilian DT Durval Neto with the Miami Dolphins and German TE Jakob Johnson with the New England Patriots.
- Attended Super Bowl LIII and NFL Honors with the NFL UK to drive awareness of the growth of American Football in the UK.

FIRST-AND-10

CHRISTIAN WADE is in his first season as a Bill after joining the team as part of the International Player Pathway program. The England native spent his professional rugby career as a member of the Wasps Rugby Football Club.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

NEW TO THE GAME

As an athlete, Wade has always sought to push himself to the limit and try to accomplish everything he could.

With that in mind, Wade made the decision to retire from rugby in 2018 and focus on attempting to break in to the NFL as a running back.

"I want to look back when I'm 60 and tell my kids and my family, 'Yeah, I had the opportunity to do that and I did it,'" Wade told The Athletic. "I don't just want to say, 'I could have done that.'

Wade moved to Florida to train at IMG Academy under former NFL running back Earnest Byner in order to begin to understand the intricacies that come along with football.

"I know I have the attributes and skills to play, but there's so much more to this game than just attributes. So many people with probably better ability than me, or maybe more ability than some Hall of Famers, didn't make it, whether their mind wasn't right or they couldn't learn at the right speed."

If athletics hadn't worked out for Christian, he claims that he would have pursued playing the drums professionally as well. The brothers are so close that they even have a shared Instagram account (@officialwadebrothers).

PROSTATE CANCER AWARENESS

During his time playing rugby for Wasps RFC, Wade used his status to help raise awareness about prostate cancer across the UK. After learning that David Kurk, the match day host at Wasps and a former referee, was diagnosed, Christian did more research and decided to try to make an impact.

"With prostate cancer, I know that sometimes you wouldn't know that it's there, and even if you don't have any kind of symptoms or fears, you should go and get it checked," Wade said to Prostate Cancer UK. "The stats are pretty alarming."

- Finished rookie season in 2018 with 37 tackles, 3 passes defensed in 7 games (all starts).
- Notched a career-high 8 tackles at NE (12/23/18).
- Made his NFL debut in a starting role at cornerback in win at NYJ (11/11/18).
- Named Second Team All-SEC by the Associated Press in 2017 after leading the conference with 18 passes defensed. Also amassed 48 tackles, 3 interceptions and 2 sacks for the National Champions.
- Posted a career-high 2 sacks vs. Tennessee (10/21/17).
- Earned SEC defensive player of the week honors with 2 interceptions vs. Ole Miss (9/30/17), including a 35-yard interception return for a touchdown.
- Made his first collegiate start vs. Fresno State (9/9/17).

FIRST-AND-10

A former walk-on at Alabama, LEVI WALLACE not only earned a scholarship with the Crimson Tide but also a starting role on their National Championship squad in 2017. He was signed as a rookie free agent by the Bills in 2018, signed from the practice squad on November 6 and started the final 7 games of the season.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

SPECIAL BOND

Wallace didn't have much choice for his rooting interest in college football growing up. His father, Walter, a 21-year veteran of the United States Air Force and Tuscaloosa, Alabama native, was passionate about Crimson Tide football.

Without a scholarship in hand, he attended the University of Alabama and tried out for the football team, a daunting task. "I almost quit a few times," recalled Wallace.

Finally, in 2016, he earned a scholarship. However, on the eve of the spring game that year, his father passed away after a bout with ALS and never got to see his son fulfill his dream of playing at Alabama.

One year later, walking off the field as National Champions after defeating Georgia, Wallace found his mother in the stands. They both pointed up to the sky in honor of Walter. "I know he's proud of me."

PERSONAL

The son of Wendy and the late Walter Wallace, he has a younger brother, Lawrence, who studies accounting at Alabama. Levi earned his degree in business with a sales certification. Hobbies include bowling, movies and roller skating.

39 CB LEVI WALLACE

MEANING OF JERSEY NUMBER 39

In 2019, Wallace changed his jersey number from #47 to his old college number #39 to honor his best friend and former high school teammate DeAntae Fuller (pictured bottom left above), who was tragically killed in Tucson while Levi was attending Alabama. "My favorite number growing up was #32," said Wallace. "DeAntae wore #8. So it's 32+8-1=39." Levi is regularly in touch with Fuller's family and his mother, Patricia Fuller, even attended a Bills game during Wallace's rookie season in 2018. "His family is my family," said Wallace.

FROM WALK ON TO NFL STARTER

Not many college players that walk on end up on a NFL roster, let alone in the starting lineup of a NFL team as a rookie. Wallace did just that in 2018. He recounted, "When I first got [to Alabama], there were a lot of guys saying. 'Levi, you're really good. I don't know if you really want to be here. There's a lot of guys here. You can go walk on somewhere else. You can start somewhere else.' But my dad [pictured with Levi above] loved the school, I'm not a quitter -- he instilled that in me -- so just working my way up in that aspect made me the man I am."

MOTHERLY LOVE

Walton made it to the NFL despite having only one college (Central Michigan) offer him a scholarship. "Growing up from where I came from, no one makes it anywhere," recalled Walton. "I was the first person from my high school to make it to a Division I college and to play in the NFL."

The first person Walton credits for his path in life is his mother, Sandra. "She worked her ass off and showed me the way. She worked for Chrysler on the assembly line for many years and still does. Heck, she's probably working right now as we speak. It taught me that the amount of work you put in to something is what you are going to get out of it. She's a special lady."

PERSONAL

He and his fiancée, Alejandra, have a son named Amari. He is the son of Sandra Walton. Has two sisters, Salindra and Terika. Has three pit bulls named Fendi, Zilla and Kilo. Competed in football, basketball and baseball in high school. Earned all-state honors in football and baseball. In fact, was the defensive player of the year in baseball as a 275-pound shortstop. Earned a degree in sport management. Full name is Leterrius Deon Walton.

FIRST-AND-10

DE'ONDRE WESLEY was signed to the Bills after a stint with the Indianapolis Colts. Prior to entering the NFL, Wesley played two seasons at junior institution Diablo Valley College before transferring to BYU for his final two collegiate seasons.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FROM JUNIOR COLLEGE TO THE NFL

Some roads to the NFL aren't as straightforward as others. For De'Ondre Wesley, he had to fight to make each step of his road count.

After completing two years at Diablo Valley College, a junior college, Wesley found himself unsure of where to go for the next part of his process. After contemplating a few different offers, Wesley commited to BYU. It was hard to adapt for the California native.

"I've never been away from my family this long. It's hard to adapt here. I know when I first got here those first couple of months were hard," Wesley told the Desert News at the time.

He found success as a senior in 2014 as part of an offensive front that helped average 181 yards rushing, 278 passing, and over 37 points per game.

PERSONAL

De'Ondre was born on July 28, 1992 in Antioch, California. He is married to his wife, Jordan. While at BYU, De'Ondre majored in Broadcast Journalism. De'Ondre also played baseball in high school. His nickname is Dre.

LOUISIANA STATE

ACQUIRED 2017

Drafted by the Bills in the first round (27th overall) of the 2017 NFL Draft.

SHOUTOUTS

- Finished the 2018 season with two interceptions.
- Opposing QBs only had an 88.7 passer rating against White in 2018 according to Next Gen Stats.
- White finished 2017 as one of two players in the NFL with 2+ fumble recoveries, 18+ passes defensed and 4+ interceptions.
- White led all rookies in passes defensed in the 2017 season (18), along with Marshon Lattimore (18).
- White has come away with two game-sealing interceptions - one against Kansas City and one against Miami, both in 2017.
- White returned a fumble for a touchdown at Atl. (10/1/17), becoming the first rookie to score a defensive touchdown for the Bills since Nickell Robey-Coleman returned an interception in 2013.
- White was responsible for 5 fourth-quarter turnovers (4INTs & 1FF/FR) in 2017 - tied for the most in the NFL.

FIRST-AND-10

TRE'DAVIOUS WHITE enters his third season with the Buffalo Bills after being selected in the first round of the 2017 draft out of LSU. Through his first two seasons in Buffalo, White has logged 123 tackles, 6 interceptions, 1 forced fumble and 2 fumble recoveries.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

HOMETOWN HERO

White was born and raised in Shreveport, Louisiana on a street known as Cooper Road. The street is known for gangs and violence and those who are from there will tell you that the biggest challenge is finding a path away from the violence.

White however, was determined to make a name for himself and set an example for those looking for a role model in Shreveport. He was his high school valedictorian and earned a scholarship to LSU. Now a starting cornerback in the NFL, he continues to follow through on his promise to give back to the community.

During the 2018 offseason, White returned to host the town's first free football camp. During the 2017 season, he handed out new Adidas shoes to school children who were nominated by his alma mater's faculty and gave out gifts during the holidays.

PERSONAL

Born January 16, 1995 in Shreveport, Louisiana, Tre'Davious is the son of David White and LaShawnita Ruffins. White has a son, Tre'Davious White Jr., born in April of 2017. He graduated from LSU with a degree in Sports Administration.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

NUMBER CHANGE

During White's freshman and sophomore seasons at LSU, he wore #16, before switching to #18 for his junior and senior seasons. The number change didn't just happen, it was one he had to earn.

18 at LSU has traditionally gone to a player who has success both on and off the field, along with having a selfless attitude. White was voted on by his teammates to wear the number for his final two seasons as a Tiger.

FAMILY MAN

Tre'Davious and his girlfriend, Ikea, celebrated the birth of their son, Tre'Davious Jr., just days after the cornerback was drafted to the Bills in late April of 2017. The couple is expecting their second son in September 2019.

In the 2018 offseason, Tre'Davious bought his mother, LaShawnita Ruffins, a house for all the sacrifices she made for him and his siblings while growing up. The house is in the family's hometown in Louisiana.

- Named a 2018 CFL All-Star.
- In 2018, had a season-high 172 yards and a touchdown against Grey Cup Champions, Calgary (9/8/18).
- In his first season in the CFL in 2017, Williams caught 46 passes for 715 yards and four touchdowns.
- Williams was named a Shaw CFL Top Performer of the Month for June and July for his performances during the 2018 season.
- In 31 games in the CFL, Williams recorded 134 receptions for 2,294 yards and 15 touchdowns.
- Was rated the No. 1 junior college prospect while at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College after totaling 118 receptions for 2,028 yards and 26 touchdowns before transferring to Auburn.
- Earned first team all-state honors in high school and recorded 1,495 yards and 25 touchdowns while a senior.

FIRST-AND-10

D'HAQUILLE (DUKE) WILLIAMS joined the Bills on January 7, 2019 by signing a reserve/future contract. Prior to signing with the Bills, Williams spent two seasons with the Edmonton Eskimos in the CFL. He also spent 2016 training camp with the St. Louis Rams. Prior to beginning his professional career, he played at Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College from 2012-13 and Auburn in 2015.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

FAMILY MATTERS

Williams grew up in Louisiana and California in a large family. He is the youngest of eight kids, with the oldest being 17 years older than him. Despite the age difference, he is extremely close with his family.

With all nine children in a single household, sometimes times were tough and Williams had to work to stay on a straight path. When asked what the biggest obstacle he had to over come in his lifetime, he said his childhood.

"Not many people would make it out from where I came from," Williams said. "I had to overcome a lot."

Despite outside influences, Williams is pursuing his NFL dream, but remembers his background to remain grounded. He is inspired by his mother, Jamie, who makes sure he understands his wrongs and continues to motivate him.

PERSONAL

The son of Jamie and Edward Williams, Duke is one of 8 children. He earned a junior college degree in Kinesiology and hopes to finish his Bachelor's degree in his spare time.

- Wyoming's all-time leader in tackles for loss with 39, and carved out 256 total career tackles for the Cowboys.

FIRST-AND-10

EDDIE YARBROUGH signed with the Bills as a reserve/future signing in 2017 after a stint with the Denver Broncos. Yarbrough spent his collegiate years at Wyoming before signing as an undrafted free agent with the Broncos in 2016.

IF YOU HAVEN'T 'HERD'

GIVING BACK

Yarbrough has a passion for helping others and helped start a Special Olympics Unified Sports program at Grandview High School during his time as a student there. He worked with Grandview's principal at the time, Kurt Wollenweber, to promote inclusion through the sport.

The program brings students with and without intellectual disabilities together to play on the same team. Grandview's Unified Sports program has gained national attention through the Unified Hoops team, which is the largest and most diverse Unified team in the country with more than 60 people involved, both special needs and able-bodied. Yarbrough says one of his favorite memories is cheering for them.

Eddie participated in the My Cause, My Cleats initiative, representing and shedding light on the foundation he cares so much about and he decided to let the kids of Grandview High School design his cleats for him.

PERSONAL

Born on April 24, 1993, the Aurora, Colorado native is the son of Dana and Eddie Yarbrough and has two older sisters. Yarbrough graduated from Wyoming with a degree in communications and a minor in business.

MAN OF MANY TALENTS

Though he's known for his work on the field, Eddie Yarbrough has a unique talent that he is also known for. While he was a freshman at Wyoming, Yarbough learned to play ukulele from his friend, Siaosi Hala'api'api, who was born in Hawaii. A natural, Eddie began strumming away, learning new songs to play for his teammates.

Active on social media, Yarbrough has posted videos of him playing on YouTube and Twitter, displaying his skill.

LIFE BEYOND FOOTBALL

"I got a degree from the University of Wyoming in Communications, and I always knew from a young age that I wanted to get into broadcasting and journalism," said Yarbrough.

Versatile by nature, Yarbrough was on the broadcasting team in 2016 for the Arizona Bowl between Air Force and South Alabama. Yarbough hopes that when his time comes to leave the game, he'll be ready to tackle the world of broadcasting.

- In 2018, became the first Jaguars running back to score at least three receiving touchdowns in a season since Maurice-Jones Drew in 2011.
- During his rookie season in 2015, he ran for 740 yards, which at the time was the most by a Jaguars rookie in a single season since Maurice-Jones Drew in 2006.
- While at Alabama, appeared in 39 games with 21 starts and finished fourth in school history with 3,222 career rushing yards and third with 37 career rushing touchdowns.
- Became the fifth player in Alabama history to rush for 1,000+ yards in multiple seasons.

FIRST-AND-10

T.J. YELDON joins the Bills after spending the first four seasons of his career with the Jacksonville Jaguars. Yeldon originally entered the NFL as a second round pick (36th overall) out of Alabama with the Jaguars in 2015.

SILENT ASSASSIN

Some people talk the talk in order to walk the walk. Yeldon however just walks the walk.

Although Yeldon has become a successful NFL player, he rarely talks about his success. Instead he likes to let his on-field performance speak for itself.

"There are some guys that enjoy grabbing the mic and talking and some guys would rather get dressed and go to practice and talk to his teammates," Daphne Head Coach Glenn Vickery told Al.com. "And that's how T.J.'s always been when I've been around."

Bart Sessions, an assistant coach at Daphne, agrees that Yeldon lets his actions speak for him. "To be honest, I wish more guys that are as talented as him would behave the way he does. You're not going to see him hot dogging and showing out, showboating. That's not his nature. He's a humble young man with great parents. They raised him to go work hard and do your best and the kid's made a career out of it and really about to make a serious career out of it, I believe."

PERSONAL

The son of Kim and Timothy Yeldon. He has a brother, Brandon and a sister, Tamika. He is cousins with former NFL quarterback, Pat White.

GAME WINNING TOUCHDOWN

The one game that Yeldon will never forget is against LSU his freshman year (11/3/12). After trailing 17-14 with 1:00 left in the 4th quarter, Alabama's back-to-back championship chances were slipping away. Yeldon then made the biggest play of game by scoring a 28-yard screen pass. The touchdown would put Alabama up 21-17 and LSU wouldn't be able to recover. Yeldon finished the game with 11 rushing attempts for 76 yards and one reception for a 28 yard touchdown.

GIVING BACK TO THE LESS FORTUNATE

Growing up in Alabama, Yeldon attended the Boys and Girls Club. Yeldon doesn't forget where he came from and upon entering the NFL holds back to school giveaways to the same Boys and Girls Club he attended as a youth. He gives away school supplies, book-bags and food for families in need. In addition to his giveaway, he also participated in My Cause, My cleats last season and dedicated his cause to Boys and Girls. He stated they had a big impact on his life.

BUFFALO BILLS WALL OF FAME

The Buffalo Bills Wall of Fame was created in 1980 to honor former players, administrators and coaches who have played significant roles in the team's history. To be eligible for induction, an individual must have played with the Bills for at least three years and be retired from professional football. Also eligible are other individuals who have made outstanding contributions to the Bills, including administrators and coaches. Selections are made by a distinguished panel composed of club personnel and media members.

Ralph C. Wilson Jr. Statue

The Buffalo Bills announced in March 2015 that the organization would commission a statue to be made of Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. The statue is displayed outside of New Era Field in Founder's Plaza.

Ralph C. Wilson, Jr. passed away at the age of 95. Mr. Wilson was the sole owner of the Bills franchise for 54 seasons after purchasing the team on October 28, 1959. Under his leadership, the Bills won two American Football League Championships in 1964 and 1965 and appeared in an unprecedented four consecutive Super Bowls in the 1990s. Mr. Wilson along with former Bills Head Coach Marv Levy, former General Manager Bill Polian plus eight of his players have earned football's highest honor by being inducted into the Professional Football Hall of Fame.

The construction of the statue was a collaborative effort between Terry and Kim Pegula and Mary Wilson. Founder's Plaza, the current location of the statue, is located northwest of The Bills Store at New Era Field.

Mr. Wilson's statue is the first statue in history to be displayed on the grounds of New Era Field. The life-size statue is based on a photo taken of Mr. Wilson with Thurman Thomas along the sidelines on October 21, 1990 during Buffalo's 30-27 victory over the New York Jets.

BILLS IN THE COMMUNITY

PUTTING THE COMMUNITY FIRST

The Buffalo Bills organization is committed to improving the quality of life in Western New York through community outreach and charitable investment with a focus in the areas of health & safety, youth football and military appreciation. With the platform that the Bills players and coaches are given, they've always made it a point to make an impact in the Western New York community and that is no different during the 2019 season and offseason.

2018 SEASON

POLICE RIDE-ALONG

This year, on the 11th anniversary of Sept. 11, the Buffalo Bills paid special visits to the Buffalo Police and Buffalo Fire Departments. Lorenzo Alexander, Micah Hyde, Dion Dawkins and Reid Ferguson, spent time with local police officers. The group participated in police ride-alongs, where they were able to get to know members of the Buffalo Police Department's Neighborhood Engagement Team. Kicking off at the Belle Center, the Bills were met by Mayor Byron Brown for a short presentation before the ride-alongs began. As they made their way around town, the Bills stopped at local youth football practices where they shared words of advice with the aspiring athletes.

FIREHOUSE VISIT

In commemoration of September 11, a day that changed our nation's history forever, Bills players made a trip to a local firehouse to spend time with a group of Western New York's heroes. Bills veteran linebacker Jerry Hughes, tight end Jason Croom, running back Taiwan Jones, punter Corey Bojorquez and guard Vlad Ducasse, joined more than 20 firefighters at Buffalo Fire Department Engine 31 for an evening of remembrance and celebration. To show their gratitude, the Bills served the firefighters dinner, took the time to get to know them and listened to their stories.

WALTER PAYTON MAN OF THE YEAR

For his incredible contributions on and off the field, Lorenzo Alexander is the Buffalo Bills 2018 Walter Payton Man of the Year nominee.

Since his youth, Lorenzo's dream was bigger than just becoming an NFL player – he wanted to make a change in this world. Throughout his 14-year career, he's seen all sides of the sport, never wavered from the side of giving back, and consistently used his platform to make a positive impact.

Alexander has been "walking the walk" throughout his entire NFL career. His consistent commitment to the city he plays for has earned him the Walter Payton Man of the Year nomination four separate times. In 2010 and 2011 he was nominated by the Washington Redskins, and in 2017 and 2018 by the Buffalo Bills. In 2016, he was the recipient of the Athletes in Action Call to Courage Award, and was the Bills nominee for the Bart Starr Award. He has been an Ambassador for the American Diabetes Association for almost a decade, often visits youth church groups for motivational lectures, supports the Beta Omega Social Services Scholarship, and the Super Baskets of Hope program.

He has supported each of the community relations departments that he has played for and has always made a point of encouraging his teammates to do the same. Through his ACES Foundation, he's invested time and resources where need is most heavily felt and implemented collaborative programs to help at-risk youth realize their value and potential.

"Lorenzo is a class act," said Bills head coach Sean McDermott. "He has an interesting story because he's been at a few different teams and he's experienced a lot of different things over the course of his career, so he's built up a lot of wisdom and perspective which I think has helped make him as a man who he is."

"He is a tremendous leader and a guy that we count on a great deal to make a difference for our football team, both on and off the field," said Bills defensive coordinator Leslie Frazier. "A guy that everyone looks to for leadership and he comes through for us with his playmaking ability and then what he does in the community as well."

THANKSGIVING EVENTS

Each Thanksgiving, Buffalo Bills players and staff members team up with the Food Bank of Western New York to provide Thanksgiving meals to families in the community. The Buffalo Bills players and coaches raised enough to provide over 600 meals this year.

On Monday of Thanksgiving week, Kyle Williams, Dion Dawkins, John Miller, Keith Towbridge, Patrick DiMarco, Jason Croom, Vladimir Ducasse, Deon Lacey and Jordan Mills helped pack totes with everything included in a Thanksgiving dinner. On Tuesday, Buffalo Bills staff and alumni spent the day passing out totes to the selected families.

In addition to the team Thanksgiving Blitz, several players hosted their own Thanksgiving events to give back to the community.

S Micah Hyde hosted a Thanksgiving dinner at New Era Field for youth from the United Way of Buffalo and Erie County. LB Lorenzo Alexander treated football players from South Park High School to a night at the famous musical "Hamilton." FB Patrick DiMarco and his family served Thanksgiving dinner at the Matt Urban Hope House. G John Miller gave away Thanksgiving meals to residents at the Northwest Buffalo Community Center, and T Jordan Mills hosted a Thanksgiving dinner over the bye week in his hometown in Louisiana. Finally, LB Julian Stanford opted to donate 150 turkeys to residents in his hometown of Bloomfield, CT.

2019 OFFSEASON

Bills Head Coach Sean McDermott and his wife Jamie found time to visit the Women & Children's Hospital of Buffalo this offseason. They introduced themselves to dozens of families and made longlasting memories. "It was awesome," said Coach McDermott. "It's funny, I get more out of this than I give. But just great to see the looks on the children's faces and to shed some joy on an adverse situation for some families."

COACHES DAYS OUT

Several Buffalo Bills coaches served a special lunch at the Buffalo City Mission. "For us to be doing this, to be in the community and to see the joy in their faces when they see us serving them, that fills my heart with joy," stated defensive coordinator Leslie Frazier. "Just to be able to serve and see the response we get from them."

Several members of the Buffalo Bills coaching staff lent a helping hand to the community through Habitat for Humanity Buffalo. Habitat for Humanity is a non-profit organization that helps place families in affordable housing in the Western New York Community and around the world. Housing insecurity is something that touches about half of adults at some point in their life and the Bills were grateful they could make a difference on such a pressing issue. The group played a hands-on role in the construction of an affordable housing project. Everyone had a great time, while supporting a great cause.

HOLIDAY EVENTS

Several Buffalo Bills players got into the holiday spirit by hosting or attending events celebrating the holidays and helping the less fortunate. Micah Hyde's IMagINe for Youth Foundation hosted an event where they donated 250 Nikes to children from the Boys and Girls Club of Buffalo. Jordan Poyer took kids from Camp Good Days on a Target shopping spree, LeSean McCoy hosted a Christmas for Kids event at the Buffalo YMCA, John Miller made a hospital visit, Lorenzo Alexander adopted families for the holiday and Tre'Davious White hosted a holiday giveaway.

COMMUNITY TUESDAY

The Buffalo Bills spent October 16th getting out in the community at four different locations throughout the city in conjunction with the team's Social Justice Initiative. Over 20 players participated in the community Tuesday. The first stop of the day was at the Belle Center, where players participated in after-school activities with young students including gym programs, arts & crafts, computer lab, a Girls Club for girls in 6th – 8th grade and Soccer for Success.

Bills veteran running back LeSean McCoy joined in on the action at the Boys & Girls Club Butler-Mitchell Clubhouse in the city of Buffalo. Alongside his teammates such as Shaq Lawson, Harrison Phillips, Hunter Sharp and Deon Lacey, McCoy spent time playing NFL Flag football with the youth at the center. Reflecting on his afternoon, McCoy shared a heartwarming message on his Instagram.

"Me and a few teammates surprised the kids at the boys and girls club... seeing the kids' reactions and excitement felt amazing ... impacting the youth and our futures generation ... I honestly can say we enjoyed it just as much as they did," said McCoy.

The event featured a number of activities that included NFL Flag Football, dinner, arts & crafts, educational activities, and free play.

COMMUNITY TUESDAY

Following the Boys and Girls Club, the Bills moved to the Matt Urban Hope Center where Patrick DiMarco, Eddie Yarbrough, Keith Towbridge and Jerry Hughes participated in after-school activities including canvas painting, basketball shooting contest, and a slime station with approximately 70 children ages 6-13 years old.

Lastly Taiwan Jones, Stephen Hauschka, Dion Dawkins, Conor McDermott, Nathan Peterman and Jordan Poyer made their way to the Delavan-Grider Community Center to work with the Police Athletic League. The players worked with inner city boys (ages 8-18) on basketball drills and life skills as part of their Game Changers program with the Buffalo Police Athletic League.

BILLS HUDDLE FOR 100

Bills Staff Volunteer Day is an annual tradition that brings the organization together to serve the local community and its residents. While each year the outing is filled with excitement and hope, this year proved truly special. Held at Delaware Park, the event marked the launch of the Bills #BillsHuddleFor100 campaign – an extension of the NFL's Huddle for 100, which encourages fans around the country to volunteer for 100 minutes. The Bills got started with the initiative by donating their time to help clean up the historic park. Not only did Buffalo have support from Bills Owner and President Kim Pegula, General Manager Brandon Beane and Head Coach Sean McDermott, Mayor Byron Brown was also in attendance.

HONOR FLIGHT

Thanks to generous charitable contributions from M&T Bank and the Buffalo Bills Foundation, 60 local veterans boarded a special Buffalo Niagara Honor Flight headed to Washington, D.C. on Saturday, May 4.

Buffalo Niagara Honor Flight helps transport our nation's oldest veterans who served in World War II, the Korean War and the Vietnam War to visit the memorials honoring their service and sacrifice to their country, all at no charge to the veterans.

Escorted by eight volunteers from M&T Bank and Buffalo Bills Cornerbacks Levi Wallace and Taron Johnson, the group departed Saturday morning, May 4, from the Buffalo Niagara International Airport and will return late in the evening. Prior to takeoff, the organizations held a special sendoff ceremony to make it a truly memorable experience for the veterans.

"This flight is especially meaningful to our employees, many of whom are veterans themselves and know firsthand the sacrifices involved in military service," said Doug Stevens, M&T Bank Senior Vice President and Manager of Credit Risk Oversight, who himself is a veteran, having served in the U.S. Navy as a lieutenant and nuclear-trained officer. "Every veteran deserves the opportunity to visit the memorials and experience the impact their sacrifices still have on the lives of all Americans, and we're glad to join forces with the Buffalo Bills Foundation to help make the Buffalo Niagara Honor Flight possible."
